INTELLECTUAL RECREATION.

Congressman Peel, it is well known, is not a man of very high literary attainments, but to appear well read he professes to have gazed over every piece of literature that comes under discussion. Judge Pittman, who is a highly intellectual and well-read man, takes great delight in talking literature to Peel. Some time ago, when a party of gentlemen were sitting around listening to some of Peel's experiences of Congress, Judge Pittman asked: "Peel, you have read Tennyson, haven't you?"

"Oh, yes, yes, and I like him very much."
"Do you like Goldsmith?"
"Do you?"
"What do you think of his poem, 'Goldsmith's Maid'?"
"By George, sir, it is the best thing he ever wrote! I tell you what, Pittman, this going to Congress whets a man's appetite for literature."—Boston Traveller.

EDUCATION OF CONGRESSMEN.

Of the 380 Senators, Representatives and delegates catalogued in the Congressional Directory, 208 received only an ordinary or academic education, 151 went through college, 4 are West Pointers, and 6 are self-educated. Harvard has 8 graduates enrolled, University of Virginia 7, Princeton 6, Yale, Miami and Michigan 5 each, Union 4, Bowdoin 3, Dartmouth, Hamilton, Amherst, Williams and Trinity, 2 each. There are 274 lawyers, 40 business men, 20 farmers, 10 editors and 10 doctors. There are 86 veterans of the Union army, 67 Confederate veterans and 4 ex-members of the United States navy.

The steady shrinkage of glaciers in the Swiss Alps has caused severe losses to many of the peasantry by the drying up of pastures formerly moistened by glacial rains.

Going to His Grave.

There he goes again direct to a saloon and pours down another heavy draught of strong drink, not so much because his appetite demands it, but for the artificial buoyancy it produces—the after-effects of which leave him more miserable than before; it is this dreadful practice that is daily sending thousands to their graves. A remedy for all this is found in the true friend of temperance, the best and purest of all medicines, —Electric Bitters. Sold by all druggists at 50 cents.
