LOCAL NEWS.

New Berne, latitude, 35° 6' North. longitude, 77° 3' West. Sun rises, 6:30 | Length of day, Sun sets, 4:47 | 9 hours, 3 minutes. Meon rises at 11:50 p. m.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

CRANBERRIES at C. E. SLOVER'S,

Skating Rink—Open every night during the week. Special ladies nights, Thursdays. Skates furnished at usual rates and good order will be maintained.

1934. JAS. W. WATERS.

Orders for graining, fresco and sign pointing, can be left with Bell the Jeweler. 18 10t John House.

All who have tried our 10c, hams say hey are as good as any in market. HUMPHREY & HOWARD.

The new court house is being put in condition for holding court.

Rice brought as high as $1.07 per bushel in this market yesterday. The Shenandouh carried out a ful cargo of cotton yesterday evening. The funeral of Vice-President Hendricks will take place next Tuesday, Dec. 1st, at 12 m. Cotton was brisk at the Exchange yesterday. The most of the 300 bales sold brought 9 cents per pound.

Solicitor Collins has arrived and is criminal docket before him next week.

In response to the inquiry, how is trade, yesterday, a prominent merchant on Middle street said he had just all he could do through the day.

"Its the same old news in Jones," said Mr. Andrew Gooding, of Cypress creek yesterday, "Two thirds of a crop and the mortgage not paid."

The flags of the steamer Shenandoah, Revenue Cutter Stevens, and other vessels in port yesterday, were at half-mast in respect to the late Vice-President. Thos. A. Hendricks.

It was a crowd of jolly fellows that went from here to Goldsboro to witness Frederick Warde in "Virginius," and they were universal in pronouncing him a tragedian of wonderful genius.

The New Berne Steam Fire Co., always public spirited and enterprising, zealous in good works, never waiting to be led but always leading, immediately upon hearing of the death of Vice-President Hendricks, placed their flag at half Harry Stevenson, Esq., was the most successful hunter that went out on Thanksgiving day. A reporter states his account thusly: To hire of horse and buggy $2.00, ammunition 50 cents. Creditor, By two larks, scared to death, 15 cents.

The negro who was arrested near Riverdale last Saturday morning by Deputy Sheriff Hahn as the murderer of Charles Ellis, col., in Pitt county, proved to be the wrong one and he was released. Primus Becton, the real murderer, is still at large.

The steamer Defiance sailed for Baltimore Thursday with the largest cargo ever carried from New Berne by steamer. It consisted of 612 bales cotton, 258 barrels of cleaned rice, 68,000 ies, 73,000 wood plates, 200 sacks of cotton seed meal and many other emaller articles.

The trap doors on the sidewalk in front of the Whitford building below the express office are being removed. This is one of the most commendable improvements we have seen in New Berne for sometime. There are many more of these old traps extending into the sidewalks that ought to be removed.

The young ladies' military drill drew another large crowd at Stanly Hall on Thursday. The gallant Captain had trained them during the evening in two London house was remarked to Mr. Hendricks's close political and perdeill Hon. C. C. Clark, on behalf of Aid Society, in a few very approto remarks, thanked them for the mer in which they had assisted in constrainment, after which an invion was extended by that prince of chants, Mr. A. M. Baker, to the pany to partake of refreshments in and his Sunday-school class, invitation was accepted in very to terms by the first sergeint, and the Organize at Once.

Maj. Gordon, of Egypt farm, approves of the idea of holding an agricultural Fair at New Berne, and says an organization ought to be effected at once and the premium list announced before the farmers pitch their crops. We hardly think there will be any trouble in awakening an interest in the Fair among the farmers throughout this section; they would all attend and many of them bring something to exhibit. There are many of our citizens who intend helpmany of our citizens who intend help-stances that were particularly distress-ing in this enterprise but are waiting, ing to his family and friends, insomuch waiting, waiting. Give us a few more names and an organization will be formed and work begun.

Fine Apples.

The JOURNAL is indebted to Mrs. Dr. Wm. Pell Ballance, of Mount Airy, for a peck of fine mountain apples which were delivered to the editor on Thanksgiving day. They were large, juicy and fine-flavored, and were highly enjoyed by the old as well as the young attachees of the JOURNAL. We have often thought it hard that the merchants of our eastern towns have to get their supply of apples for winter trade from the orchards of western New York instead of from western North Carolina. But railread lines don't believe in encouraging the people in one section of self, and ate quite a hearty breakfast, It is understood that the President North Carolina to consume what is made saying that he felt much better and his Cabinet will attend the funeral. North Carolina to consume what is made in another. It might hurt the business of some other State.

We wish Mrs. and Dr. Ballance sucpreparing to wrestle with the large cess and happiness in their new home.

į	Craven County Fatr.
9		l to th
į	Fair:
)	E. H. Meadows	$100.0
	C. E. Foy	100 0
,	M. Hahn	100.0
	T A Penan	100.0
)	E. W. Smallwood	100 0
•		100.0
	C. K. Hancock	10.0
	Herbert Tull. Esq	10.0
	New Berne Journal	100.0
į	O. Marks	100 0
	Jos. Schwerin	50 0
١	W. G. Brinson	100.0
Ì	Dail Bros	20.0
	Charles Hollister	10.0
		20.0
	J. A. Meadows	100.0
	Moore & Brady	100.0
	B. A. Bell	20.0
-	Dr. J. B. Hughes	25 00
1	Dr. G. L. Shackleford	10.00
ı	M. DeW. Stevenson, Esq	10 0
ł	Dr. Frank Hughes	25.00
1	W. S. Phillips	5.00
١	Joe K. Willis	25.00
١	T. J. Mitchell	25.00
1	C. H. Blank	25.00
-	S. F. Teiser	50.00
	W. C. Willett	50 0
١	Maj. D. W. Hurtt	25.00
ı	W. E. Patterson	25.00
	J. C. Whitty	50.00
1	Wm. Dunn	25.00
	A. M. Baker	50.00
	Dr. J. F. Long	25.00
I	P. H. Pelletier	10.00
1	H. B. Duffy	20.00
	John Dunn	25.00
1	warm a will in the second seco

Thanksgiving Hunters.

The Superior court having adjourned over yesterday, the Judge, the Bar, the Clerk, and others too numerous to mention, passed our office about 11 o'clock with deer-slaughtering intent, but we did not think any damage would be done to the deer.

by the gentlemanly and scholarly Mr. "Clem" Manly, of New Berne. Some of the party insist that he came very near killing two-one at each end .-Pamlico Enterprise.

CLIPPINGS.

A young Salvation Army girl recently fell very ill in Portsmouth, N. H. The Captain refused to permit her to go to the hospital, and said she must work till she died. She thereupon deserted, and the indignation of the people is aroused. Mr. John S. Wise, who was recently used in the hope of advancing Gen. Ma-hone's political prospects in Virginia, announces that he has "permanently retired out of politics" and that he will devote himself to the practice of law.

There can scarcely be a doubt of the ar movements not executed on the ning before. At the conclusion of drill Hon. C. C. Clark, on behalf of drill Hon. C. C. Clark, on behalf of drill Hon. C. The value of the jewelry stolen in England since 1870 would run up into hundreds of thousands of pounds. A fashionable jeweller in league with such an operator as the master of "The House in the Marsh" ought to do amazingly well-if no woman is let into the experimenting on the inoculability of pull by the first sergent, and the repaired to the table where rests were served in good style. It were successful, one doubtful, and four negative. The inoculations were brought about by the use of mosquitees, which were first caused to sting patients affering from the fever, and afterward allowed to sting the persons whom it was intended to inoculate. Whatever may be the result of Dr. Finally in the server in striking contrast with the sad scene.

Whatever may be the result of Dr. Finally in the server in striking contrast with the sad scene.

Whatever may be the result of Dr. Finally in the server in striking contrast with the sad scene.

Whatever may be the result of Dr. Thompson says in his opinion Mr. Hendricks died of paralysis of the brain, and there will probably be a post morten because the first caused to sting the person which had been allowed to accumulate without answering in the last two or three days. His dressing gown and slippers were at his bedside, and near by was a small stand on which were various medicines and a goblet of water. Portraits, landscapes and bric a brac adorn the walls of the striking contrast with the sad scene.

Dr. Thompson says in his opinion Mr. Hendricks died of paralysis of the brain, and there will probably be a post morten because the first caused to sting the person when it was intended to inoculate.

Whatever may be transmitted by the mere the examination to establish what the disease was.

Naws of Mr. Hendricks death spread rapidly throughout the gity, and there was a small stand on which were various medicines and a goblet of water. Portraits, landscapes and bric a brac adorn the walls of the same was many be transmitted by the mere disease was.

THOS. A. HENDRICKS DEAD.

His Last Words Were, "I am Free a

Indianapolis, Nov. 25.—Vice-President Heudricks attended a reception last evening. This morning he complained of feeling unwell, he rapidly grew worse, and died this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Mr. Hendricks died under circumas they had not anticipated a fatal ter-mination of his brief illness, and nobody was with him when the end came. He returned from Chicago Saturday last, and since then had been complaining somewhat of pain in his head and breast but nothing serious was thought of it. Last night he and Mrs. Hendricks attended a reception given at the residence of Hon. John Cooper, Treasurer of the State, returning home on their carriage about midnight. Mr. Hendricks had taken off the heavy clothing which he usually wore, and put on a dress suit of lighter material, and before he got sat by the fire for an hour or more before retiring, but declined to send for a physician although urged to do so. He morning, when he arose, dressed himwould attend to considerable delayed business during the day. He and Mrs. tended by all the members except Sec-Hendricks walked out for nearly half retary Manning and Attorney-General hour later, however, he began to be troubled with pains in the region of his President. When the Cabinet Stomach and Mrs. Hendricks stomach and Mrs. Hendricks sent for the family physician, Dr. W. C. Thompson, a lifelong and confidential friend of the Vice-President, who relieved his pain. He arose from his bed in which he had lain for only a few minutes, and read the morning papers, talking cheerfully with his wife and an old time house-servant. Just before noon he had a relapse, however, and the physician was again summoned and administered the usual remedies, besides bleeding the patient, and Mr. Hendricks expressed himself as being greatly relieved. He remained in his room all the afternoon, occasionally rising from his bed to which he was compelled to return by a recurrence of the abdominal pains. To all callers who came, and they were numer-ous, he sent word that he was indisposed, but would be glad to see them tomorrow. About 4:30 o'clock Hrs. Hendricks, who had been at his bed-side all day, went down into the parlor to see a caller who had come to consult with her regarding the affairs of a reformatory institution of which she was one of the managers, and she remained with him about twenty minutes. Tom, a colored servant, and Harry Morgan, Mr. Hendricks's nephew, a page in Washington, remained with him. Mr. Hendricks tossed uneasily on his bed and complained of great pain, but suddenly it seemed to cease, and he said to his tary of the Senate: I am free at l Eliza," meaning his wife, and these were his last words, for the young man, not realizing the urgency of the message, did not deliver it at once. Just before 5 o'clock Mrs. Hendricks came into the room and found that her husband was dead. The end of a long and eventful life had come peacefully and quietly. He lay on the bed outside of the covering, only partially disrobed, as if he was in a gentle sleep. On his face there were no traces of grief or THE RESULT.—An all-day's hunt and suffering, but a pallor had come over it but one goose brought down, and that that indicated only too plainly that he had passed away. It needed no close examination to tell that he was dead. and Mrs. Hendricks screamed and ran down stairs. A servant was dispatched to the residence of Dr. Thompson, adjoining, and he came immediately, but by the time he had reached the bedside the limbs of the distinguished states man were becoming cold and rigid, and to Mrs. Hendricks's pathetic appeal—

"Oh, Doctor, can't you do something?"
—he was obliged to answer, "It is too late." Mrs. Hendricks became almost distracted with grid and it masses. distracted with grief, and it was an hour or more before she became sufficiently composed to give any informa-tion about her husband's last moments family servants, two of whom had lived with Mr. Hendricks for years, ran abou the house crying and moaning, and there was utmost confusion for a time. When the news was bulletined down town it was generally discredited, yet sonal friends had hurried to the hou Very soon a great crowd collected around the entrance and on the street, and it was found necessary to refuse dmission to any and all comers except immediate relatives. Mr. Hendricks died in his private chamber, a large, comfortable room in which he did most of his work. Near Dr. Carlos Finlay of Havana has been experimenting on the inoculability of yellow fever. The disease was found to number of letters which had been allowed to accumulate without answering in the last two or three days. His dressing gown and slippers were at his bedside, and near by was a small stand on which were various medicines and a goblet of water. Portraits, landscapes and bric a brac adorn the walls of the rooms, and were in striking contrast with the sad scene.

Dr. Thompson says in his opinion Mr. Hendricks died of paralysis of the brain, and there, will probably be a post mortem examination to establish what the disease was.

around the down-town bulletin boards all the evening, while in the vicinity of his residence there were another crowd, all anxious to learn the particulars of ces, so that by morning the city will have put on the funeral garb of mourning. All the city ministers will, in their Thanksgiving services tomorrow make appropriate mention of the death of the distinguished statesman, and Right Reverend Bishop Knickerbocker Bishop of the diocese of Indianapolis of the Episcopal Church, of which Mr. Hendricks was a life-long member, will preach a memorial sermon. WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The an-nouncement of the death of Vice President Hendricks has cast a deep gloom over the Capitol. Mr. Hendricks' health had improved so much during the last year or two that his friends looked to his continuance in public life for many more years, and the news of home he complained of chilliness and a his sudden death came with a shock. certain degree of exhaustion, but attributed it to malarial influences. He an Associated Press bulletin from Indianapolis. The President and members of the Cabinet were informed at once, and the President immediately slept restlessly until about 8 o'clock this called a meeting of the Cabinet to take suitable action.

It is understood that the President and The Cabinet meeting tonight was at EXECUTIVE MANSION,

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 25, '85) To the People of the United States:

Thomas A. Hendricks, Vice-President of the United States, died today at 5 p. m., at Indianapolis, and it becomes my mournful duty to announce the dis-tressing fact to his fellow-countrymen. In respect to the memory and eminence and varied services of this high official and patriotic public servant, whose long career was so full of usefulness and honor to his States, it is ofdered that the National flag be placed at half-mast upon all public buildings of the United States, that the Evecutive Mansion and the several Executive Departments in the City of Washington be closed on the day of the funeral and be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days. That the usual and appropriate military and naval honors be rendered, and on all legations and consultates in foreign countries the National flag shall be dis-played at half-mast on the reception of this order, and the usual emblems of mourning be adopted for thirty days.
[Sigened] [GROVER CLEVELAND,
By the President.

T. F. BAYARD, Secretary of State.

The following was sent to the Secre-

EXECUTIVE MANSION. WASHINGTON, November 25, 1885, To Hon. Anson G. McCook, Secretary of the Senate:

I am directed by the President to in-form you that he has received inteligence of the death of Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks, Vice-President of the United States, and to convey to you his suggestion that you take immediate steps, in conjunction with the Clerk of the House of Representatives, to secure proper representation of Congress at the funeral Vvery resp'y, your ob'd't serv't, DANIEL S. LAMONT, Private Sec'y.

The President was just sitting down to dinner when the following dispatch was handed him:

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Nov. 25, 1885. To President Cleveland: Vice-President Hendricks died suddenly this afternoon. Disease probably paralysis. WM. H. ENGLISH.

He was greatly shocked at the news it contained, and immediately sent the following telegram to Mrs. Hendricks:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, Nov. 25, 1885. T.- A. Hendricks, Indianapolis,

The sudden and lamentable death of our husband excites my profound sympathy for you in this hour of your great affliction, and I sincerely mourn the decease of one so lately associated with me in the execution of the people's highest trust, while the nation mourns the loss of an honest citizen and a faithful public servant.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

Shortly afterwards he received the ollowing:

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Nov. 25, 1885.

Mr. Hendricks sent me a message at noon today at which time he was slightly unwell only. He died about 4 p. m., no one being present at the actual moment of his death. Dr. Thompson, his

Salvation Oil delights everybody. It an be had of all druggists and dealers in medicines. It gradicates pain by quickly removing the cause. It is a cific for neuralgia, rheumatism, and on board steamer at New Barne. ain in the side, back, and limbs. Price

A good article that has achieved success, and attained a world-wide reputation by its true merits and wonderful Last"—How the News of His Death his suddendemise. The evening papers results, is always imitated. Such is the Was Received—The President Calls a could not get out editions fast enough to supply the demand.

Mr. Hendricks had been dead but a ready unprincipled parties are endeavered. few minutes when forces of men began oring to delude an unsuspecting public, craping the State, county and city build-by offering imitations of this most for ings, and throughout the night similar tunate discovery. Do not be deceived, smblems were placed on nearly all but insist on having the true remedy. prominent business houses and residen- and take no other. For sale by all reli-

MARRIED.

KNOWLES-ELLIS.-At the residence of Maj. John Hughes (the uncle of the bride), on Wednesday morning, Novem ber 26th, 1885, by the Rev. Mr. Shields, Mr. William H. Knowles, of Pensacola, Florida, to Miss Mary D. Ellis, of this

Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple started on an extended bridal tour.

The great number of mementoes of love and affection received by the bride evidenced the esteem in which she is held by her many friends.

The people of Newbern greatly regret to part with Mrs. Knowles. She carries to her new home in the far-off land, 'Where the gold Orange glows in the deep thickets gloom," their best wishes for her Health, for her Happiness, for her Prosperity.

And also their hope may "Joy and Gladness meet Thee," the voice of the Bridegroom and the voice of the Bride, Newbern, N. C.

COMMERCIAL.

JOURNAL OFFICE, Nov. 27, 8 P. M. COTTON.

NEW YORK, November 27.-3:11 P. M Futures closed dull. Sales of 53,200 bales. November, 9.43 9.55 December. June, 10.10 January, July, 10.19February, August March, 9.79 September,

April, 9.89 October,
Spots steady; Middling 9.7-16; Low
Middling 9.3-16; Good Ordinary 8.7-16. New Berne market steady. Sales of 300 bales at 8t to 9. Middling 9; Low Middling 838;

Sale of Damaged Cotton

Good Ordinary 8.

The residue of 112 Bales of Cotton, burned on Edward's flat, will be sold near foot of Craven street, AT AUCTION, on ### Tuesday, Dec. 1st, 1885,

on account of all concerned.

DAIL BROS.

NATIONAL BANK OF NEW BERNE.

NEW BERNE, N. C., November 20, 1885. In conformity with the instructions of the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States, the following certificate is published for the information of all concerned. Very respectfully, JOHN HUGHES, President.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

OFFICE OF COMPTROLLER OF THE CURRENCY WASHINGTON, November 18th, 1885,
WHERRAS, by satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that "The National Bank of New Berne," in the City of New Berne, in the County of Craven and State of North Carolina, has compiled with all the provisions of the "Act of Congress to enable National Banking Associations to extend their corporate existence and for other purposes," approved July 12th, 1882. WASHINGTON, November 18th, 1885, Banking Associations of extending the contract existence and for other purposes," approved July 12th, 1882.

Now Therefore I. Henry W. Cannon, Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify that "The National Bank of New Berne," in the City of New Berne, in the County of Craven and State of North Carolina, is authorized to have succession for the period specified in its amended articles of association, namely until close of business on November 7, 1855.

In testimony whereof witness my [SEAL.] hand and Seal of office this 18th day of November, 1885.

H. W. CANNON, Comptroller of the Currency, No. 1632.

If You Want

FAST SELLING PENNY GOODS, STICK CANDY and FRENCH MIXTURE, at Whole-

L. J. TAYLOR'S CANDY MANUFACTORY Send in your orders early for CHRISTMANDLES; they will receive prompt atten

Candy packed in pails or boxes at the low All Coconnuts bought of me will be grated free of charge.
Orders left with H. J. Lovick will receive prompt attention.

Gandy Manufactory at the Frog Pond.

Notice.

PARTIES DESIRING TO

PLANT PEAS AND OTHER VEGETABLES, FOR CANNING

Can be supplied with seed, and make con-tracts with us for Messrs. Moone & Brany. Further particulars given on application. E. H. MEADOWS & CO.

Messrs, E. H. MEADOWS & CO. are our authorized agents to make contracts for us on PEAS and other Vegetables for canning MOORE & BRADY.

Beeswax.

AS BUYERS OF BEESWAX WE WILL until further notice, pay $5c. per 1b. free

W. H. BOWDLEAR & CO.

For Sale or Rent I will rent or sell a good TRUOK FARM of 120 acres, situated a half infle from the city limits on Fembroke road, Will rert for a term of years, or sell for cash or on time.
For particular apply to O. HUBBS, nov3 d30d New Berne, N. C.

orillard

Gail & Ax's

SNUFFS

Manufacturer's Prices.

F. Ulrich's. Better than Real Estate

There are very few investments better than real estate, but we know of one that is, and that one is a policy in

THE FIDELITY MUTUAL LIFE ASSOC'N OF PHILADELPHIA.

The policy can be bought at the rate of $22.40 for $5.000.00.

It needs no cultivation or repairs, and the yearly tax on it, levied til-annually, is not as much as the tax on real estate of like value.

Upon the death of the owner, the policy does not require appraisers, administrators and lawyers to Diministrative value, but is PAID IN FILLAND AT ONCE without expense to the baneliciary named therein.

The payment of each policy is guaranteed by nearly $10,400,000 assessable insurance with a reserve indemnity of $200,000, and eash assets of nearly $50,000.

a reserve innermity of $200,000, and eash assets of nearly $50,000.

The Association owns its own building, and rents enough offices to have its rent free. Its expenses are limited to fixed annual dues. Incorporated, becomiser, 1878. Home Office, 914 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, Ph. Send name and address for treatise on plan.

D. R. MIDYETTE.

Manager Southeastern Department, No. 228 Fayetteville street, Raleigh, N. C. BOYD & BERRY, District Agents
For Countles of Craven, Carteret, Beaufort,
Hyde, Jones and Pamileo,
Good agents wanted, to whom we are prepared to offer the most liberal inducements.

T. A. GREEN, of Green, Foy & Co., Eintkers, JOEL KINSEY, Farmer,

The fellowing are the names of some of the carties who have examined our plans and aken policies withins.
Gen T.R. Renssen,
B. G. Credie,
Geo. Green. Jr.
W. B. Lane,
W. B. Lane,
A. P. Devis,
Daniel Davis,
Daniel Davis,
Drury Diver,
Geo. Green. Jr.
W. B. Lane,
M. P. Lane,
A. P. Devis,
Daniel Davis,
Drury Diver,
Geo. Green. Jr.
Hez. kinh Davis,
H

THE

Emerald Cigar Factory NEW BERNE, N. C.,

C. ERDMANN, Prop'r. Having taken possession of the new build ing specially constructed for my business on Middle street repassie that Fellows Hall). I am now enabled to do full instice to my

Finest Brands of Cigars,

which are of sufficient merit to deserve the popularity they now possess. Asidefrom the excellent material used, and the superior make, the CLEANLINESS observed in the manufacture of my goods give them a great pre-eminence over the Tenement House made Cigars of the large cities so generally smoked by the mathinking, and so often the cause of serious milments and disease.

In connection with the Factory is a hand-somely appointed

"Smoker's Emporium,"

where every kind and variety of Chars and Tobacco may be found at retail.

A full line of Smoker's Goods, including Meerchaum, Brier-wood, and every variety of Pipes and Cigar Holders, Pouches, etc. of Pipes and Cigar Holders, Pouches, etc. FINE IMPORTED HAVANA CIGARS, and n fact everything kept in a First-Class is

PATRONIZE HOME MANUFACTURES.

The Way to Save Money

Taylor & Smith's STORE,

WHERE THEY ARE DE-TERMINED TO Sell Goods as

2 . 11 20 Low as the Lowest

And Guarantee Satisfaction

As to Quality.

tiology to the tion view 12 co. GOODS arriving on every Steamer, and a FULL STOCK always on hand, consisting of EVERYTHING KEPT IN A FIRST-CLASS STORE

If you don't see what you want, ask for it; we have it. Middle st., below South Front and with work dwin and day to the