JAY GOULD and Master Workman POWDERLY have had a long interview the result of which was an agreement to arbitrate the difficulties existing between GOULD'S railroad and his employees.

ANOTHER pension bill is before Congress which only increases the present appropriation $25,000,000 annually. The next proposition will probably be to pension every man who was on the Union side during the war, whether he was in the army or not.

REPUBLICAN POLITICAL PETS.

In the House of Representatives on Wednesday last Hon. T. G. SKINNER made a point which a Democratic Administration ought to consider. In discussing an appropriation for the Agricultural Department Mr. PRICE, of Wisconsin, said he did not want it to be paid out to political pets who do not earn their money. To this Mr. SKINNER made the following pertinent reply:

Mr. Skinner .- I want to make a son; Person, James F. Terry. remark or two at this juncture. The gentleman from Wisconsin [Mr. Price] said what he wanted to do was to keep political pets from be-ing pat in a governments, Duplin, Dr. M. H. Moore; Sampson, E. W. Kerr; Pen-governments partake more and ing put in office and kept there for der, John T. Bland; Carteret, A. H. more of that character.-Demorest's political purposes. I want to say Chadwick; Jones, P. M. Pearsall; Monthly. ture, if he keeps any political pets in that office, keeps Republican political pets. He has got there, as I understand now, one private secretary, paid $1,800; one disbursing clerk, paid $1,800, superintendent of the folding-room, paid $1,200; three messengers, each $720; one laborer in folding-room, $600; two laborers on grounds, each $660; G. Means, chairman; Iredell, J. B. four or five laborers on the grounds, Connelly; Rowan, Theo. F. Klutz; each $400; one coachman, $660; two firemen, each $720; none of whom are protected by the civil-service act. I merely wanted to say that it was not Democratic pets the Commissioner was protecting, but Republican pets. Now if Mr. SKINNER can get these Republican pets turned out, he might do something for Carteret county. We hope the Beaufort Record will see the difficulties under which Mr. SKINNER has to labor and remember that he is only one of 325 members of the House of Representatives; that the House is only a part of one branch of the government-and that branch is government—and that branch is Sandifer; Lincoln, W. A. Hoke; not the appointing power—and Catawba, W. L. McCorkle; Cleve-finally that Carteret is only one of land, R. McBrayer; Rutherford, M. sixteen counties in the first Congressional district.

Even of the supreme court and superior the education of the children, it was court judges, and the transaction argued should be left to the parents and should not be undertaken by the State at the expense of the enterprise will not suffice; hence education, the carriage of the mail, the building of roads and bridges, the laying out of parks and the improvement of harbors and waterways, are by common consent taken charge of by the central authorities. This has been called "State socialism," which in a certain sense it is. Great Britain and France have long had postal savings-banks, and a similar institution is being called for in this country. A monstrous deal of money has been lost through the failure of the ordinary savingsbanks. It is the industrious poor who suffer in these cases. Were the government the custodian of the funds of the poor, there would be no loss of principal or interest, and then all who deposited would become defenders of the nation. PROFANITY .- We naturally resent any liberty taken with our own name or with the name of a dear friend. A similar feeling moves a refined mind when the name of the Supreme Being is profanely used. Says the Rev. R. H. Howard, in a pocket tract recently published:

It is difficult to name or to conceive of a viler social pest than a profane man. Vulgarity is bad enough. Blasphemy is vastly worse. Vulgarity is disgusting. Blasphemy is both disgusting and Whereas, since our last meeting shocking.
