to announce to our ars, and the trade generally, at last, after many efforts, we ave succeeded in getting sufficient time, from the rush of trade, to write up our advertisement. It is loaded with Bargains; be sure to read it through. Not by favor. but by merit alone, will we maintain and increase our unrivatled reputation. Big prices will not do in these hard times when even the wealthy cannot afford to waste their money, and the poor require double value for every dollar and penny

THE JOURNAL.

NEW BERNE, N. C., DEC. 1, 1885. PLOWERY.—The colored people are proverbial for their fondness for high-sounding and poetical names. An exchange gives the following laughable incident:

An Austin colored man, Webster by name, of rather limited education, and whose memory is re-markably defective, was recently blessed with a son. His wile, who is more intelligent, determined that the son and heir should have a high-sounding name, and selected a very beautiful one. When the child was presented to the clergy man for baptism, the latter said,—

"Name this infant." Jim scratched his head for a while, and finally said, "Squash." "Dat's no proper name for a christian child."

"Sunflower, den." Once more the clergyman shook his head increduiously. Jim Web ster leaned over whispered to his wife to give the right name. 'Hya-einth,' she replied. 'Well, I knowed it was some kinder garden truck.'-Texas Siftings.

A TELL-TALE MATCH. Sally had been told that she must not scratch matches on the wall, and could see no reason why the same restraint should not be put upon mankind.

A new minister had just arrived in town, and was to spend she first night at Sally's father's.

After being shown to his room the visitor, by accident, put out his light. He found a match, and "scr-a-a-a-tch" it went on the Sally occupied an adjoining room and her sharp ears heard the tell tale noise. Softly creeping to the head of the stairs, her shrill, childish voice half whispered and half shricked out so that everybody in the house could hear.-"M-a-a-w! O ma-aw! This man up here is a ser-a a a tchin' matches on our wall, he is!"
