COUNTY FINANCES. How the County is Gouged.

We shall not undertake to point out all the items of extravagance to be found in the annual statement of disbursements published by the county commissioners; we only propose, in compliance with the request of a magistrate of the county, to make good the charge, that there is extravagance. It is only necessary for us to show this, in one instance, but many others can be

LISTING TAXES,

We challenge any county in North Carolina to sho v greater cost for listing axes, in proportion to the amount of real and personal property listed, than Craven county. The aggregate of real and personal property in the county is $2.486.362. To list this it cost $430.00; every tax lister is allowed $40.00, save the one for the eighth township, which includes the city of New Berne, and be is allowed $150.00, quite enough to list the taxes of the whole county. We do most emphatically [prononuce this an

Three of them were for sell- the total cost $174,52-against $480.00 paid by Craven county for similar work; in the county of Jones the aggregate value of real and personal property is was fined $1.00 and cost, the other was $715,000, and it cost $88.00 to list the taxes against $480,00 in Craven county.

The commissioners of Craven county seem to act upon the idea that tax listers are entitled to all the law will allow will leave tomorrow morning for Ral- them to appropriate for that purpose, and then they take the responsibility of making an extra allowance for township No. 8-city of New Berne-and actually spend enough in this township will cash the vouchers issued for the past alone to list the taxes of the whole county. Every list-taker gets his forty dollars no matter whether he list one hundred or a thousand taxpayers! The method adopted by them is unjust as well as a costly one. For instance the tax list-taker of No. 2 township lists 232 names and receives his forty dollars, while the list taker in No. 1 lists 654

- The Register of Deeds informs us that one of the items charged in the statement of county disbursements to "W.G. The Register also states that his statement of the cost of the board of commissioners is made in accordance with the views of the county attorney.

A Good Furnace.

In such weather as we are having, a good furnace is a desideratum. So in refitting the Presbyterian Church, the heating apparatus has been overhauled; and it was found partly rusted out within its brick walls. It has been thoroughly repaired and now roars away and ests up the coal, as if it in-tended to make the Church so comfortable that nobody can have any excuse for staying away, or not listening well when present. Goto church today and try it.

County Debt Statement,

We publish today the statement of the county indebtedness as made up by the shairman of the board of county com. missioners to December 1885. The re-duction since 1879, we think very oreditable and shows that the debt can and will be brought into a controlable volume at an early day, if, indeed, it is not already so. With this statement is also already so. With this statement is also a statement" of the cost of the new court house. Showing the amount expended upon it up to its present condition to be about $31,000, and we think should be satisfactory to the peo-ple of the county. It is a superb struc-ture of good material and will compare favorably with any court house in ar-rangement and conveniences, even where much larger amounts have been expended.

names and receives his forty dollars; nearly three times the work but the same pay.

It certainly is not the intention of the law that every tax lister shall receive forty dollars, because the taxes are required to be listed in twenty days and lost. It should have been so stated on they are allowed two dollars per day for the time they are actually engaged in the work. In Lenoir county the commissioners adopt the rule of paying four cents per name, which is a fair compensation and each one gets pay in proportion to the amount of work done. Is there a magistrate in Craven county. outside the board of commissioners that will deny that there has been extravagance in the pay of tax listers? If there is he ought to retire until flush times; he is not the man wanted in time of depression and low prices for cotton.

COUNTY WORK.

The register of deeds is allowed from time to time amounts for "county work" aggregating for the fifteen months covered by the annual statement about of the bills allowed one would almost that the register Was think the the new court house, besides Sumner everything is to be turned a this he is allowed something over four hundred dollars for work making out and computing schedule B, care of court house, making annual reports, abstracts of taxes, yeniries, etc. The register of deeds is a very clever gentleman, and will not present a bill unless he thinks he is clearly entitled to it, but cannot the county commissioners make less work and consequently less bills to allow for county work?

Sad Condition of the Party.

I speak today for the preservation of the grand old party. The need of the present moment is neither Dudley or Abbott, but peace and tranquility within the party. The election which is be-fore us is destined to be memorablememorable ,when you and I will be dead-and in forgotten graves. On the account of so much corruption within the party, the committee is the master of a supreme opportunity; it can order the election of new precinct committees to elect a new county executive committee, with instruction not to elect either Abbot or Dudley as its chairman and set aside for the good of the party the two bones of contention. Yes, the committee finds itself the master of a superb opportunity; it can send the dispute to the people for their condem-nation which will insure a united legion with a peaceful convention and eman-cipate a divided party. We are told that Abbott factions is to have a ticket and Dudley faction is to have a ticket; $775,00. From the number and amount and they are some Republican who are going to run an independent ticket. With 3 Republican setts of candidates that the register was in the field, we will have a nice state of affairs, and in the language of Chas. loose in order to make a holiday in hell. My countrymen, I ask you to think of it; although I am not a prophet or neither am I the son of a prophet. But the foregoing will open our doors to a train of evil which no prophet can fore-tell. In conclusion stand in here in my place with all history and men behind me and progress and human happiness before me, I falter not on this oce in duty to my State and county, in this tremendous hour of the republic, the county organization trembling for life and being, it is no time for me io shrink from duty. I protest in no mere par-tisan spirits, in no spirits of resentments

Congressional Work.

SENATE.-Feb. 4.-Mr. Cameron called up the biil providing for the appointment of an Assistant Secretary of the Navy. The amendment suggested by the Naval committee requires that the assistant should come from civil life. Mr. Plumb hoped that some explanation would be given of the need of such an office and of the need of such haste in taking up the bill at this time, it having but recently been reported. Debate on this bill at once took a po litical turn and it lasted until 2 o'clock. The participants were Messrs. Hoar, Butler, Cameron, Ingalls, Hale, Plumb, Hawley, Beck, Allison, VanWyck, Blackburn, Cockrell and Logan. The main feature of the debate was the attack upon the present head of the Navy Department by the Republicans on ac count of his action in the matter of John Roach's contract, and his defence by Democratic Senators. Finally Mr. Cameron urged an immediate vote on the bill, but Mr. Logan opposed this, and at 2 o'clock the matter went over.

The Dakota bill was then placed be fore the Senate and Mr Harrison took the floor. Taking up seriatim the objections made to the admission of Dakota, the Senator proceeded to show as he contended, either their inapplicability to the case under debate or their inherent fallacy. He insisted that the real animus of the objections was that another Presidential election should pass before the people of Dakota were to be permitted to participate in such

Mr. Morgan said the Senator from Indiana (Harrison) who was evidently a candidate for the Presidency, might not have a chance at the votes of Dakota, for Mr. Morgan did not think he would ripen in four years.

Mr. Harrison, replied that if he ever should be a candidate, although he would not be at all sure but that he would not be at all sure but that he might justly claim the electoral vote of Alabama, he never would expect to have it counted for him.
