Greenville Items.

Mr. B. F. Sugg has opened a boarding house on Evans street, and deals out in abundance that which cheers and revives the inner man.

Two colored men who were tried two courts ago for murder and convicted were granted a new trial by the Supreme court and will be tried again this week.

We hear much complaint of hard For Select List of 1,000 Newspapers. times, and really none of as are making as much money as we would wish, but after all everybody seems to have plenty to eat and plenty to wear. Let us be thankful for

Our two weeklies published here are sprightly first-class papers, both thoroughly Demogratic. The Standard has recently passed en-tirely into the hands of that staunch young lawyer, Mr. Gee. B. King, who was heretofore a partner in the business. With his level head and determined will, we have no doubt about his success.

We are surprised at not seeing the JOURNAL man nere this Control Carraway, of the Observer, Johnson A, Bryan and wife control for pure cont hand. We have though, as a sort of novelty, two shooting galleries and a flying jenny with ten ponies, and the walking stick and ring

Court has been in session for the last week. Judge Phillips and Solicitor Worthington are on hand and have done good work in ridding the county of a lot of evildoers. Jack Bryan, an old colored offender, goes to the penitentiary for two years for bamboozling an old darkey out of a half dead horse. The Judge says if he is allowed to go on taking things that don't be-long to him that after awhile he would get to stealing. A white man by the name of Gay goes up for five years for mistaking some-bodys else's money for his own, not being of a very discerning mind. There seems to be an innate weakness on the part of many of the colored people as well as some of the whites to appropriate other Tea fet, 44 Pieces, people's property to their own use and beheit. It is well known that the reason of board being so high here is because where a negro wo-employers table.

Your itemizer at this place discovered on the page of his last JOURNAL agreat big figure 3 made with a pencil, doubtless the work of someone in your office. Now, we interpret the meaning of this omi-nous looking 3 to be that for three weeks we have failed to send up to the JOURNAL our usual items from this part of the immoral vineyard. Well, we are glad to know that our items are prized enough to be missed or to call forth such a gentle little hint when they come up missing. Therefore, as in duty bound, we will proceed to make our valid excuse for such dire neglect on our part: Just three weeks ago, and just as we were expecting a merry Christmas, a villainous bottle that we were trying to open crushed in our hand and cruelly did cut, muti-late and sever muscle, arteries, liga-ments, and things to that extent, that said band seemed to revolt at such treatment and proceeded to swell and become painful to the swell and become painful to the touch so that we were entirely unfit for duty for days and nights therewith; yea days and nights of pain and anguish. Dr. O'Hagan, the best surgeon in the State, stuck to us like a brother, and when necessary that skilled hand of his would guide the lancet in among our metacarpal bone when we would see stars and stripes and holler, "Oh, Lord!" At last relief came, but your correspondent had taken so much morphine that he really thought he was somebody alse; but we hope we are about to become our wanted self again and trust we may be able to contribute some-Spaces.
