BUSINESS LOCALS.

SOMETHING NEW FOR SALE.—We have just received a barrel of fine Country Kram, which we are retailing. It was put up by one of Jones county's best farmers, Isaac Koonce, of Tuckahoe. Also a fine lot of N. C. Hams, Sides and Shoulders, for sale low.

HUMPHREY & HOWARD.

Chattel mortgages and Lien Bonds for sale at this office.

TRAY DALL'S fine Bouquet Butter and Pig Hams.

Job-work executed with neatness and dispatch at the JOURNAL office.

The new market house is rapidly nearing completion.

"Pink Tea Party" tomorrow night at Mrs. Henry R. Bryan's.

Shad are coming in more freely, but they still command fancy prices.

The steamer Stout arrived on Sunday from Baltimore with a cargo of general merchandise.

Potato planting is at hand. Watch the columns of the JOURNAL and find where to get seed.

The schooner Martha, Capt. Roberts, arrived from Baltimore with a cargo of acid phosphate and guano for Geo. Allen & Co.

Mr. Lelaster Duffy has moved into his new drug store on Broad street. The second story has been handsomely fitted up for a residence.

A delightful entertainment is in preparation at the residence of Mrs. Henry R. Bryan tomorrow night. Every ticket holder will get a present.

The steamer Elm City sailed for Norfolk yesterday on schedule time with a cargo of cotton, fish, eggs, etc. She is now on her regular schedule and will make two trips per week.

The Young Men's Christian Association will hold a cottage prayer-meeting at 7:30 tonight, at the residence of Mrs. Conway, on South Front street, at the junction of Berne and Spring streets.

Judging from the party of young ladies who called at the JOURNAL office yesterday in search of pink paper, we should think the tea party will have a fair sprinkling of daisies as well as pinks.

The steamer Kinston arrived yesterday evening, bringing cotton and our old friend R. M. Abbott and Mr. Braxton, from Beeton Old Field. We commend Mr. Abbott to the Graded School boys who intend discussing the "no-fence" question pretty soon.

The Baltimore Manufacturers' Record has entered upon its ninth volume. During the last three years it has labored earnestly for the development of Southern industries, and will continue to keep its readers posted on the progress of industrial pursuits in this section. It is doing a good work for the South and deserves the extensive patronage which we are pleased to see it is getting.

The Revellie.
We have received a paper of the above name published at Washington, N. C., by the ex-Confederate Memorial Association monthly at 50 cts. per annum. It contains much interesting matter and is bending its energies to erect a suitable monument to our departed heroes, at that place. We wish it success in the laudable undertaking.

Fertilizers.
Messrs. Neo. Allen & Co. give notice of acid phosphates, guano, seed potatoes etc. They have just received a cargo per schr. Martha, and are prepared to supply farmers with what they were not able to make during the disagreeable winter. These gentlemen sell none but standard brands—such as can be relied on as being just what they are represented to be.

A Pink Tea Party.
The children of the "Juvenile Sewing Society" of Christ Church, under the direction of a committee of ladies, will give an entertainment called a "Pink Tea Party" on next Wednesday evening, beginning at seven o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. Henry R. Bryan.

The price of admission for children will be ten cents. The price for grown people, 25 cents.
The tickets will be put in the hands of two or more boys to sell—they can also be bought at the door.

It is hoped that all the children of the Sunday school, as well as others, will feel interested and come. Everybody who pays for a ticket will receive a little gift before leaving. There will be games and amusements for all. Refreshments will be served at a very small cost, and it is hoped that all who come will enjoy themselves.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT WILMINGTON.

Sixty Buildings Burned—Loss About $800,000.
Special to the JOURNAL.
Rumors were afloat in the city yesterday morning that a fire had swept through Wilmington on Sunday destroying an immense amount of property. It proved too true, as the following special telegram in answer to an inquiry from THE JOURNAL will show. Our sister city has the sympathy of every good citizen of New Berne in this, her hour of adversity:

WILMINGTON, N. C., Feb. 23.
A disastrous fire swept through the northwestern section of our city yesterday, destroying property estimated at eight hundred thousand dollars, upon which there was insurance to about half that amount. The fire originated on board the steamer Bladen, which was coming down the river, and when opposite the city, she headed for the shore, and coming in contact with the wharf of the Clyde line steamers, ignited the combustible material stored there, and fanned by a high southwest wind which was blowing, the flames spread rapidly and were soon beyond the control of the firemen. The fire flew north-eastwardly with terrific speed, burning the steamer River Queen, the schooner Lillie Holmes, the large new warehouses of Messrs. Kerchner & Calder Bros., the store houses and warehouses of Messrs. Worth & Worth, Alex. Sprunt & Son, J. W. Taylor's saw mill, the champion compress, in which were stored three thousand bales of cotton, the large warehouses of the Wilmington and Columbia & Augusta and Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, the grist mill of Mr. G. J. Boney, the mariners' house, kept by Mrs. Bryson, the Cape Fear flour mills, Front street, M. E. Church, offices of the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta and Wilmington and Weldon Railroads, the residences of Mrs. V. Bunting, Hon. George Davis, Col. E. R. Brink, Mr. Sol. Bear, the late Mr. Henry Nutt, besides many other stores and dwellings. Embers were carried by the force of the wind nearly a mile and ignited buildings in the northeastern section of the city. These were wooden buildings, and in this locality nineteen houses were destroyed. In all, there were sixty buildings destroyed.

Many families are made homeless and much suffering must necessarily ensue. A large portion of the business portion of the city is a mass of ruins and the commerce of the city has received a fearful blow, from which it will take a long time to fully recover. —Review.

Fires.
In addition to the disastrous fire at Wilmington we learn from the News and Observer that the steamer Concord was burned near Washington, N. C., with 472 bales of cotton on Saturday last. Cargo fully insured. Also on the same day the residence of Judge Thomas Ruffin, at Hillsboro, was burned. Loss $5,000; no insurance.

Work of the Female Benevolent Society.

Rev. L. W. Crawford preached the annual sermon for the benefit of the Female Benevolent Society at the M. E. Church on Sunday night to a crowded house. Revs. Mr. Jenkins and Mr. Vass were on the stand with him. The sermon was very appropriate for the occasion; plain, practical, and embracing broad and liberal views towards all Christian denominations and societies that are endeavoring to advance the cause of Christianity. At the conclusion of the sermon a collection was taken up for the benefit of the Society and was liberally responded to by the large congregation. The annual report was then read from which we give the following receipts and disbursements:

Collected from gentlemen and lady members.....	$295.75
Interest on invested fund.....	134.50
	$430.25.

EXPENDED.
128 cords wood.....	$305.00
Rent and cash assistants.....	67.62
Groceries.....	48.57
Medicine.....	35.50
	$456.69.

Trunk-Line Rates for Live Stock.
NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—Commissioner Guilford this afternoon issued the following: The Standard Committee agreed today that, taking effect March 1 next, the rates on live stock and dressed meats will be on the following basis: Chicago to New York, live cattle, 35 cents; live hogs, 30 cents; live sheep, 35 cents; dressed beef, 65 cents; dressed hogs, 55 cents; dressed sheep, 90 cents.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—Wonder what it would cost to ship cows, hogs or sheep, per head, from any point on the A. & N. R. R. to the New Berne market? What would they cost from New Berne to New York? What is the difference in distance?

50 Day Seed Corn.
Dear Editor:—I have a limited amount of a very superior quality of extremely large field corn which has recently been originated and which will mature in from 30 to 60 days. Ears are from 10 to 14 inches long, and has a slender cob and very fine large grains; is a marvel of beauty; 134 bushels of shelled corn has been raised per acre. I am very anxious to know what this corn will do in other climates, before advertising it for sale and will send a large sample package free to any farmer who will take good care and report his success with it and will enclose 25 cents in silver to pay postage, packing, etc., on same. Address, W. F. Ryan, Springfield, Ohio, 68142m w.f.r.

BRIEFS.

The condition of Henry Watterson continues to improve.
Eight herders were surrounded and killed in New Mexico by apache Indians.
A boy having read of sailors heaving anchors, wanted to know if it was sea-sickness that made them do it.
The dates for the race of the champion runners of America and England have been fixed for May 8, 15 and 22.
The European countries all seem to be in an unsettled state. The latest is that the ministry of Portugal has resigned.
New York is discussing the propriety of holding a World's fair in that city in 1889 in celebration of the centennial of American Presidents.
Clara Morris was taken ill at Baltimore and was compelled to disappoint a large audience that had assembled at the Academy of Music.

All over California the Chinese are being pushed out, there only place of refuge being the cities of San Francisco and Sacramento.
The February number of North's Musical Journal is very readable. Besides short stories, musical topics, etc., it contains 16 pages of the latest sheet music, vocal and instrumental. F. A. North & Co., 1308 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, are the publishers. Send 10 cts. for specimen number.

Congressional Work.
SENATE.—Feb. 9.—Among the bills introduced and appropriately referred was one by Mr. Edmunds relative to the eight-hour law. He said the bill related to letter-carriers' hours of labor. These hours seemed to be really in excess of what human nature could endure.
On motion of Mr. Eustis, the resolution of inquiry heretofore offered by him relating to the New Orleans sub-treasury and its treatment of the silver dollar, was taken from the calendar.
Mr. Teller's amendment was agreed to, extending the inquiry into the causes of the defalcation alleged to have occurred in the New Orleans sub-treasury in connection with the handling of silver dollars.

Mr. Eustis' resolution, thus amended, was agreed to.
The Education bill was placed before the Senate, and Mr. Everts took the floor in its advocacy. After paying a glowing tribute to the philanthropy and foresight of Mr. Peabody in establishing the well known "Educational Fund" for the South, Mr. Everts said that in his connection with the administration of that fund he saw most encouraging manifestations of the hunger and thirst for knowledge on the part of ignorant classes in the South, and prize-worthy zeal on the part of the intelligent classes of the South that education should become general.
Mr. Everts had no misgivings as to the faithful application of the fund provided for by the bill under consideration. He thought the objections made to the measure on constitutional grounds were based on a narrow interpretation of the constitution.

The debate was continued by Messrs. Morgan, Ingalls, Wilson of Maryland, Riddleberger, Hoar and Harris. The debate then closed for the day.

Mr. Edmunds, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported favorably on a bill to remove the political disabilities of Alex. P. Stewart, of Mississippi; Thomas L. Rosser, of Virginia; and Edward G. W. Butler, of Missouri. The bills were at once passed, Mr. Edmunds remarking that one of the parties was an aged gentleman, and desired before leaving this world to be at peace with the United States.

Mr. Beck said he did not know of any smaller business for the Judiciary Committee than to be peddling out removals of disabilities in this way.

Mr. Edmunds replied that all the United States asked of any person before relieving him of the penalty imposed on him by the constitution for violating his oath and deserting the constitution that he had sworn to support and making war against the United States, was that he should present a respectful petition showing that he was ready to give up fighting the United States and to pay the debts he owed for moneys received in his official character. If the Senator from Kentucky thought that to be "peddling out" removals referred to, he was entitled to his opinion.

Mr. Beck replied that twelve years ago the House of Representatives had passed a bill removing all disabilities, and before that time the Senate had done so. It did not happen both Houses did it at the same session. He insisted upon characterizing the present mode as "peddling out" and supposed that in the present condition of the Senate, nothing better could be expected.

At 5:15 the Senate went into executive session, and at 5:40 p. m., adjourned until Tuesday next.

HOUSE.—Mr. Kelly, of Penn., renewed his request to have printed in the Record the review of the testimony in the Fitz John Porter case, prepared by Judge Advocate Holt.

Mr. Bragg, of Wis., who had previously objected, said that as the battle was over, he was in favor of general amnesty, and would make no objection.

The request was granted.

Mr. Wheeler, of Ala., asked leave to have printed his review of Judge Advocate Holt's review, but Mr. Steele, of Ind., objected.

The House went into committee of the Whole on the private calendar. On the first bill on the calendar Mr. Scott, of Penn., offered a verbal amendment and proceeded to deliver a speech on the silver question. He prefaced his speech by expressing his regret that the gentleman representing his own political faith had been proper to anticipate their party opponents in their criticisms of the first who had occupied those positions in the past twenty-five years for reasons which he elaborated at considerable length. He favored bi-metallic as the best policy for us to adhere to at this time, and neither gold nor silver monometallism, provided further coinage of the standard silver dollar could be regulated by requirements of trade, and expressed the will of the people, and not through operations of an arbitrary law.

Mr. Geddes, of Ohio, protested against a private bill day being consumed in the discussion of the silver question. He opposed the amendment offered by Mr. Scott as a text for his speech that the claim under consideration should be paid in silver; contending that it was not consistent for gold men to say that bonds should be paid in gold and the poor man's claim in silver. Mr. Geddes then proceeded to speak upon the opposite side of the silver question from Mr. Scott, notwithstanding the efforts of several members to confine the discussion to the bill before the House.
When Mr. Geddes had concluded the committee rose and the House passed a dozen private bills.

On motion of Mr. Hammond, of Ga., it was ordered that when the House adjourns today it be to meet Tuesday next.
The House at 4:45 took a recess until 7:30, the evening session to be for the consideration of pension bills.
The House, in evening session, passed 44 pension bills and adjourned till Tuesday.
Orders were issued today closing all the executive departments on Monday (Washington's birthday).

"Why sit doubled up like an old man my boy! What's rheumatism? Take the good the gods provide thee, and send 25 cents around the corner for a bottle of Salvation Oil and you'll ride your bicycle tomorrow."

Jones County Items.

Capt. E. R. Page says that the wind generally blows as hard at his house as it does at Hatteras.

The wind on Saturday was moving real estate from a man's field that of his neighbors, particularly that portion which was dry and light.

We have the worst weather for farm work that ever experienced. We are yet hoping that we soon shall have a real comfortable week of good farm-working weather.

A young man named Henry Andrews had the misfortune to get his leg badly broken last week while breaking some young oxen at Mr. L. L. Harrison's, in Trenton township.

Congressman O'Hara has commenced distributing seeds. Most every mail brings packages of these seeds. We must bear testimony that he appears to remember all alike; Gentile as well as Jew.

Trenton can now boast of good order, and as little drunkenness as any little town in Eastern Carolina; all of which has been brought about by having a good town government, whose ordinances are strictly, firmly and impartially administered to all good people of our county are willing to join in and say, "well done."

William Pollock, while repairing an old fence on the lot where Sylvanus Barker's store stands, found Mr. Thos. J. Whitaker's pocket book which was stolen from him some months since. Whoever stole it took out the money and slipped the pocket book with all the notes and papers of notice in it through a crack in the fence into this lot.

We learn that Miss Fannie Wooten of Lenoir county has opened a school at the schoolhouse near E. M. Foscoe's. Many of the students who attended the Willow schoolhouse, which in after years was changed to Parker Branch, which has changed its name again to the Foscoe schoolhouse and stands nearly in the same place of the old one.

Rabbit hunting is all the rage at Trenton now. I was there on Thursday last; several were out on a hunt with dogs yelping, followed by ex-sheriffs, lawyers and some others. I inquired if rabbits were very plentiful, and was informed that there was only one in the vicinity, and that this poor fellow was eagerly hunted after, as his foot was wanted to give luck to all who possessed it.

I heard one gentleman say that it had poured a stream of good luck to a leading citizen of one of the States, so it was said, and as he, too, needed luck, he wanted one. All a joke, of course.

Several of our farmers say cotton is so low they believe they can make more in tobacco. The majority of our farmers know as much about raising tobacco, as one of our old farmers did several years ago, who told Mr. P. I. Long that he could raise tobacco if he could get seed from up the country. Mr. Long told him he would bring him all the seed he wanted. "Why," said the farmer, "ten bushels will be enough." "My dear sir," said Mr. Long, "are you going to plant the Southern States in tobacco? Let me caution all who desire to plant tobacco don't order ten bushels seed to commence with."

The Doctor's Last Happy Resort.

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 14, 1883.
I recently had a very difficult case of Consumption. I treated it in the most scientific manner possible, but to no effect; patient grew gradually worse. Rather than give up, and as a last resort, I decided, much against my wish, to use a remedy that has cured one of my former patients. Greatly to my surprise the patient began to gain, and in a much shorter time than I dared to ever expect she was completely cured. The name of this remarkable remedy is Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. I now use it altogether in my practice. —Leading M. D., Evansville.

"Fear brings disgrace, bravery brings honor, cowardice saves no man from his fate," says the Cliph Omar; but Dr. Ball's Cough Syrup has saved millions from an awful fate.

Kinston Items.

Miss Sue Fordham of Jones county has gone to Fremont to visit relatives.
J. L. Winfield, editor of the Washington Gazette, and I. L. Chestnut, editor of the Watch-Tower, spent Thursday in town.

Dr. J. T. Walsh has been heavily pounded by a number of his country friends, and those in town have been good like a medicine and he is steadily improving.

Mr. Jno. D. Jarman, from near Richlands, was in town last week. He says that the farmers of his section will plant less cotton this year, and raise more ground-peas and other crops which can be used in fattening pork.

Dr. Cyrus Thompson is teaching a full school near Mr. Willoughby Jarman's. He now lives on his farm, and enjoys that quiet independence peculiar to the farmer, and is in closer interest and sympathy with that very large class of his fellow citizens of Onslow, for whom he has done good service.

Dr. R. H. Lewis started for Washington, D. C., on Saturday, the 20th. He will be absent about a week in attendance of a national teachers' meeting. It is to be hoped that they will not be too late to give Congress a correct idea of how the teachers stand on the Blair bill.

We learn that preachers Williams and Powell have had some trouble about land, which resulted in Powell's shooting Williams. The wound is not a serious one. A hearing was had, and Powell was committed to jail. We forbear giving further details for fear of doing injury to the character of the parties.

Closing Exercises of a Public School.
On Friday, Feb. 12, a large audience assembled at Harper's schoolhouse to witness the closing exercises of the common school in district No. 27, Lenoir county, which was taught by Mr. Benj. Maxwell of Duplin.

Mr. Maxwell's work showed itself in the students to be efficient, both in the theory and practice. No effort has been spared on the part of the students for the acquisition of knowledge. Some of them deserve special mention for the manner in which they appeared and acted on the stage; among whom are:—

Misses Martha Grady, Lucy Harper, Nannie and Julia Hill, Mollie and Eliza Williams and Sarah Taylor.

The boys who deserve mention, especially for good declamations, are:— J. T. Stroud, Chas. Harper, D. C. Potter, Samuel Maxwell, Cook Stroud and Master Chas. Maxwell, who delivered the closing declamation, after school closed.

A number of baskets loaded with goodies, were brought forward by the patrons of the school and dinner was taken. Thanks to Mrs. Stephen Davenport and Miss Vic. Noble, who were not patrons of the school, for a good basket.

Capt. W. S. Bird delivered a lecture on "Educational Interests," which aroused the feelings and patriotism of many who were hearers, after which the audience was pleasantly entertained by remarks from Prof. R. W. Skinner.

DISSOLUTION OF COPARTNERSHIP

The copartnership in Dry Goods heretofore existing between Wm. Sultan and Wm. Cohen under the style and firm of Wm. Sultan & Co. is this 22d day of February, 1886, dissolved, by mutual consent. The said Wm. Sultan is authorized to collect all debts due the firm.

Wm. SULTAN,
Wm. COHEN.

Having sold out my interest to Wm. Cohen, I will soon reopen under the style of Wm. Sultan, in the Bishop building now occupied by George Howard. I thank my friends and the public for their liberal patronage in the past and respectfully solicit a continuance of the same in the future.
