The labor representatives in Par- S. C.: liament are now solid for Gladstone out for Chamberlain, Trevelyan or ica. Hartington, a fact full of hopeful significance if there is to be a new election. The Radical associations, too, have begun to move into line.

The situation in other respects improves, and the anti-Home Rulers are losing ground hourly. The speech of Samuel Whitbread, Whig member for Bedford, Lord Hartington's intimate associate, has completely broken the solidity of the Whig phalanx. Disunion and demoralization prevail in the Hartington camp. The wing is split into sections. Gladstone gains several votes hitherto regarded as hopeless, and the entire combina-

THE LIME-KILN CLUB.

There was a painful silence as the regular weekly meeting was called to order, and it seemed as if something was about to happen. It was noticed that Elder Toots had a frightened look, while Samuel Shin, Whalebone Howker and Old Man Davis moved about on their chairs as if to avoid carpet-tacks. By and by Brother Gardner said:

"Accordin' to de constitushun of dis clab, wheneber any member proposed Onslow Railroad, which could be built very easy if all our our President?'
