Good house for rent CHEAP. Call at JOURNAL office.

Raisins, Currants, Citron, Mince Meat, Buckwheat Cake Syrup, Silver-drip Syrup, Fresh Roasted Coffee, Choicest Teas, Macaroni, Cream Cheese, Beef Tongues, Small Hams, White Beans, Selected Butter received every steamer.

Why did you pay 15c. for your Sunday ham when you can get just as good from Humphrey & Howard for 11c. per pound?

The Spanadoth took out a large cargo of cotton yesterday evening.

The steamer Stout arrived yesterday with a good cargo of general merchandise.

A good lot of rice was in market yesterday and the best article brought $1.05 including sacks.

O. Marks had a big day yesterday. Several large boxes were sent out with goods for country merchants.

Mr. D. C. Jones has returned from Durham for the present, where he has been engaged in the drug business.

Christmas is coming and F. Ulrich is preparing to make a noise. He advertises powder, which the boys will have at all hazards.

Quite an excitement at Five Points on Monday evening last. Mr. Joe Haddock, with his faithful dog, Rip, caught a buck within the city limits! He did not weigh so much as some recently reported, as he was only a buck rabbit.

Raleigh holds a mass meeting tonight in the interest of the Industrial school. We acknowledge receipt of invitation to attend and regret that we cannot be there. We hope something will be done to secure the establishment of the school.

We learn from the Argus that Miss Alice Duffy, of this city, was awarded a premium at the Goldsboro Fair for the most stylish "trimmed lady's hat." If Craven county would have a Fair next fall the ladies of New Berne would show North Carolina what they can do.

We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. E. L. Francks, jr., of Richlands, Onslow county. She was the accomplished daughter of D. E. Sandlin, Esq., and held a warm place in the hearts of a large circle of friends and relatives. The JOURNAL sympathizes with the bereaved husband and parents in their hour of severe affliction.

District Attorney Busbee was in the city yesterday, and during the evening visited the Cotton Exchange and steamer wharves. We like to see men of prominence when they come among us manifest an interest in our industries and public enterprises. It shows that they are eminently North Carolinians and that one section of the State is as dear to them as another.

Zach Rhodes, U. S. Deputy Marshal, and a very efficient officer, when about leaving Kingston Monday night with a prisoner for the U. S. Court, was being roundly abused by a friend of the moonshiners when he lost his temper and let fly a sledge hammer blow at the belligerent which was about to bring on a sharp scrimmage, but other gentlemen present interfered and stopped it. Rhodes is a man of pluck and will dare to do his duty.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held this evening at 7 o'clock in the lecture room of the Presbyterian Church. This being the Week of Prayer, the regular order of business will be preceded by a prayer meeting. Subject: "In the Voyage of Life Take Christ into the Ship." U. S. 6:15-21. Leader, Mr. J. K. Willis. This will be an important meeting and a large attendance is requested. All men, whether members of the Association or not, are cordially invited to attend.

"I will subscribe to the Fair provided I can get permission from John O. Gardner," said a gentleman yesterday. "If you don't get his permission," continued he, "you won't get it up, for he will get an injunction and stop it." We think our friend, though speaking in jest, does Mr. Gardner an injustice, for we believe he is public spirited enough to know that a Fair would be a good help to New Berne, and we have no doubt he is ready to come down with his hundred dollars in hard cash to get it up.

The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Swellings, Blisters, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures them. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per tin.

U. S. District Court.

The District court met at Stanly Hall yesterday morning according to adjournment; His Honor Judge Seymour presiding. District Attorney F. H. Busbee was present representing the government.

In the case of Jones H. Young convicted at the regular term for embezzlement, Doctors J. B. Hughes and Frank Duffy were examined as to his sanity and they both testified that they thought Mr. Young knew right from wrong, though his mind may at times be somewhat deranged, or as Dr. Duffy expressed it, he is rather cranky. His Honor took the case into consideration as to whether he should grant a new trial upon the evidence of insanity and will announce his decision next Tuesday.

E. F. Harrison convicted at regular term for selling liquor without license was sentenced to thirty days imprisonment in Wilson county jail.

Nathan Stanly, who submitted to a verdict of guilty of illicit distilling at the regular term, was recognized to appear at the next regular term of the court for cost.

Court adjourned to next Tuesday.

Free Will Baptist Conference.

We learn from Elder R. K. Hearne of the Free Will Baptist, who has just returned from the Conference held at Howell's Swamp, Greene county, last week, that the Conference was well attended and a most pleasant and profitable session was held. The weather from Thursday, the day of the assembling of the Conference, until Sunday, was delightful, and the attendance was large. On Sunday it began to rain, but notwithstanding this there were six thousand or more people present.

The Conference unanimously voted thanks to Elder Hearne for the manner in which he had conducted their paper, The Free Will Baptist. This was a clever and proper thing on the part of the Conference, but a better thing would be to give substantial aid to the paper by securing paying subscribers. The paper as conducted by Mr. Hearne, is worthy of a liberal support from this body of Christians.

Milow Maize.

We were handed yesterday by Mr. W. H. Whitehurst two large and very fine looking heads of milow maize that were raised by Mr. T. D. Perkins, of Smith's creek. Mr. Perkins planted one acre this year as an experiment from which he realized 50 bushels of seed and he says it is good for both man and beast. He also gathered 2,500 pounds of forage. He says there is very little risk in curing this and that it is much valued by stock.

Improvement of Harbors and Rivers on the South Atlantic Coast.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—I am glad to see in your editorial columns information concerning the convention to be held in Savannah for the purpose of pushing forward the work of improving the South Atlantic Coast. I think with you, that this section should be represented in that convention; and the delegates should be men fully able to represent our interests, and should go with proper credentials. This will require organization, which New Berne and Morehead City should do at once.

Apart from the consideration of sending delegates to Savannah, we should be organized and thereby be enabled to make a strong appeal to our representatives in Congress to do their utmost to secure the appropriations so much needed to open the approaches to the New Berne and Beaufort Canal. I feel sure if we, the people of this portion of the South Atlantic Coast, will put forth a little effort, if we will show to our Representatives that we are in earnest about this matter, this section of coast will not be entirely ignored in the next Congress. When Matt. Ransom, the indefatigable appropriation Senator, gets really in earnest, this portion of the great inland route will be assured.

Now, Mr. Editor, I have this suggestion to offer. Let the New Berne JOURNAL and Beaufort Telephone give special attention to this matter, showing up the great importance of the desired internal improvement, and get the people of this section thoroughly alive on the subject, so as to get the attention of our Congressmen. Get the people, the business men of New Berne, Beaufort, and Morehead City to organize (Harlowe is already organized as the H. & C. River Improvement Association) and then the four organizations can unite in some manner to be determined in a strong appeal to our Representatives, and through them to Congress.

This, I take to be a proper and effective plan; if any one will suggest a better, I and the H. & C. Improvement Association will cheerfully concur.

Hoping to see in the JOURNAL evidence of earnestness and activity of our people.

I am very respectfully,
H. & C. R. Imp. Assn.

La Grange Items.

Col. Davis and the Cadets leave for the Weldon Fair tomorrow, Tuesday.

Rev. Mr. Swain preached here last Sunday; his regular monthly appointment.

C. P. Barrow, of our town, is erecting a new residence on his lot near the railroad.

A telegram to parties here announce the death of Mrs. Dr. Cobb, of Craven county.

Freeman Smith of La Grange was married to Miss Rebecca Rollins last Thursday.

Miss Maggie Kirkpatrick was in our town last week visiting the family of Dr. Hadley.

A. J. Sutton, of our place, and Miss Fannie Gardner, of Bell's Ferry, Pitt county, were married last Wednesday.

We learn that Mrs. George Daly of Wayne county died on the 8th inst. She leaves an infant child but a few days old.

The weather is changeable; Saturday was unpleasantly warm, Sunday rainy, and Monday overcasts were comfortable.

Dr. Hodges is pushing his drug store to completion. The present indications are that it will be ready for use in a few days.

We learn from Dr. Hadley that several cases of bilious fever exists in Wayne county. We are pleased to hear, however, that the cases are on the mend.

Capt. J. W. Rice is giving considerable attention to tobacco this year. We hope the Capt. will succeed in the raising of cotton is not encouraging this season.

J. F. Mewborn, of the firm of Dawson & Mewborn, in Kingston, was in our place Monday. We suppose cotton is going up, Mr. Mewborn's visits usually indicate a rise.

Revs. McCullen and W. E. Swain, and Messrs. Dillon, Barrow and McDonald, of our town, have been elected Honorary Members of the Washington Literary Society, of the Davis School.

Rice has come to our market right freshly for a few days passed, and is selling here at 85 to 95 cents per bushel. The crop is very short and the price below that of last year, which makes it hard on rice growers.

A slight family disturbance caused a Ham to be sent to our guard house Sunday morning. We don't know if this indicates a rise or fall in this commodity. The fall may have taken place before the Ham was sent.

Our market is as uncertain as the weather. Some days we are overstocked with beef and then for several days we have no beef at all. This is bad, we wish our marketmen would make it otherwise for we want some beef right now.

We are sorry to hear that cholera is killing hogs in some places. Shade Wooten has lost nearly all on his plantation in Greene county. J. D. Walters near here has lost several hogs. Meat is cheap but when one has to buy it seems high.

"Blowing" of all kind is disagreeable. The man who "blows" himself or his business is not an agreeable companion; if the wind blows it is not lively weather, but the most disagreeable blower of modern times is the chap, white or colored on the street with a mouth harp. He disgusts everybody and makes no music.

We were shown some very fine turkeys, the finest we have seen this season, last week, grown by C. W. Joyner, Esq., of our town. They were being taken to the Fair at Goldsboro. Mr. Joyner says that he has raised large quantities of turkeys and carrots this season, and has enough housed to feed his stock nearly through the season.

We hear of a magnificent marriage and marriage supper at N. B. Outlaws, in Duplin county last week. Twenty barbecues, with other wedding fixing in proportion, and from three to five hundred guests reminds one of "ye olden times" when these occasions were looked to with so much pleasure by the whole community. The contracting parties were Mr. Grady and Miss Outlaw, daughter of N. B. Outlaw, Esq. The couple left for Baltimore next day.

Stonewall Items.

C. H. Fowler narrowly escaped the loss of his cotton gin and grist mill by fire on last Tuesday. It would not only have been a sad pecuniary loss to Mr. F., but a great inconvenience to the whole community, for I am confident that he does the ginning of nine-tenths of the cotton in this section. As troubles never come singly, on Friday morning last his smoke stack collapsed and is now lying on the ground worn out by old age and rust.

W. E. Hooker and Joe Miller, (fat Joe) of Bayboro, have been occupying their new store for a week or two, and they have sorter knocked the spots out of Capt. Gibbs. First and last, they say it is now 1st and 3d. They are prepared to administer to the wants of all, either internally or externally, and all who have any doubts I would advise to do as I did, give them a call. Joe and Wallace are both clever fellows.

W. E. Hooker has the frame raised for him a new dwelling. H. H. Dowdy has the frame for a new store near the court house up and ready for boarding; but the timber for the new church is still in the pile; it has been in for some what like the church improvement in Stonewall; it has only reached under-planning. The only way to account for it is that when the shepherd leaves the flock for healthier times, the sheep feed where they please.

Jones County Items.

Sickness is abating; our physicians are resting a little.

Cotton nearly all picked out; crop one-third short. Corn crop short; not near as large as last year.

Cotton pickers had fine weather last week, and made good use of it. All who would work, had money to spend on Saturday last.

Jones county sends greetings to Craven and says let's have a fair. Won't our citizens each and every one try and have something to send there? We can if we will, even astonish ourselves at the New Berne Fair.

We learn that there will be a large number of bids sent in to the postoffice department for carrying the double daily mail between Trenton and Core creek. We sincerely hope some one will get it who will be able to run a hack and carry freight and passengers.

Our superintendent of common schools says that the new appointed committees are very tardy in their district census reports of children, only a few have reported. We hope the committees will see that their reports are all sent to him, as he needs them to make his report to the State Superintendent. Besides, the county has been restricted, and it is very important to have them as early as practicable.

Mr. W. E. Ward had his hand in a sling on Saturday; said that a rat had been cutting up the brush in his gin and that he slipped the band to look out for him and had given up all hopes of finding him, so he started up the machinery and it caught his hand under the band, and before he could extricate it, nashed it up badly; but, continued he, just as I cleared my hand, out jumped the rat from the brush wheel on the band, which dashed him about 10 feet against the wall and killed him. But, said he, I could not help enjoying that rat's ride notwithstanding I too was hurt badly.

I learn from a gentleman who resides near where the honey jug was caught by the catfish biting at a hook that the Squire who lost this honey jug said that he lost at the same time and at the same place a jug of good apple brandy, which has caused a tremendous excitement among the fishermen. He says that they have passed up and down the river bank along a narrow foot path where there was a pine log which they have stepped over until they have worn out a hole nearly knee deep. All are pretending to be fishing, but at the same time are keeping a sharp lookout for the Squire's jug of good old apple brandy.

Many of the old citizens of Trenton township recollect old uncle Jack Mallard, who resided many years ago near where is now called the Nethercut forks of the Kingston and New Berne and Trenton roads. Mr. Mallard was a remarkable man for his age; never had scarcely any sickness and was possessed with a very retentive memory. Mr. Mallard had a great fondness for children and would sit for hours telling old time stories and tough yarns to them. Whenever he finished relating one of his tough ones no matter how unreasonably it appeared, the harder he would try to explain it. I recollect about forty-five years ago that he was telling us about a gentleman on Neuse river who was digging a well and when he had dug it 20 feet that he came to a light wood stump and on that stump was an iron wedge. I thought then I would stumble the good old man by enquiring of him how the wedge got there. Why, said he, never stopping, you see that some one before the flood was splitting timber and his wife called him to breakfast and it rained so hard he never could get back again. But Mr. Levi Heath, of the Chinquapin section told me last week that he was digging a well this fall in the woods where there never had been a dwelling during the recollection of the oldest inhabitant, and at the depth of 13 feet in the clay he found a jug handle which he supposed belonged to a three gallon jug. Mr. Heath says this is a real fact. The same gentleman informs me that he had found in his cotton field a stalk of cotton that had bolls with 16 cells in them.

Who's the Best Physician?

The one that does most to relieve suffering humanity of the thousand and one ills that befall them, bringing joy to sorrowing thousands, is certainly the best of all physicians. Electric Bitters are daily doing this, curing hundreds that have tried all other remedies and found no relief. As a Spring tonic and blood purifier they are a perfect specific, and for liver and kidney complaints have no equal. In the strongest sense of the term, they are positively the best and cheapest physician known.—Daily Times. Sold by all druggists at 50 cents.

Scrofula.

Are any members of your family thus afflicted? Have they scrofulous swellings of the glands? Have they any scrofulous sores or ulcers? If so, and it should be neglected, the peculiar taint, or poison, may deposit itself in the substance of the lungs, producing consumption. Look well to the condition of your family, and if thus afflicted, give the proper remedy without delay. Buy that which makes absolute cures in the shortest space of time. The unerring finger of public opinion points to B. B. B. as the most wonderful remedy for scrofula ever known. You need not take our word—you need not know our names—merit is all you seek. Ask your neighbors, ask your druggist, ask or write to those who give their certificates and be convinced that B. B. B. is the quickest and most perfect Blood Purifier ever before known. For sale wholesale and retail by R. N. Duffy. Cash to accompany the order.

At his residence in this county on Monday night, Mr. John S. Gaskins, for many years sexton of Cedar Grove Cemetery, aged 84 years, passed away.
