BUSINESS LOCALS.

Job-work executed with neatness and dispatch at the JOURNAL OFFICE.

The pea crop is suffering for rain near the city.

The steamer Kinston left for Kinston with a cargo of general merchandise.

There are twelve prisoners in Craven county jail, three of whom are lunatics.

The steamer Defiance sailed yesterday for Baltimore with a cargo of cotton, shingles, naval stores and lumber.

The most beautiful and well arranged soda fountain that has been in New Berne for some time is at John Dunn's confectionery store.

On our third page will be found a poem suggestive of the death of Mrs. Mary Bayard Clarke. It is written by a talented young lady of Lenoir county.

Hon. Chas. Sumner of Pennsylvania, in a speech on the silver question before the House of Representatives, quoted from our townsman, Mr. Wm. H. Oliver.

Nine boxes of peas were shipped per Shenandoah yesterday to New York. They were shipped, three by B. B. Lane, three by H. J. Lovick and three by J. A. Patterson.

Mrs. M. S. Smith has opened the Henderson House and put it in thorough repair and refurbished the rooms. She is thoroughly acquainted with boarding-house-keeping and her many old friends will be glad to see her card in this issue.

The change of gauge on the A. & N. C. R. was completed yesterday evening by a little after 10 o'clock p. m. The section hands will now be engaged in driving the remaining spikes and lining up the road. About the last of May they will begin putting in cross ties, and soon the summer schedule will be fixed.

Where shall the encampment of the State guard be held this summer, is the question now agitating the minds of some of our Eastern towns who want to put on a military appearance. Bro. Creecy and the Elizabeth City folk are anxious to have the boys with them but Morehead City was a little bit ahead and perhaps can show up some little advantages over "Betsy." They should go to Morehead City this summer and call on "Betsy" a year later.

Prohibition Convention at Trenton.
Rev. A. D. Betts informs us there was an error in the announcement last week as to the time of the prohibition convention to be held at Trenton. It is to be held on Saturday, May 8th, at 3 p. m. instead of on Thursday, as was published.

Entertainment at Harlowe.
Mr. J. S. Moreton, of Harlowe, dropped in to see us on yesterday and told us of a very nice entertainment given at his place last Wednesday night by Miss Minnie Vyne's school from near Havelock. The entertainment was for the benefit of the M. E. Church at Havelock and a handsome sum was realized for the purpose. Miss Vyne, we learn, is quite a successful teacher and Mr. Moreton speaks in the highest terms of the entertainment.

On to Morehead.
A large number of young ladies from Peace Institute, Raleigh, passed down to Morehead City on Thursday night. This reminds us that we have just received a neat pamphlet published by Cooke & Foster Brothers, descriptive of Morehead City as a seaside resort. These gentlemen will conduct the Atlantic Hotel this summer. Mr. Cooke is an experienced hotelier and will doubtless sustain the reputation made by the Atlantic during the last two years.

A New Berne Literary Venture.
We learn that the Western Sentinel will commence, in the first week in May, the publication of a work of fiction of Miss Eleanor Jones, of this city. Miss Jones is an amiable, popular, and gifted young lady, and has already won considerable reputation as a writer. Her longest story, "Miss Littlejohn," published a year or two ago, was spoken of in complimentary terms by many of our most prominent and cultivated citizens. We wish her a large measure of success in the literary field, especially because she is a New Berne lady, and whatever reflects credit upon her, will bring honor to her native town. All persons wishing to subscribe to the six months term of the Sentinel through which her story will run, can do so by giving their names and the subscription price of $1 to Mrs. Susan Stanley at her book store, or to Miss Jones herself.

"Pleasures from the Prose World"
Is a new book being introduced here by Miss Emma Beeton. It is a handsome work containing a careful compilation of selections from the most popular authors, also their portraits and biographies. It is published by Prof. Frank McAlpine, bound in cloth or morocco, and will make a valuable addition to any library.

Personal.
Mrs. Thomas M. Keerl with Mrs. Keerl and Miss Ann Donnell, are visiting relatives in the city.

Mrs. W. C. Kinsey and Mrs. Dr. Hammonds, of Jones, are in the city. Miss Mamie Allen, of Peace Institute, is home on a short visit.

Mr. James Thomas, son of Hon. C. R. Thomas, is home from Chapel Hill on a short visit.

The Hand-Book of North Carolina.
We have received a copy of a valuable book of the above title issued by the Agricultural Department of the State. It is a valuable compilation of statistics of the counties, and gives an intelligent description of the soil, products, timber and industries of each, and will be very useful to persons desirous of learning such particulars.

Ida Serven.
Only a few days before our theatre will be the place of a very handsome entertainment. Read notices from some of the leading newspapers of the country: "Ida Serven's readings are fine."—New York Herald. "Ida Serven is a novelty among elocutionists, both as a singer and reader."—New York Tribune. "Her singing is as delightful as her readings."—Waterbury Republican. "At Steinway Hall—'Pleased the audience mightily.'"—New York Times. "Manner amiable and winning—versatility wonderful—perfect naturalness, almost childlike."—Phila. Press.

Lady Farmers.
When a lady sets her mind to do a thing, it is apt to be done. This seems to be especially true in the matter of truck farming in the Beach Grove section of this county. A gentleman who was out that way a day or two ago had the pleasure of seeing Miss Maggie Richardson's truck farm on the Bellaire plantation, and he declares without hesitation that she has the best prospects for peas, potatoes, beans, etc., that he has seen anywhere. And for strawberries Mrs. Louise M. McIlvain in the same neighborhood, has fine prospects. And yet we hear young men say they are too poor to get married. We trust Miss Maggie will never have the luck to marry one of that sort.

Easter Egg Hunt.
The egg hunt will take place this afternoon at half past four o'clock in the Griffin school yard.

The omnibuses will commence running at half-past three o'clock from in front of Mr. William H. Oliver's and continue to run for an hour.

At half-past four o'clock the horn will be blown and the children turned in for the fun.

No charge will be made for riding in the omnibuses and only 10 cents admittance charged. We learn the young ladies who have it in charge have nearly 1,000 eggs ready.

This is one of the means of raising some money for Christ Church and we hope it will meet with success.

A Street Sprinkler.
The city of New Berne is feeding, we believe, six horses. The streets have been shelled at considerable cost, and now would it not be economy to put one of these horses to a dray with a hogshead of water and sprinkle the streets? Every man engaged in business pays a monthly license tax; he would like to derive some benefit from this investment, and we know of nothing that would benefit the merchants more just now than sprinkling the streets.

The water can be procured from Maj. Dennison at small cost, and a driver, by changing horses, could sprinkle over many miles of street in a day. Of course it would be impossible for one dray to carry water over more than one-tenth of the streets as often as it would be necessary, but the business portion of the city is where the most traveling is done and where the merchants suffer most from flying dust. We hope the matter will be brought to the attention of the board of council at their next meeting, and that a favorable consideration will be given the matter.

Official Timber.
Mr. Editor—Public sentiment and opinion among the Republicans of Craven county have agreed on the following named parties as their choice:

For Congress—(Have not agreed.)
For Solicitor—George H. White.
For Sheriff—D. Stinson.
For Treasurer—Isaac Patterson.
For Senator—W. E. Clarke.
For Representative—(Have not agreed.)

Clerk of Court—E. W. Carpenter.
For Register of Deeds—(Have not agreed, but think we will agree on R. Hancock, Jr.)

Yours,
LATELY

Dispatches announce that a conflict between the Greeks and Turks is hourly expected.

Ground has been broken at Wilmington, Del., for the erection of a morocco factory to be run on the co-operative plan.

Miss Amalia Morosini, the young lady recently bitten by a mad dog in New York, in company with her parents has left for Paris to be treated by Pasteur.

The ornamental stone carving on the Chicago court house continues to fall off. It is a great pity that so costly and magnificent a structure should thus be crumbling away.

It is thought that the price of ice this season will be considerably higher than last, owing to the poor harvest. The Hudson river crop alone is put at 500,000 tons shortage.

Jokes sometimes prove of a very serious nature. A Connecticut boy placed a pin in a chair to have some fun and now his victim is reported to be a dying condition, caused from the effects.

We are in receipt of the minutes of the tenth annual convention of the Y. M. C. A. of North Carolina. It is in neat pamphlet form of 20 pages, published by Stephen B. Weeks, Assistant Secretary of the Convention, and printed by Edwards, Broughton & Co.

An attorney of the Bar Association of Cincinnati has been expelled from that body on charges of having sought the nomination for a judgeship, seeking office of any kind being strictly forbidden by them. How many an aspirant would get left if this rule was carried out generally.

The Y. M. C. A. is doing a good work throughout the country, and business men are recognizing its importance by giving liberally to its support. While we are behind some of the Northern States in this work, yet the signs of progress in the South are abundant. At the recent convention $220 were pledged by the various Associations of the State and private individuals for the use of the State Executive Committee. They are to employ a traveling secretary for a part of the year who will visit, and examine into the work of the different associations, also organize new ones. The headquarters of the Executive Committee for the year 1886-'87 is at Chapel Hill. Rev. Thos. Hume, Jr., D. D., was elected President and Prof. J. W. Gore, Secretary.

Both Hands Up.
NEWAN, GA., June 4, 1885.
For over two years I have been a sufferer from Rheumatism, affecting both shoulders to such an extent that I could not put on my coat without help. The use of seven bottles of B. B. B. effected an entire cure. I refer to Rev. W. W. Wadsworth and all merchants of Newnan. JACOB SPONGLER.

Congressional Work.
SENATE—April 21.—Mr. Call offered a resolution, which on his motion was referred to the judiciary committee, directing that committee to inquire whether any legislation is necessary, and if so what, to require United States Courts when they take possession of railroad property in any State to carry into effect the obligations of the charter of incorporation granted by such State, and to prevent the violation of same by such courts and officers thereof, and waste and wrongful appropriation of the assets and receipts of such corporation in the interest of individuals.

In offering the resolution Mr. Call referred to his recent speech on Florida land grants, especially in connection with the Florida Railroad Co., in which speech he had commented on the course pursued by the United States Court, and the conduct of the receiver appointed by it. Mr. Call read a letter received by him from the receiver, which stated that the information on which some of Mr. Call's statements were founded was false and malicious. Mr. Call said he had no reason to suppose the receiver was not an honorable and truthful man, but was obliged to add that the gentleman from whom he (Call) had received the information was equally honorable and truthful, and if the judiciary committee should give the matter serious consideration.

The Senate took up and disposed of a number of private pension bills. By 3 o'clock four hundred of these bills had been passed, comprising all such bills on the calendar, with the exception of half a dozen.

A large number of bills of a private character were passed, and an executive session held, after which the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE—Mr. Hatch, of Mo., from the committee on Agriculture, reported a resolution calling on the commissioner of agriculture for information as to the amount of wheat and corn on hand in this country, where it is located, the number of acres of winter and spring wheat now in the ground, the amount likely to be required for exportation, and other information on the subject. Adopted.

In the morning hour the House resumed consideration of the bill for the relief of Alabama flood sufferers, and it was supported by Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, who thought the House was justified under precedents through humanity in giving relief.

Mr. Beach, of New York, while he was willing to put his hand in his own pocket for the relief of Alabama sufferers, was not willing to indulge his sympathy or benevolence by putting his hands into the pockets of others. It was time that a stop should be put to this kind of legislation, and it was the Democratic party which should put a stop to it.

The morning hour expired without action being taken on the bill, which resumes its place on the calendar. The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the River and Harbor Appropriation bill.

On motion of Mr. Markham, of Cal., the appropriation for a survey of San Francisco harbor, San Pablo bay, Suizun bay, and the mouths of the San Joaquin and Sacramento rivers, was reduced from $30,000 to $11,000. This was done in accordance with the recommendation of the supplementary report of the Chief of Engineers. Any number of amendments were offered for an increase of existing items or the insertion of new ones, but no others of the California kind. All were unsuccessful.

Mr. Negley, of Pa., raised the point order against the clause of the bill which directs the Secretary of War to negotiate for the purchase of the works of the Monongahela Navigation Company, or in the exercise of his discretion so acquire them by condemnation or seizure. A long and somewhat heated debate over this clause followed. Finally that portion of the clause was stricken out which gives the Secretary of War discretionary power to seize the works of the Navigation Company.

Pending further action the Committee rose, and the House at 5:30 adjourned.

Wonderful Cures.
W. B. Hoyt & Co., wholesale and retail druggists of Rome, Ga., say: We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Bucklen's Arnica Salve for two years. Have never handled remedies that sell as well, or give such universal satisfaction. There have been some wonderful cures effected by these medicines in this city. Several cases of pronounced Consumption have been entirely cured by use of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters. We guarantee them always. Sold by Hancock Bros.

Clippings.
The oldest merchant vessel afloat is said to be the bark True Love, which was built in Philadelphia in 1764, and is, therefore, 123 years old. She is still in active service, and is owned by J. S. Ward of London.

Henry Brewer of Irwinton, Ga., while waiting for a rabbit to run by which was chased by his dogs, was attacked by a mad dog. The boy had a light wood knot in his hand, and when the dog jumped at him he killed it with one blow.

A record kept in central Dakota shows that the past winter was unusually mild. There were but 33 days when the mercury stood at or below zero. The preceding winter had 53 such days, the one before 50, and in the winter of 1882-3 there were 91.

Six weeks ago John Miches of Parker, Ind., at the risk of his life saved several children that were with him in a wagon when his team ran away. The excitement and exertion unbalanced his mind, and on Thursday he killed himself with a revolver.

"Squire Bob Allison of Fairplay, Wis., was driving along the road the other day, when a couple stopped him and asked the way to 'Squire Allison's house.' 'I'm Allison,' said Bob; 'what do you want?' 'We want to get married,' said the man. 'All right,' said the 'Squire.' 'I'll do it right now,' and he did.

Bryant Waters of North Carolina, who in 1812 was a drummer in Company A, First North Carolina Regiment, and who is 95 years old, and blind, called on President Cleveland last week. The President made the veteran proud by saying that it was an honor to shake hands with him.

In 1878 the Rev. David Walk, a minister in the Christian Church, bought five acres of land in Kansas City for $1,500. He was a poor man, and he had hard work to keep the taxes paid on his land, but he did, and the other day was rewarded by selling for $68,500. Naturally, Kansas City is bragging about this.

An Enterprising, Reliable House.
Hancock Bros. can always be relied upon, not only to carry in stock the best of everything, but to secure the Agency for such articles as have well-known merit, and are popular with the people, thereby sustaining the reputation of being always enterprising, and ever reliable. Having secured the Agency for the celebrated Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will sell it on a positive guarantee. It will surely cure any and every affection of Throat, Lungs, and Chest, and to show our confidence, we invite you to call and get a Trial Bottle Free.

Pretty Nellie Dusey of Grand Rapids fell in love with a gambler named Hickock, and as she had $8,000 he married her. After spending her money he deserted her. She followed him, and the other day met him on the street in St. Paul. He roughly repulsed her, and she fell dead at his feet.

Mr. Thos. McDonald, of 56 Albemarle street, Baltimore, Md., recommends "Salvation Oil" with all his heart, for it rid him of rheumatism in his shoulder which he had been suffering with for many months. It cured him entirely.
