Herrings plentiful at five cents per bunch.

Messrs. J. L. Rhem and Nathan Tisdale made a shipment of spring turnips yesterday.

There will be a meeting of the members of the Cotton and Grain Exchange at 11 o'clock this morning. See "adv." A meeting of the M. E. Church Working Society will be held at the residence of Mrs. K. R. Jones this evening at 8 o'clock.

Don't fail to get your reserve seats at once for Ida Serven; if you do you will miss one of the nicest entertainments that ever was in this city.

The drying up or firing up of the pea crop near the city seems to be hard to understand by the truckers. Some of them have given the crop an extra ploughing and it appears to be doing good.

What the Press Say About Her.
Read what the press all over the country say about Ida Serven and be sure to attend:

Ida Serven's singing is as delightful as her readings.—Waterford Republican.

Ida Serven's manner is amiable and winning—versatility wonderful—perfect naturalness, almost childlike.—Phila. Press.

Steamer Movements.

The Shenandoah made regularly trip yesterday bringing merchandise and taking out cotton, naval stores, rice, radishes, turnips asparagus, etc. The Experiment sailed for Baltimore yesterday with a cargo of cotton, lumber, naval stores, rice, canned oysters, etc.

The Kinston left for Kinston with a cargo of merchandise.

Personal.
W. B. Lane, Esq., of Cobton, is in the city. He says farmers are ready to plant cotton in his section but are waiting for a little rain.

Mrs. Blackwell and daughter, Miss Annie, left per steamer Shenandoah yesterday evening for a trip North.

H. B. Lane, Esq., returned from Norfolk yesterday. He had the pleasure of hearing, while there, the great evangelist Moody and Sankey and was well pleased with his trip.

Messrs. Nathan Sylvester and Harry Creagh, of Richlands, are in the city. Mr. A. Mitchell, of Kinston, was on our streets yesterday, driving fine stock as usual.

Spring Goods.
Max Schwerin has returned from the North and is opening a fine stock of spring and summer clothing etc., which look as neat and handsome as the new sign which has just been swung out in front of his store by the painter, Berry. His announcement appears elsewhere and should be read by all who want goods in his line.

A. M. Baker received lots of goods per Shenandoah yesterday and will let the public hear from him in a few days.

Our merchants have now pretty well supplied themselves with spring and summer goods, and we assure our readers that by consulting the columns of the JOURNAL they will know where to find what they want at prices to suit the times.

All About Eggs.
Mr. J. H. Beeton has brought to the JOURNAL a variety of eggs—that is as far as three will go towards making a variety. One is the product of a hen and is 8 inches in length and 6 inches in circumference. Another is of the same production and 8 1/2 inches long and but 3 inches in circumference; while the third is of like production, but very unlike in shape, having taken it upon itself to resemble a gourd more than an egg and has a length of equal the circumference, which is the unimposing figure of only 3 1/2 inches. Now why this difference in the size and shape of these valuable articles of diet should exist is beyond our comprehension, nor has Mr. Beeton vouchsafed an explanation, if he has any.

While on the subject of eggs, we would remind the curious that an egg laid on good Friday never rots, and if they doubt it, next Friday is the time to try it.

The First Box of Peas.

The first box of peas of the season goes forward this morning by the railroad. It was shipped by Mrs. Thomas Stanly to Baltimore and is twelve days earlier than the first shipment of last year.

A Visit to the Graded School.

We were present yesterday during the recitation of a lesson from Allen's Forty Lessons in Double-Entry Book-Keeping. The class of about twenty-five girls and boys, under the tuition of Miss Allen, were hard at work, demonstrating on the blackboard the intricacies of debit and credit, merchandise, partnership, interest, bills receivable, bills payable, etc., etc. They were making entries of transactions, and posting them in ledger pages drawn on the board.

This is a new and novel manner of teaching the science of accounts, and judging from the progress made by the pupils in Twenty-one lessons, we consider it quite a success.

It certainly proves that book-keeping can be taught to graded school children, and we hope that every public school in the State will add this practical subject to their course of study.

We learn that almost one thousand copies of Mr. Allen's book are now in use in schools, with the prospect of several thousand being used next session.

The Political Sap Rising.

Mr. John O. Gardner stood on a dray at the Frog Pond last night and discoursed to the people on the doctrine of evolution, education, the cooperation of New Berne, the constitutions of the United States and North Carolina, fast driving, oaths of grand jurors, wars and rumors of wars and the rights of mankind generally. It was the speech of his life, having, as he said, been thinking over it for a long time. Just as the moon arose he descended the dray amid profound silence.

Loud calls were made for Lovick, and the portly proprietor of Frog Pond mounted a goods box and, in a voice that would do honor to Capt Swift Galoway said: "Fellow citizens." He could go no further; the ground had been entirely "kivered."

We don't know whether or not to call it a political gathering but the political sap is evidently rising. Many present pronounced it a first-class April fool.

Good Friday.

Next Friday is what is known as Good Friday, and will be observed at Christ Church by three services, one at 8:30 a. m. and at 12 m. and another at 5:30 p. m. The theatres in New York, we believe, have determined to close on the evening of this day of solemn church services, as have those of Richmond, Va. and probably other cities.

More than one effort has been made in Congress to have this day placed upon the list of National holidays; but so far without success. Thus the day is left, as probably it should be, subject to the individual judgment of those who wish to observe it, in devotional exercises. Many zealous observers of Good Friday do not desire it to be placed upon the calendar of National holidays for the reason that such a course would eventually rid it of the appropriate solemnity and result in such observance as has almost robbed the Feast of the Nativity—Christmas—of the sanctity belonging to it.

But still the commemoration of the crucifixion will be observed throughout the world, wherever the christian religion has been taught.

It is the closing services of the Lenten season and those who have properly sought the benefits of that penitential period are the better prepared to enter into the joyful celebration of Easter.

Appreciated Abroad.

We clip the paragraph below from the Reporter-Journal of Towanda, Pa. It is gratifying to know that these gentlemen have a reputation abroad—a well-earned and well-sustained reputation at home, for business tact, energy, enterprise, and in every way trustworthy. We commend them to any of our Northern friends who desire to come South or want any information about this section:

If any of our readers contemplate going South, we suggest that they send to Green, Foy & Co., bankers at New Berne, N. C., for information. These gentlemen are recommended as trustworthy by prominent business men of this county, and persons desiring or depending upon them do not run the risk of imposition which they would in many cases. To those desiring them they will send circulars descriptive of the South, and the fullest information will be freely communicated. Before going South, or thinking seriously of it, write to them.

Prohibition Convention.

The friends of prohibition, white and colored, will meet in the Court House at Trenton, Thursday, May 8th, at 3 p. m.

It is said the Langtry garter is getting to be fashionable and much worn; how this may be, we do not know, but we do know that everyone is using Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for all catarrhal affections.

SHIERS.

Montana is clamoring to become a State.

The Czar of Russia must live a very unhappy life. Another plot has just been discovered to blow him up with dynamite.

France is the greatest country in the world for duels. Since 1870 she records 847 besides many others between officers and private soldiers.

The marriage of President Cleveland is supposed to take place sometime in June. His intended is now in Italy but is expected to return soon.

In the Youth's Companion, one of the best papers for the home circle published, of April 15th is an article—"A Music Lesson," by Christine Nilsson.

Report comes from Buenos Ayres that our Minister to the Argentine Republic is not polite enough to suit the stylish Spaniards there, and that he desires to retire.

Rents in the city of Chicago are enormous; as an example, the Rock Island Railroad Co. pays $10,000 a year rental for their ticket office, corner Clark and Washington streets.

It is said that the spray of the great Yellowstone falls in the National Park built up at its foot a mountain of ice, scarcely yet affected by the spraying warmth, and almost as high as the fall itself, which in midwinter was magnificent in form and color.

The yacht Atlantic now under construction at New York, is ready for launching. Experienced boatmen pronounce her model superior to any they have ever seen, and that it may safely be said she will prove faster than the Puritan. If this can be accomplished we need fear but little the American cup being taken from us, though the plucky Britons are doing all that English skill can do to defeat us in the coming contest.

Both Hands Up.

NEWNAN, GA., June 4, 1885.
For over two years I have been a sufferer from Rheumatism, affecting both shoulders to such an extent that I could not put on my coat without help. The use of seven bottles of B. B. B. effected an entire cure. I refer to Rev. W. W. Wadsworth and all merchants of Newnan. JACOB SPONGLER.
Sold in New Berne by R. N. Duffy and E. H. Meadows.

Congressional Work.

SENATE.—April 17.—Senate not in session.

HOUSE.—The pending bill in the morning hour was that called up by the Committee on Ways and Means, to authorize the establishment of export tobacco manufactures, and for a drawback on imported articles used in manufacturing export tobacco.

The bill was passed without amendment.

Mr. Forney, of Ala., on behalf of the Committee on Appropriations, called up the bill appropriating $150,000 for the relief of sufferers by the overflow of rivers in Alabama. Mr. Forney described the sufferings and destitute condition of thousands of people who had been rendered homeless by the floods in Alabama, and dwelt upon the necessity of Congressional action. He read a telegram sent by a mass meeting of colored people in Dallas county, Ala., to the Alabama delegation, urging an immediate appropriation by Congress, and stating that $150,000 was not sufficient to adequately relieve the distress.

Mr. Hancock, of N. Y., and Mr. Nelson, of Minn., urged the propriety of an amendment making an appropriation for the relief of sufferers from the late cyclone in Minnesota.

Mr. Oats, of Ala., regretted that he could not agree with his colleague on this question. This measure was confessedly outside of the Constitution, and he was one of those who believed that the oath of office he took to support that instrument was violated when he went outside of it and usurped authority to appropriate the people's money. The floods in Alabama had been destructive and much suffering had ensued, but today he was informed every river in Alabama was within its banks, and the very fact that the houses that had been destroyed would make work more plentiful and wages higher. He quoted from an editorial in a Montgomery, Ala., newspaper to the effect that a Congressional appropriation would prove a curse rather than a blessing to the farming interest of Alabama; and from the Selma Times, expressing the hope that if the appropriation passed the House, and the "old woman from New Hampshire" saw it through the Senate, the fire man who got his hand on the fund would steal it and run off to Siam.

In answer to this, Mr. Forney quoted from the Montgomery Advertiser, warmly recommending the appropriation.

Mr. Herbert, of Ala., earnestly supported the bill, and said that though the floods had subsided they had left desolation in their track.

Pending further discussion, the morning hour expired.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on bills reported from the Committee on Public Buildings, involving small appropriations. The only bill passed affecting the South, was one granting for the use of the public a street across United States grounds in Chattanooga. Adjourned.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

La Grange Items.

C. C. Taylor, the JOURNAL agent, was in town Saturday.

Church services at the M. E. Church last Sunday and Sunday night by Rev. Mr. Rose, P. C.

Neuse river has gone down and the fisheries up this way are looking for a good catch of shad.

R. B. Kinsey is moving out and making way for his new store, which is to be built in the near future.

The foundations for Taylor & Britt's new store were laid Monday. The work will be pushed as fast as possible.

Several of our farmers began planting cotton last week. The season has been backward, but with favorable weather from now, it is not too early.

The guano trade here does not decrease as the season advances. We think this business is assuming ruinous proportions, but some one else will have to sustain the losses, if any.

A series of meetings will be held in the M. E. Church through the week. The Rev. Mr. Holden is expected to arrive tonight and will have charge of the meeting. We hope to be able to report good results.

H. E. Dillon contemplates building two brick stores during the summer. Thus the work of improvement in our place goes steadily on, the old wood building giving place to new and more durable ones.

Silas Bryant's (col.) mule run and threw him from the buggy last Saturday and broke his left leg at the ankle joint. The wound is a severe one, and Dr. Hadley, attending physician, thinks that amputation may be necessary.

D. M. Stanton had a full run on two horse cultivators one day last week, four being sold to farmers in Stanston. Mr. Stanton has been earnestly endeavoring to introduce improved agricultural machinery for sometime, and the time is not far distant when farmers will have to let this, as far as possible, take the place of labor.

Wonderful Cures.

W. B. Hoyt & Co., wholesale and retail druggists of Rome, Ga., say: We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Bucklen's Arnica Salve for two years. Have never handled remedies that sell as well, or give such universal satisfaction. There have been some wonderful cures effected by these medicines in this city. Several cases of pronounced Consumption have been entirely cured by use of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters. We guarantee them always. Sold by Hancock Bros.

Stonewall Items.

A. H. Whitcomb, our sawmill man, is home from a trip to Philadelphia. He has been gone three days.

Mr. Jno. Tingle, one of our good citizens is suffering a severe attack of the heart, but is much better than a day or so ago.

Some fienl set fire to the woods near the saw mill of Hooker & Miller Wednesday night about 11 o'clock in Bayboro, but the fire was discovered in time to save the mill with but nominal loss.

Several of our citizens have had the misfortune of losing some valuable horses, some of whom are Jerome B. Sawyer, Wm. Clayton, Anderson Gibbs, col., A. K. Spruill and others whose names have slipped my memory. The disease is said to be blind staggers; it is a sad loss to a poor, hard-working man to lose his only horse.

Sam Johnson, col., ran away and left his wife and child some two or three months since and went to Georgia to try his hand at turpentine-making. He arrived in Stonewall yesterday, having patted the grit from there and says he is sufficiently amused. Why, he says, those fellows down there don't mind killing a rigger no more than an alligator, and if he keeps his senses he shall never see Georgia again.

He sleeps beside his little sister, his mother and his sainted grandmother, waiting for the glorious morning when all will arise to "die no more."
