tion appointed from the Treasurer of the New Berne Athletic Social Club three hundred and ten dollars, being the amount of the stock turned over to them by members of the Club.

We see posted in front of Watson & Street's office four shares of stock in the A. & N. C. R. for sale at auction at the court house door tomorrow. It ought to bring way on towards fifty if the chances for a dividend are so bright as some people think.

There was one death, only among the whites of New Berne during the month of December. During the year 1885 there were 88 deaths. Six of these were over seventy years old, 12 above the age of sixty, 13 under five and six under one. This is 1.5 to the thousand.

Stonewall and Bayboro citizens wish ing to attend the Howorth Hibernica, or "Two Dances" Comedy Company, at New Berne Theatre Thursday and Friday, January 7th and 8th can have seats reserved by mail through C. H. Fowler, to the E. H. Meadows, lithographers of the company, can be seen at C. H. Fowler's store, Stonewall, N. C.

A New Year's Greeting that is Appreciated.

Among the many New Year's greetings sent to the JOURNAL office, there is none more highly appreciated than the one given below. It was not intended for publication, but as we seldom give in these columns expressions of our appreciation that are often sent us, both verbally and by letter, we trust the writer will pardon us for using this, which we publish in order that our friends abroad may know that the JOURNAL is appreciated at home.

We think it improper to say that the JOURNAL, while it aided to the best of its ability to the citizens and with its hard earned cash to establish the Graded School and end the fighting, to which the writer refers, still claims only an equal share of honor with other citizens of New Berne, who labored zealously for the same cause. Every citizen of this city should feel proud of the school and the building, and should continue to labor for its success. It is possible to say that no child will grow up in ignorance is something that the town or city might well be proud of.

Week of Prayer.

The Evangelical Alliance will begin the services of the Week of Prayer at the M. E. Church tomorrow, Monday, evening. The services on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings will also be held in this Church, and in the Presbyterian Church on Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. The Moody and Sankey Gospel Hymns will be used.

The following is the subject for Monday evening:

PRaise AND THAnKSGIVING.

For the spirit of prayer vouchsafed to us; for all the bounties of Providence; for God's long-suffering goodness in that he has not taken away his Holy Spirit from us on account of our little faith and many provocations; for his faithful promises in Jesus Christ; for continuing and multiplying opportunities of proclaiming his gospel of grace; for the progress of Christian missions among Jews and Gentiles and the free course given to the word of the Lord, notwithstanding all the opposition of infidelity and abounding iniquity.—Pa. cxviii.; 2 Sam.
vi. 12-19; Ps. cxvii.; 1 Chron. xxix. 10-15; Isa. lxi.; Acts iv. 18-28; Isa. liii.

A Comedy of Blunders.

Remember Howorth's Hibernica Comedy Co. will be at the theatre next Thursday night. The Troy (N. Y.) Press says:

The unanimous verdict of the large audience was that it was a very superior combination, one that combines more instruction with more innocent fun than any other that has visited us.
A pleasing comedy runs through the whole performance, which is ever and anon enlivened by acts of specialty artists of a very high order of talent.
The whole company is hard to beat, and to those who love fun we heartily recommend Howorth's Hibernica. A big feature of the entertainment is the fine panoramic views of noted places in Ireland. Each picture is the work of an artist, and being the latest productions new and bright, and this part alone is worth many times the cost of admission.

Scheming to Defeat Senator Sherman.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 30.—Quite a number of the General Assembly are in the city tonight, and the presence of ex-Gov. Ross among them arouses the speculation that he has not withdrawn from the Senatorial race. The Times (Columbus) will publish tomorrow a scheme by which Sherman is to be defeated. It claims that two of the Republican Representatives-elect, C. L.
Poorman and John J. Stranahan, are such enemies of Sherman, and that they proposed to Representative John P.
Haley, of Cleveland, a Republican, to support him for Senator if he will vote for himself and secure the Democratic votes. This will elect Haley. It is also claimed that Haley has agreed to this, and that the bargain is about closed.
The Times also claims that Foster and Bushnell are in the arrangement and are watching hard to complete it.

tion, or money refunded. Price 25 cents

THE JEWELS.

Saturday, January the second, 1886, was a nice day and a nice little Coterie of Jewels toed the sunshine at the Exchange until the Panel was organized for business.

This being the first session since Christmas much business of a convivial character was discussed.

A happy New Year and joyful Christmas seemed to have been the good fortune of every M. P. Presents, varying from a red flannel shirt to a moral pocket handkerchief seemed to have been lavished on the members by kind and considerate friends during the holidays now closing.

The length of the holidays—two at Christmas and two at New Year's—were heavily on some, while others wished to have Friday set apart permanently for the 25th of December and the first of January in order to always secure a duplicate as they did on this occasion.
Government matters, of importance only, were considered.

The call for ten millions of United States bonds was taken up and the Panel decided with great unanimity not to turn in any order that call.

For this peremptory denunciation they have but two good reasons.

The first is that until some measure is developed in reference to the repeal of the compulsory act in regard to the coining of standard dollars they prefer to hold off. The second is like unto it: They have none of the bonds. Instructions will be forwarded to the "department" to proceed at once to coining cents. That being a useful coin much needed and largely circulated among the members. Our silver man thought there was no sense in such a procedure and the measure past with his dissent.
He thought that a decent respect for the secretary of the treasury forbade such action and he wished to be innocent of the impropriety and when the instructions assigned his name will be conspicuously absent.

NEW BERNE, N. C., Jan. 1, 1886.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—I wish to send you my greeting and good wishes for the New Year, together with the assurance of my appreciation of your continual courtesy in sending me the JOURNAL and publishing the notices of the Church services and work gratuitously. The prominence of a newspaper and the interests which it commands in the daily life of people are very great. It should therefore seek an ever ascending standard morally and intellectually.

It may not be a matter of indifference to you to know that, even to one of your readers, the JOURNAL seems to have grown toward this standard. New Berne seems to me to have improved in many directions in the past few years, and I believe this is largely due to the influence of your paper. To my mind, though I may not be perfectly informed, the Graded School and the building which came after it, are the results of the energy and interest which the JOURNAL directed toward these ends, which have brought, and are to bring, manifold blessings to the people of New Berne.

I trust that 1886 may have many blessings and much usefulness and prosperity in store for you and the JOURNAL.

Friendly and respectfully yours,
V. W. SHIELDS.

The Charge Against Gen. Butler.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—There has been evidently an effort to suppress the report of Gen. Rosecrans' Military Committee which investigated the Soldiers' Home. This report made a very bulky volume. It should have been in the House document-room immediately upon the close of the last Congress. Just before Congress adjourned, 5,000 copies were ordered to be printed. This order was never fulfilled. Gen. Rosecrans went to work this fall and only through the most strenuous efforts succeeded in getting the report printed. The essential facts of this report had never been printed in any newspaper until this morning, when The World reproduced them.

The charge against Gen. Butler is of such a serious character that it is believed the case will go to the courts.
The only trouble is that no one is directly interested outside of the managers of the Home in forcing a settlement. Gen.
Butler has always claimed that the large deficiency in the bonds was charged against him merely on account of a difference in the accounts. Gen. Rosecrans says the committee took the sworn transcript of Gen. Butler's own books to ascertain the deficiency. He dwells emphatically upon the point that for over one year and a half there is not a single record of any kind of money received or expended.

Kidney Complaint.

For over six years I have been a terrible sufferer from a troublesome kidney complaint for the relief of which I have spent over $250 without benefit; the most noted so-called remedies proving failures. The use of one single bottle of B. B. B. has been marvelous, giving more relief than all other treatment combined. It is a quick cure, while others, if they cure at all, are in the distant future. C. H. BOKERS, Atlanta Water Works.

Dr. L. A. Guild, of Atlanta, who owns a large nursery and vineyard, has a lad on his place who was cured of a stubborn case of Scrofula, with one single bottle of B. B. B. Write to him about the cure.

DR. JOHN S. LONG AT FOLLOKSVILLE.

EDYON JOURNAL:—We hasten to press this morning, stann'd by the after-glow of a most joyous occasion! You active and elastic manhood thirged by the most brilliant flashes of a magnificent orator and highly interested by the splendid appearance of a large concourse of brave men and fair women, is a sure heir to dull and sluggish spirits. But the occasion is too kindly a remembrance, not to provoke a passing word in your paper.

The assurance that Mr. Long would address the people upon education, and that the ladies would spread a most palatable supper for the benefit of our new school enterprise, brought a very intelligent audience together. We remember of faces of some handsome representatives of Duplin, Onslow and Carteret counties, and how gladly we hailed the steamer Trent with a batch of dignified and accomplished New Bernians.

The writer, on looking at all these people, felt still prouder of the human race and holds a higher faith in the eternal fitness of things.

In the midst of some of the best of human efforts and looks, the most epical nature could not fail to love and admire, obey and worship some species of humanity. But Mr. Long on popular education must have precedence of everything else in importance.

The condensation of his subject made almost every sentence a sign-post, and he subordinated his luminous imagination to his matter-of-fact way of talking. We have seldom ever heard an address that told so many vital educational axioms in forty-five minutes.
The criticism of our system of public education occupied his time at some length. His belief in the practicability of the extension of popular education so that classical and scientific fields would be opened to the pupils of our common schools, making every free school house equal to our academies, putting such studies as geometry, latin, history, botany and zoology into the hands of the ignorant and poor, gave his audience a lively train of new ideas.

Intellectual culture in its true sense, is offered only to the favored few who are able to attend our high schools and colleges, which is incompatible with our extensive and intensive political system, and which would suit such majesties as the Czar and Sultan. The high school must lead the primary and the people must sustain the high school by taxation.

The remedy for our defects cannot be found in technical schools. The speaker took up the educated intellect and contrasted it with the untrained, and showed why some almost unaccountable happy results proceed from the former, and why the latter is a cause of so much failure. The most of his audience were farmers, and he told them in emphatic language what they must do to be saved. We write only from memory this morning and cannot recall some of his thoughts which have perhaps in many of his hearers gone into wise resolutions.

The address upon the whole was one of the best we have ever listened to and gave great satisfaction to a people who have marched into line to build up a fourishing school here.

Our thanks are tendered to the good ladies and citizens for their energy and liberality to the pleasant visitors for their presence, and to the talented Long for his eloquent address.

MARRIED.

In Kinston, at the Disciples' church, on Wednesday, Dec. 30th, Dr. Geo. W.
Dodson and Miss Mollie Belle Walsh, Dr. H. D. Harper officiating.
This morning was as bright and sunny, as the bride herself, and a large crowd of a smiling and appreciative friends, were assembled at the church where the solemn vows were plighted.
The attendants were as follows:
Mr. W. C. Fields and Miss Ella Walsh, Mr. L. W. Walsh and Miss Mollie For-law, Dr. R. Jackson and Miss Annie Phillips, E. L. Miller and Miss Mattie Rountree, Mr. N. J. Rouse and Miss Gertrude Hooker, Mr. A. S. Patrick and Miss Hattie Tull, Mr. S. Oettinger and Miss Jennie Patrick.

The bride was neatly attired in a very becoming travelling suit, and the groom in the conventional suit of black, was, we heard some one say, the handsomest man of the party. After the ceremony was over, the newly-wedded pair accompanied by their many friends adjourned to the depot to await the train, which was to take them to their future home in Lynsville, Tennesssee; and we feel sure that no bonnier bride ever left our little town, or no bridal pair ever had more sincere wishes for their future happiness and prosperity. The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful and valuable presents; those of Messrs. Ross, Miller, Patrick and Oettinger, also Miss Tuck, of Danville, Va., being among the handsomest.

Nine Physicians Outdone.

It is generally considered a pretty difficult task to outdo a physician, but the following will conclusively prove where nine were completely outdone. Mrs.
Helen Pharis, 591 Dayton st., Glasgow, Ill., was treated for Consumption by nine physicians, and all pronounced her case incurable. Seven bottles of Dr.
King's New Discovery for Consumption completely cured her. Doubting ones, please drop her a postal and convince yourselves. Sold by all druggists.

CHURCH REFORM IN ENGLAND.
LONDON, Dec. 30.—The Archbishop of Canterbury has imparted to the Bishops of the Church of England a scheme for Church reform. Lord Salisbury will bring the measure if the Bishops approve it after considering it in private councils.
The Archbishop will then be authorized to introduce the measure in Parliament.

DIED.

Miss Anna Davis, niece of Anthony Davis, Esq., of Pink Hill, died at her residence near her uncle's last Sunday.
She was taken with malarial fever the previous Tuesday and died as above stated. She was a good and industrious lady whose death will be greatly lamentied by the entire neighborhood.—
