A Building and Loan Association is being talked of in New Berne. If properly conducted it would prove a blessing to many of moderate means in helping them to secure homes.

Regular meeting of the Improvement Association will be held this evening at the Board of Trade Rooms. Questions of importance will be discussed and every citizen who feels an interest in the progress of the city should attend.

Mr. H. G. Tull has presented the Young Men's Christian Association with twenty-five copies of the Bible and fifty copies of "Gospel Hymns." Other gifts and aid, such as lumber, nails, etc., for fitting up their new rooms, have been given the Association, which they appreciate very much.

The pastor of this church, Rev. V. W. Shields, has consented to reproduce his sermon of last Sunday—"I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one—1st St John, 3: 14—upon this occasion.

New Berne Theatre. It is now settled that Clara Louise Kellogg will visit New Berne, but the time has not been definitely fixed. It is not of that New Berne is honored with a visit by such a celebrated Prima Donna. Thanks to manager John C. Green.

On the 16th of December the celebrated violinist Camilla Urso will appear at the Theatre. This will also be a first-class entertainment. The Theatre going people should patronize liberally first-class companies and encourage them to come this year. All people are more or less fond of amusement, therefore it is important that none but those of a high order should be encouraged to give entertainments at our Theatre.

Graven County Fair.

Table listing names and amounts for the Graven County Fair, including E. H. Meadows, C. E. Foy, M. Hahn, J. A. Bryan, E. W. Smallwood, Jno. A. Richardson, C. K. Hancock, Herbert Tull, Esq., New Berne Journal, O. Marks, Jos. Schwerin, W. G. Brinson, Dail Bros., Charles Hollister, Thos. Gates & Co., A. J. Meadows, Moore & Brady, B. A. Bell, Dr. J. B. Hughes, Dr. G. L. Shackelford, M. DeW. Stevenson, Esq., Dr. Frank Hughes, W. S. Phillips, Jos. K. Willis, T. J. Mitchell, C. H. Blank, S. F. Teiser, W. C. Willett, Maj. D. W. Hurt, W. E. Canned Peas.

We had the pleasure of testing the quality of Messrs. Moore & Brady's canned peas a few days ago and were pleased with the fine flavor, freshness, and palatableness thereof. Mr. Moore is of the opinion that peas grown in this section are excellent for canning and he hopes to be able to can a great many the coming spring. If our farmers can make a steady demand for their peas at a reasonably fair profit, it strikes us it would be much better to plant for canning than to run the risk of obtaining fancy prices. A good cotton crop can be made after the pea crop is taken off, in fact about as good cotton as we have seen in this community this year was grown after a pea crop. We hope Messrs. Moore & Brady can make satisfactory arrangements with the farmers for peas and other vegetable enough to keep their factory going long after the oyster season is over.

Large Rutabagas.

Benj. Fisher, col. of Gar Bacon creek, Carteret county, brought to our office yesterday two monster rutabaga turnips. One, the yellow stone variety, weighed 5 1/2 pounds; the other, the white variety weighed 7 1/2 pounds and measured 26 inches in circumference. He raised them with home-made fertilizers, and brought about seven bushels to market on this trip. If he had sent them to the Colored Industrial Fair he would probably have obtained a premium.

Fisher seems to be very much aggrieved at having been cut off from Craven county and transferred to Carteret. Says he loves the old county and wants to be buried in it. But he says he has no consolation, and that he can't keep him from coming to New Berne with his produce.

However much he may be disturbed about the transfer there is one thing certain, it has not kept his land from producing turnips.

Judge McKay Dead.

We learn from the Wilmington Star that Judge Almond A. McKay died at Clinton, Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock. The Star in an extended notice of his death says: Judge McKay was, we suppose, about 60 years of age. He was the son of the late Dr. William McKay of Clinton. He began the practice of law in 1850. He served several terms in the Legislature, and was a member of the Constitutional Convention that met after the war. He served a short while in the war, with the rank of Colonel. In 1874 he was elected a Circuit Judge, and he was serving his second term at his death. He was a strict communicant in the Episcopal Church, and was exemplary and conscientious in every relation of life.

He possessed good abilities, without brilliancy or greatness—a man of sound understanding that had been fairly cultivated and strengthened. As a Jurist he will not rank with the other great legal lights of our State. But a more upright, a more merciful, a better meaning Judge never sat upon the Bench. He attempted to hold the scales of justice with even hand and bandaged eyes. He was extremely scrupulous, as we know, and if he erred it was on the side of humanity, and because of his gentleness and amiability of character. He wore the ermine without spot, and he has gone to his grave honored, revered, beloved, in leaving a name as pure and as good as any that has been borne by any of those men who have preceded him to the tomb and who rodo the Judicial Circuits of North Carolina. It is a noticeable fact that Judge McKay had fewer decisions reversed by the Supreme court than any judge who has ever been in our State.

Only a few weeks ago we met him in this city. He was broken in health, but as we saw his genial smile and held his friendly hand we little thought that in this world we should never meet again. But the good man, the true friend, the worthy citizen, the upright Judge, is gone. Oh, these surndering of earthly ties—this breaking up of family circles—this separating of friends—this going into an unknown world—this taking of the "morningless and unweakening sleep," so far as this life goes. But the silent speech of hand to hand might be less dear, in the strange land that had no grave.

A Pretty Wedding.

The Cooper-Mitchell wedding, announced in another column, was one of the prettiest church weddings that has ever come off in New Berne. The Baptist Church, where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. W. Sanderlin, of La Grange, in the absence of the Pastor, Rev. Mr. Jenkins, resplendent with the perfume of violets and beautifully decorated with evergreens, white, crimson and golden carysanthemums, was filled with the friends and acquaintances of the bride, even the galleries showing rows of ladies who had mounted there for a better view of the ceremony.

About one-quarter of the church, cut off by white satin ribbons looped over evergreen shrubs, was reserved for the family and especial friends of the bride who were seated by the ushers, Messrs. A. M. Baker, H. G. Tull, J. H. Hackburn and C. L. Ives. The organ, played by Miss Fanny Holland, pealed out loudly as the wedding party reached the door, and then sank into a low sweet strain which accompanied the ceremony without interfering with it, the minister's voice being distinctly heard above the music.

The bride was given away by her uncle, and late guardian, Mr. James W. Walker, of Durham, her dress was not only elegant but in exquisite taste, being a heavy cloth of rich golden brown trimmed with feather ruching of the same shade. She is a universal favorite in this her native place, and will be sadly missed, not only in the social circle in which she moved, but in her church, of which she was an active, working member.

The attendants were: J. W. Cooper, of Henderson, and Miss Nannie E. Mitchell, of New Berne, Thomas J. Mitchell, of New Berne, and Miss J. Henry Blackwell, of Baltimore, Md., W. W. Doutin, of Henderson, and Miss Belle Cooper, of Oxford, Henry Wilkinson, of Oxford, and Miss Hannah S. Allen, of New Berne, Thad R. Manning, of Henderson, and Miss Annie Blackwell, of New Berne.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party left for a trip to North, accompanied by the good wishes of the bride's numerous friends, who all feel that Henderson has taken from New Berne one who was highly valued and will be greatly missed.

Lem. Casey and family have moved to our town.

W. T. Caho is having quite an addition added to his office. So on the whole we are not retrograding.

In Bayboro, on the 10th inst., at the residence of L. Miller, Miss Chally Miller, and Jesse Riggs, of Bear creek were hitched together for a double plug through this life Wm. Mayo, J. P., officiating. Truly they have my best wishes.

The amount of bears that are being killed in the bear range in various parts of the county is a premonition that a prospect for raising more hogs is ahead if cholera could be kept off. There is a remedy sold by C. H. Fowler that will surely keep it off, and will if used in time cure the sick. I know of what I speak.

A. H. Whitcomb, our mill man, has made a new departure in the way of work. When he first started the mill he worked his hands all day Saturday. It was predicted by some of the old settlers that it could not last long as there is not a man, black, blue, or yellow, in the whole of Pamlico who ever think of working a lick after 12 m. Saturday evening except a job that must not be put off till Monday; and now he has added to 10 o'clock at night, which time his mill stops. Who can say that Stonewall is not progressing? Per adventure some of the East may fall into line. He has had an improved edging, frame added to his mill which is quite an improvement. Asa, the brother of Mr. Whitcomb, has been quite under the weather for several days, being initiated in the malarial troubles of our section. He seems to be equal to the emergency and from present indications will soon be right again.

A Remarkable Escape.

Mrs. George C. Clarke, of Port Dalhousie, Ontario, states that she has been confined to her room for a long time with that dreadful disease, Consumption. The doctors said she could not escape an early grave, but fortunately she began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and in a short time was completely cured. Doubting ones, please write Mrs. Clarke, and be convinced. Sold by all druggists.

Scrofula.

Are any members of your family thus afflicted? Have they scrofulous swellings of the glands? Have they any scrofulous sores or ulcers? If so, and it should be neglected, the peculiar taint, or poison, may deposit itself in the substance of the lungs, producing CONSUMPTION. Look well to the condition of your family, and if thus afflicted, give the proper remedy without delay. Buy that which makes absolute cures in the shortest space of time. The unerring finger of public opinion points to E. B. B. as the most wonderful remedy for scrofula ever known. You need not take our word—you need not know our names—merit is all you seek. Ask your neighbors, ask your druggist, ask or write to those who give their certificates and be convinced that E. B. B. is the quickest and most perfect Blood Purifier ever before known. For sale wholesale and retail by R. N. Duffy. Cash to accompany the order.

CLIPPINGS.

Nearly all the mines in the Seattle (W. T.) region are now operated without Chinamen.

At Acworth, Ga., a few days ago, two persons, about to enter into the bonds of matrimony, stood on a tombstone to be wedded.

A church at Terre Haute has been built in just sixteen days from the time the corner stone was laid. It is "very beautiful, finished in native woods, with windows of sapphire and ruby glass."

The "Lancet" states that a German observer has found that cows milked three times a day give much more milk than when milked twice only, and that the proportion of the fat is the same in both cases.

The Portland [Me.] Board of Health will place an officer on the Grand Trunk trains, who will go out as far as Danville Junction and examine all passengers and baggage coming from Montreal, using a system of checks to prevent persons from getting through.

The history of a Vermont mountain town is thus epitomized by a good observer: "The early settlers cleared up good farms, and the children got rich from them. The grandchildren ran them down, and loaded the town with debts. The next generation skipped away to the West."

Some months since Holkar, one of the great East Indian rulers, while on a visit to Lord Dufferin, saw his lordship going through the process of cutting his newspapers and reviews. The Indian potentate asked for the ivory paper knife, promising another in return. The prince returned recently to Government House, taking with him a young elephant, and the animal had had its tusks shaped and sharpened, and between the Rajah's two visits to Calcutta had undergone a training in secretarial work. When led into Lord Dufferin's presence, it took up some newspapers with its trunk, cut them, and placed them on a carpet in an orderly fashion.

The Parisians are rejoicing in the prospect of being able to indulge in the sport of salmon fishing in the Seine and the Marne at no distant day. The artificial foundation of 80,000 salmon ova is going on in the aquarium of the Trocadero; and when the fry is sufficiently grown to support the change, these rivers and their affluents are to be stocked with the young fish. The parent salmon some 500 in number, were imported from California in 1878. It has been calculated that the stocking of the French rivers with American salmon, if it should be successfully accomplished, would represent an annual gain to the country of some 40,000,000 francs.

Analyzing the Baking Powders.

Under the direction of the New York State Board of Health, eighty-four different kinds of baking powders, embracing all the brands that could be found for sale in the State, were submitted to examination and analysis by Prof. C. F. Chandler, a Member of the State Board and President of the New York City Board of Health, assisted by Prof. Edward G. Loye, the well-known late United States Government chemist. The official report shows that a large number of the powders examined were found to contain alum or lime; many of them to such an extent as to render them seriously objectionable for use in the preparation of human food.

Alum was found in twenty-nine samples. This drug is employed in baking powders to cheapen their cost. The presence of lime is attributed to the impure cream of tartar of commerce used in their manufacture. Such cream of tartar was also analyzed, and found to contain lime and other impurities; in some samples to the extent of .93 per cent of their entire weight. All the baking powders of the market, with the single exception of "Royal" (not including the alum and phosphate powders, which were long since discarded as unsafe or inefficient by prudent housekeepers) are made from the impure cream of tartar of commerce, and consequently contain lime to a corresponding extent.

The only baking powder yet found by chemical analysis to be entirely free from lime and absolutely pure is the "Royal." This perfect purity results from the exclusive use of cream of tartar specially refined and prepared by patent process of the N. Y. Tartar Co., which totally remove the tartrate of lime and other impurities. The cost of this chemically pure cream of tartar is much greater than any other, and on account of this greater cost is used in no baking powder but the "Royal."

Prof. Loye, who made the analyses of baking powders for the New York State Board of Health, as well as for the Government, says of the purity and wholesomeness of "Royal":

"I have tested a package of 'Royal Powder' which I purchased in the open market, and find it composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder of a high degree of merit, and does not contain either alum or phosphates or any injurious substances. E. G. LOYE, Ph. D."
