All who have tried our 10c. hams say they are as good as any in market. HENNING & HOWARD.

Eggs are quiet at 17 cts. per dozen. Grand carnival at the rink tonight.

The river steamers have resumed their regular trips.

Ten prisoners in Craven county jail. This is about as low as the number gets.

The Silver Cornet band will make music at the skating rink next Friday night.

The new year begins with an unusual number of railroad accidents, fires, cold days, etc.

Messrs. Piggott & Harrell, grocery dealers, have made an assignment to F. M. Simmons.

The weather has moderated and the skating rink will re-open tonight with a grand masquerade.

The Pamlico and Washington mails have resumed their regular trips which were somewhat interrupted by the cold snap.

The Elm City arrived on Sunday and left on schedule time yesterday morning but was detained down the river by the ice.

The Shenandoah broke out of her ice prison on Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock and at 10 p. m. was at her wharf in Elizabeth City.

We regret to hear of the misfortune to the Familio Enterprise. Hope it will rise from its fiery baptism and go forth with newness of life.

The cold snap did not kill the cabbage plants out last fall. Mr. J. L. Rhea says he is better off in this respect than he once thought he was.

The Postmaster gives notice of a change in the hour of closing the morning mail going west. The westward bound mail closes at 7 o'clock.

Procrastination is the thief of time. If you procrastinate any longer you will miss getting a seat for America's greatest Prima Donna, Clara Louise Kellogg.

Mr. E. Gorock is at work on an oil painting, representing a farm residence after a snow storm. He is making good headway and a very creditable painting.

The Baltimore Sun says Clara Louise Kellogg has not an equal in concert. The company will be in that city tomorrow night, and a week later in New Berne.

Mrs. M. D. Dwyer is preparing to enlarge her store and is now offering bargains in millinery goods. All who need goods in her line should read her advertisement and give her a call.

The steamers Kinston and Carolina went out yesterday, the former for Kinston, the latter for Snow Hill. They were detained for several hours in the river by large bodies of ice floating down the river.

Cottage prayer-meeting, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, conducted by the Missionary Committee, at Mrs. Fannie Brinkman's, in Spring street, this (Tuesday) night, at 7 o'clock.

The Seaside Telephone having built up Beaufort and made a flourishing city of it is now concerned about the progress of New Berne. It is really refreshing to see a paper do so much for a town as the Seaside has done for Beaufort but why don't its citizens appreciate it and "somewhat improve" it?

Bank Taxes.
We again call attention to the fact that the Secretary of State has given notice whose lands have been given to the State with the second Monday in February to redeem their property. After that suit will be entered for possession and when the cost in many cases will amount to almost as much as the value. The State is compelled to enforce the collection of taxes and every owner whose property has been sold and placed in the State had better try to redeem it at once.

Clayton's Case.
The Virginia Legislature has incorporated the Chesapeake, Norfolk and Carolina Railway Company to build a road to run from some suitable point on either side of the Elizabeth river, at or near the town of Norfolk, and Portsmouth in the North Carolina line east of the Elizabeth river across the Elizabeth river to the one that recently was built from Washington and

Where they are headed.

Unreasonable Requests.

We are often asked not to give certain items of news by parties who are afraid that the simple truth, "night, per-adventure, or in some remote way which they cannot explain, do them some harm. They forget that they are asking us to injure our own business, which is to give the people the news, and we have sometimes acceded to such requests, especially when they came from the gentler sex, because we knew at the time they did not know that they were making a very unreasonable request. But it is a very unreasonable request to ask a newspaper not to publish a legitimate item of news, and it is often the case that the very parties who make such requests are the first to condemn a newspaper for "having nothing in it."

"Enterprise" in Ashes.

STONEWALL, N. C., Jan. 13, 1886.
EDITOR JOURNAL:—This morning at 10:30 o'clock the Enterprise building was discovered to be on fire, caused from a defective flue. The alarm was promptly sounded, and our citizens—both white and colored—came to the rescue. But the fire had made such progress that it was impossible to stop it. Nothing in the office was saved except the type, which were badly piled. The library of Mr. W. T. Cabo, consisting of hundreds of volumes of the best law works and other books, was almost entirely destroyed. Mr. Pugh lost all of his bedding and clothes, and Mr. Jos. S. Peale suffers a loss of about $20. Among those who rendered assistance we would especially mention Capt. Levins, who rendered all assistance possible; he having stopped all work at the mills and turning out his hands in full force.

We thank all who were kind enough to assist us, and we do certainly appreciate the kindness of all who have offered to assist us since the fire.

The loss is estimated at $2,000; not insured.

It is expected that the paper will be issued again in a few days.

The President and the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—There is as yet no open rupture between the President and the Senate over the matter of suspensions and appointments, and no immediate prospect of one. The differences that now exist are between the members of the Cabinet and the Senate, the refusal of the former to send to the Senate committees the information they seek will, however, ultimately bring the issue between the President and the Senate, unless the Senators modify their demands.

Mr. Cleveland and his advisers have a complete understanding as to the policy they will pursue. The President has not received from the Senate, or any request for an explanation of any removal or appointment. The heads of departments have, however, returned the circulars of inquiry received by them from Senate committees with the reply that they have received no instructions from the President to forward information to the Senate giving his reasons for any of his acts. Any information in their possession touching the fitness of an appointee will be promptly furnished.

"Richmond Whig" to be Republished.

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 15.—The Richmond Whig, which suspended publication last month, will be reissued in a few days. It will be published by a joint stock company, the charter having been obtained today to that end. The officers of the new company will be: President—Thomas Potts; Directors—T. W. Pemberton, James B. Pace, George Ross and A. S. Buford, of Richmond; Abner Anderson, of Danville, and A. W. C. Nowlin, of Washington, D. C. All of these gentlemen are men of means, and their names in connection with the new company bespeak the publication of a live newspaper. It will be Democratic in politics.

Snatched from the Grave.

Mrs. Helen Pharris, No. 381 Dayton St., Chicago, Ill., is now in her sixty-eighth year, and states that she has suffered with consumption for about ten years, was treated by allopathic physicians, all of them pronouncing her case hopeless. She had given up all hopes of ever recovering. Seven bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption completely cured her. Doubting ones, please drop her a postal and satisfy yourselves. Sold by all druggists every where.

Good work, Good Men, or no Money.

From New Orleans it is reported that but little damage has been done the sugar cane by the recent cold wave.

Moritz Ber of New York has been fined fifty dollars for practicing medicine without a diploma properly certified.

Kinston Items.

The enrollment to date at Kinston College for the spring term is 103.

The Atlantic Baptist Association has its next session in Goldsboro, Jan. 26th and 27th.

Mr. Felix King's vendue came off last Thursday at his late residence in Jones county.

Ex-Supt. Scarborough is in town in the interest of the University Publishing Company.

Lawrence Miller closed out his last lot of furniture to one of our widows. Does this mean anything?

Died, Jan. 14th, Miss Debbie Powell, at the residence of Mr. Fred. Loops, with whom she had lived for 14 years.

Miss Alice Hines, of Marlboro, spent several days in town and has lately gone to Jones county to visit relatives.

Mr. Wiley W. Rouse has lately quit the whiskey business and moved to his farm. Success to him and all others who do likewise.

The Free Press announces Mr. Walter S. Herbert as local editor. We bid him a hearty welcome to our town, and hope him and the paper good health and much success.

The river has been frozen over for several days, and skating in the park has been the amusement. It has been 29 years since Kinston has had as much ice at one time.

The Disciples will have Union Meetings on the 5th Sunday and Saturday before at Tuckahoe, Jones county, and at Salem, Pitt county, each about 20 miles from Kinston.

Leon Albritton has returned from Waynesville. He is mindful of others' pleasures. He will drum on the piano while the gentlemen and ladies talk, assist the ladies to skate, or anything in that line.

Our statement in last week's items concerning Dr. Miller's stores was partly incorrect. He has not divided his two stores by a partition, but has moved his goods into one of them, and will divide if he finds a renter.

The town commissioners passed an ordinance on Jan. 15th taxing Gypsies $20 for the privilege of selling fortunes, and a fine of not more than $50 or 90 days imprisonment for each violation. The Gypsies have been going from house to house, rendering themselves quite a nuisance.

Seasonable Advice.

Don't let the door stand open, but shut it with much care.

Without a bang, without a whang, yes, shut it fair and square.

Without a slam, without a jam, without a flat or jerk.

For if you've left it open, go shut it, and don't shrirk.

No Christian man or woman, no well-trained chick or child,

Will let a door swing idly, to make weak nerves run wild,

While the chilly winds are blowing—and muttering like a scold.

While the open door is creaking and muttering like a scold.

Haute makes but waste, remember, so plenty take of time;

Don't leave the door half open—a fault almost a crime—

And if you've ever done this, don't do so any more;

Whatever else you fail to do, don't fail to shut the door.

Congressional Work.

JAN. 15.—The Senate was not in session today.

In the House Mr. Blount, of Missouri, introduced a bill repealing so much of the act of June 9th, 1879, as provides for the exchange and redemption of subsidiary coin. Referred.

Mr. Dockery, of Missouri, from the committee on accounts, reported a joint resolution allowing discharged employees of the House one month's extra pay.

Some opposition was shown to the resolution, and Mr. Dockery said that if he himself would not vote for it, but the custom had been to grant this extra pay, and he thought that the measure should be passed.

Mr. Reagan, of Texas, opposed the resolution, which he said, was giving away the people's money to pay employees for services not performed.

Mr. Pettibone, of Tenn., also thought that the House should pay its employees for the time employed, and stop this extra pay nonsense.

The resolution was defeated—yeas 71, nays 189.

The Presidential succession bill was taken up, and after discussion and several amendments were rejected, passed as it came from the Senate by a vote of 188 yeas to 79 nays. The negative vote was cast by two Democrats, Mr. Bennett of N. C., and Greene of N. J., and seventy-seven Republicans. Adjourned until Monday.

Stonewall Items.

Joshua Ireland, aged about 17 years, son of Archie Ireland, was drowned in Jones' bay while skating on the ice a day or so since.

We are beginning to feel like we were about out of the world, have had no mail since last Tuesday, and that was Saturday's date. It is rather strange that private individuals can cross to New Berne and back, and the mail is not able to do the same.

On Wednesday last the law office of W. T. Cabo, in this place, was completely destroyed by fire. Mr. Cabo was absent and lost all of his law books and wearing apparel, except the suit he had on. The Enterprise and all the fixtures belonging to it, were nearly an entire loss. Mr. W. N. Pugh was painfully burned about his eye, and Mr. Peelf, the pressman, also, was a loser. The whole was a serious loss, there being no insurance. The fire originated on the second floor from the flue, in which the stove pipe went through.

We have had a week of cold weather as commonly ever gives us a call; the mercury being down to 9° for four consecutive days. The river and creek are all blocked with ice. The schooner A. E. Rudolph, Jno. A. Levine, master, has been waiting for a chance to sail, and today is the first that the ice is out of the way. She has a load of boards from A. H. Whitcomb's mill for Philadelphia, consigned to Lukens & Co. The cold snap has so numbed the trout that all who have nets are having quite a good fish harvest.

Sudden Death of Secretary Bayard's Daughter.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Miss Kate Bayard, the eldest daughter of the Secretary of State, died suddenly about 3 o'clock this afternoon. The reception at the White House was suspended immediately upon the receipt of the news of her death. Miss Bayard died at home just as she was starting to the White House to attend Miss Cleveland's reception. Miss Bayard had accepted an invitation to assist Miss Cleveland at her reception this afternoon, and that lady and her guests, Mrs. Uley, and Miss Love, who were also to assist at the reception, were waiting Miss Bayard's arrival when they received the news of her death. It was just about five minutes to 3 o'clock, and the reception was to begin in an hour.

The immediate cause of Miss Bayard's death was disease of the heart. She had been troubled with weakness of that organ, and had been treated by the family physician at intervals for several years. At the reception, at her father's house last night, it was remarked that Miss Bayard was unusually animated, and asked herself to the utmost to restrain the guests. It is presumed that undue exertion may have precipitated the fatal attack.
