The American Jacks, by order of the foreman, are requested to meet at Freeman Manwell's this evening at 8 o'clock.

F. M. Simmons, Esq., has a dwelling house to rent.

The refreshing shower on Sunday was good for the pea crop.

Hubbs' livery stable received another lot of fine horses and mules yesterday evening.

The steamer Experiment arrived last night from Baltimore with a cargo of merchandise.

The mail train was about two hours late last night, caused it is supposed by the work of changing gauge.

The machinery for Card & Gallup's mill at Sloumb's creek arrived on Saturday night per Str. Orinda.

The steamer Carolina left for Trenton yesterday morning, carrying as passengers Messrs. G. F. M. Dail, F. G. Simmons and Capt. Joe Wagner.

Miss Harriette Lane opens an elegant stock of millinery goods and Easter cards tomorrow. Her experience and fine taste guarantees good selections.

Mrs. M. D. Dewey is receiving her large stock of millinery goods, of which she gives notice today. She always carries a large stock of well selected goods in her line.

Remember that the sale of reserve seats for Ida Serven will commence this morning at 9 o'clock at Hancock's drug Store. Be on hand early and get your seats before they are all taken.

Col. Jordan's new drug store on the corner of Broad and Middle streets is being handsomely fitted up on the inside. The contractor, Mr. John Lane, was never known to do a shabby job.

The cabbage crops near the city are quite promising. A portion of the pea crop from some cause has fired up—or turned yellow at the bottom—and presents very poor prospects.

The sloop Nellie May, Capt. John Lewis, owned by Mr. Geo. N. Ives, is in port, and brought up from Core sound oysters for Moore & Brady. She came up for repairs to sails and will leave this morning for Beaufort, where she will engage in menhaden fishing.

The People's Advocate of this city says Abbott must stand aside; that he cannot longer misrepresent the Republicans of this district as he did in the National Convention. But Abbott says the people, not only of this county, but of other counties, want him to go to Congress, and that he is in favor either of a white man or a black man, but no half way man for him.

The steamer Kinston arrived from Kinston yesterday evening, and the clever Captain and the polite and attentive agent at this place, with a few friends such as they could gather on a very short notice made a pleasant little trip down the river, stopping at Graywood and taking a view of the extensive manufacturing works located there. It may be said to be the first excursion of the season and quite a pleasant trip to those who attended.

Rev. Mr. Crawford continued his series of sermons on the last six days work of the Saviour while on earth, last Sunday morning and Sunday night at the Presbyterian Church to large and attentive congregations. The sermon in the morning was on the trial and condemnation of Jesus; at night on the crucifixion. It is understood that the meetings that were to follow this series of sermons will continue as soon as the repairs to the church are completed, which it is hoped will be done by Thursday or Friday.

The falling of the moulding in the M. E. Church was caused by a leak. Two heavy columns of this moulding—made of plaster Paris—extended lengthwise the Church, and the continuous leak, which had not been detected, caused a section of it to give way. Fortunately, it fell while there was no one in the church, but a carpenter who was arranging some fixtures about the windows. Immediately after the falling, the pastor and the board of stewards concluded to have the remainder of the moulding taken down at once, and to do this required the erection of considerable staging, but the work is hastening to completion, and when done, will not only be perfectly safe, but will present as handsome an appearance as before.

Read what the New York Tribune says about Ida Serven:
Ida Serven is a novelty among eloquentists, as a singer and readers.—N. Y. Tribune.

Personal.
Judge Seymour left for Elizabeth City yesterday morning where he holds Federal Court this week.

Strawberries.
Our townsman, Mr. Phil. Holland, had his dinner table supplied with fresh strawberries yesterday, grown in his garden. A sample was shown us about the size of a partridge egg. The first reported last year was by Master Tommie Carraway on the 29th of April.

Palm Sunday.
Last Sunday was what is known in the calendar of some of the churches as "Palm Sunday," so called, at first, because of the palms carried on that day before our Lord at the time of his triumphal entry into Jerusalem, as described in the Gospels; and particularly by St. John XII, 12, 13. The services of the day commemorate this event in the life of our Saviour. At Christ Church the decorations were suggestive of the feature from which the day takes its name, the altar, lectern, pulpit and other parts of the church building being tastefully dressed with palm branches.

Passion Week.
The services of Palm Sunday, as observed in some of our churches, usher in the sad scenes of Passion week, which are of the greatest interest to Christian people and to all wherewith the story of the cross has been told.

The institution of the Lords' supper is celebrated; the trial, the crucifixion, and burial of Jesus are all brought prominently forward in the Lessons, Gospels and Epistles of the several days. These events have been epitomized in the creed, in the words, "He suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, dead and buried; he descended into hell," and so graphic is the recital, so deep the humility, and so intense the suffering narrated, that the devout worshipper bows his head in token of his unworthiness of such a sacrifice while repeating it, and can only raise his eyes heavenward when he is taught, that "The third day he rose from the dead and ascended into Heaven; and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty," which declares His triumphs over death, hell and the grave, and will be appropriately celebrated at the dawn of the glorious Easter-day.

The JOURNAL returns thanks to the Decorum Septenary Concert Club, a number of colored young men of this city. They have some splendid voices and make excellent music.

She Is Not Dead.
It has been reported that I was dead—but I am not. For four years I have been afflicted with a severe case of Blood Poison, Rheumatism, and Neuralgia. My flesh shrank away, my muscles seemed to dry up and form into little knots, joints were swollen and painful and all concluded I must die. I have used five bottles of B. B. B. and I have gained 60 pounds of flesh, and am now as sound as any woman.

Mrs. Levenia Smith, of Jones county, died on April 15th, at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Gooding.

Mr. Claud Hill has gone into the livery business with W. H. Brock. Our people will find these young men reliable and accommodating.

The Board of Education met on last Tuesday and received an itemized report from the treasurer, showing the exact condition of the school fund of the county.

Mrs. R. Egbert Davis of Trent township sent a lemon to Kinston last week which weighed fourteen ounces, and the bush has forty more on it. Why not have more of these useful ornaments?

Mr. A. Slaughter and Mr. S. H. Moore have given their places of business a real inviting appearance by erecting a plank roofing over the sidewalk in front of their stores.

Col. S. B. Taylor and wife of Catharine Lake, W. B. Murrill and lady of Gum Branch, Dr. Dick Ward and Bob Ward of Jacksonville, and last ("and best," say our young men) Miss Lorena Murrill were in town last week visiting relatives at Kinston College.

The Democratic voters of Kinston are requested to meet on Tuesday night to nominate candidates to fill the several town offices. The places of meeting are as follows: 1st ward, Opera House; 2d ward, court house; 3rd ward, Graded School building; 4th ward, Kinston College.

Our showery April weather was made doubly lively on last Wednesday afternoon by the marriage of the sprightly young couple, Mr. Willie Sanford, of New Berne, and Miss Celis Davis, at the residence of Mr. Jno. Davis, the bride's father. Rev. Nathan Hooker solemnized the rite, and the happy pair took the evening train for their new home. May blessings shower upon them as freely as did the rain on that eventful afternoon.

A citizen of Davenport, Iowa, was converted recently at a revival meeting, and groaned so long and loud over his past sins that he was arrested for disorderly conduct and fined ten dollars.

Congressional Work.
SENATE.—April 16.—The Senate passed bills relieving John R. Hamilton; of North Carolina; John Taylor Wood, of Louisiana, and Dinwiddie B. Phillips, of Virginia, of their political disabilities.

Some messages from the President having been received, Mr. Voorhees moved to go into executive session, but on the request of Mr. Randolph, who wished to speak on the Deprivation bill, Mr. Voorhees withdrew his motion.

Mr. Riddleberger objected to taking up any bill or doing any business at this time that would interfere with the resolution relating to an executive session. He said there seemed to be a determined effort to prevent the consideration of that resolution.

Unanimous consent being refused Mr. Dolph made a motion to take up the Indian Deprivation bill, which was agreed to, Mr. Riddleberger alone voting in the negative. Mr. Dolph then spoke in support of his deprivation bill, and a bill also introduced by him appropriating $5,000,000 to compensate citizens for losses resulting from Indian deprivations.

At the conclusion of Mr. Dolph's remarks there was some discussion over the proper reference of his bill, but it was finally decided to refer them to the Committee on Indian Affairs.

Mr. Call offered resolutions proposing to reinstate a skilled laborer, a Democrat, "who was discharged yesterday by the sergeant-at-arms without cause, except to make a place for a Republican." The resolutions also propose that the Republican majority of the Senate allow the Democratic minority the same number of employees as were allowed by the Democratic majority to the Republican minority in 1879.

At Mr. Call's request the resolutions were allowed to lie over for the present.

At 2 p. m. Mr. Camden took the floor in support of the Interstate Commerce bill. At the conclusion of his speech the Senate, at 3:10, went into secret executive session, and when at 5 p. m. the doors were re-opened the Senate adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.—The chaplain in his prayer alluded touchingly to the sufferers by the Minnesota cyclone, and prayed that the hearts of the people would be touched and their sympathies quickened.

Mr. Clements (Ga.), from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, reported back the Dingley resolution calling on the President for information in his possession relative to exclusion of American fishing vessels from the right to enter Canadian ports to trade, purchase supplies or land fish caught in deep water for shipment in bond to the United States or doing other acts which Canadian and other British vessels are freely permitted to do in American ports; also requesting the President to inform the House what steps had been taken to bring such unwarrantable and unfriendly acts of the Dominion authorities to the notice of the British Government.

Mr. Dingley said he had introduced the resolution in order to bring to the attention of Congress and the country the unwarrantable and unfriendly course of the Canadian authorities in endeavoring to prevent American vessels authorized by our laws to touch and trade, from entering Canadian ports to buy ice and bait and enjoy other commercial privileges which are accorded Canadian vessels in our ports. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Willis, of Ky., made an effort to proceed with the river and harbor bill, but the House decided to proceed with the call of the committees for reports of a private nature. At the conclusion of the call the House went into committee on the chair on the private calendar.

The first bill on the calendar was for the relief of the McMinn and Chester Railroad Co. of Tennessee. The bill was thoroughly discussed yesterday and today with unabated vigor. Mr. Houk, of Tenn., went so far as to say that a statement made by Mr. Johnson (Ind.) was untrue. The excitement which was naturally expected to follow this assertion was turned into laughter, when Mr. Johnson, who is a very large man, declined to have any personal conduct with Mr. Houk on account of the size of the gentleman.

The bill was finally reported to the House, but was not definitely disposed of.

At 4:40 p. m. the House took a recess till 7:30 o'clock.

At the night session forty five pension bills were passed, and the House adjourned at 8:15 p. m.

Wonderful Cures.
W. B. Hoyt & Co., wholesale and retail druggists of Rome, Ga., say: We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Bucklen's Arnica Salve for two years. Have never handled remedies that sell as well, or give such universal satisfaction. There have been some wonderful cures effected by these medicines in this city. Several cases of pronounced Consumption have been entirely cured by use of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters. We guarantee them always. Sold by Hancock Bros.

Pelletier's Mill Items.
Lon. Pelletier is making some of the best water-mill meal in the county.

Our candidates are still this week; that is we haven't heard from them or what they are doing.

A big banks party on the first day of May; party to start from Dr. Sanders' wharf, to go to Bogue Inlet and return same day.

A terrible gale of wind a few days ago blew the schooner-Scow, E. Lee, belonging to Capt. Terry, ashore in White Oak river and her owners have not been able to get her off as yet.

David Bell, a colored man living near Dr. G. W. Ennett's place, has a real oyster pearl that he got out of an oyster seven years ago. He wrapped the pearl in a piece of paper and put it in his trunk and it has grown from the size of a BB shot to the size of a small marble or swan shot. He says the pearl has never been in water or wet at all.

Jere W. Thomas is one of our best farmers; he, too, has a fine orchard; good stock of horses, hogs and cattle; makes plenty of everything for the inner man; walks upon his own bottom and smokes his own tobacco; in fact all our farmers around are beginning to feel themselves, as the weather has somewhat settled down into pretty spring and gives them an opportunity of doing their farm work.

Dan. Weeks has one of the finest orchards of apples, peaches and plums of any one we have seen except Dr. Ennett; both of these gentlemen, we think, have good taste in that line and ought to have an established nursery of their own. The Doctor is also a dealer in fine stock, among these are some pretty ponies of his own raising. S. B. Holland is also engaged in stock-raising; has some 30 head of fine cattle, a lot of horses and ponies of his own raising and one fine stallion of the Black Hawk breed three years old.

M. St. Paul, a Paris physician, has offered the French Academy the sum of $5,000 to found a prize for the discovery of a cure for diphtheria. He has evidently not heard of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, which has cured hundreds of cases of this awful disease.
