Fine Goods! No Bargains!

WE HAVE NO DRIVES; we tried selling common goods cheap last fall and found they did not at all suit our customers. So no more trash for us. We intend to sell only good goods at very low prices. We do not claim to have a monopoly of all the good or all the fine dry goods to be found in the city, but we do claim to carry many things in fine Dress Goods and Trimmings, and a thousand other things that ladies use which you cannot find in any other store.

We are running on Quality this season, and we are determined to sell our Customers Good Goods for Very Little Money.

We desire to sell the Ladies trade, and we intend to keep just the stock they need. Call and see us and send for samples. Anything you order from us is warranted.

If you have favored any other Store with the bulk of your trade, we do not ask you to desert them; only you may find some goods in our Store not obtainable elsewhere. If so, we would be glad to have a share of your patronage.

To our regular customers we would say we have just the goods for you this season. But no trash at catch-fly prices. No more of that for us. We intend to sell only the best goods that the trade will buy at ROCK BOTTOM PRICES. SMALL PROFITS will give you nice goods very cheap.

Please don't call on us for Bargains, Bargains, Bargains. We have none. Remember, we keep THE Store for Nice Goods at Rock Bottom Prices.

HANG IT, MARIA!

Why don't you buy my shirts ready-made? What's the use of wearing your eyes out over fine needle work, and breaking your back trying to save a few cents? I don't see the savin' of it. Why, you can buy shirts now-a-days for very little more than the cost of material. Look at this "DIAMOND" I've just bought. I say, Maria, I am going to buy a dozen more right away.

THE JOURNAL.

NEW BERNE, N. C., MAY 11, 1889.

Bro. Gardner on Revivalists: "I hold head in my hands," said Brother Gardner as the sneezing, coughing and shuffling died away in Paradise Hall, "a letter axin' how dis Lime-Kila Club stands on de Salvashun Army qeshun. It axes for an honest expression of my individual upinyun, an' darfore I shan't compromise any of de res' of you when I say:

"If a revivalist has got to d—yer eyes to save yer soul den dar's somethin' wrong wid othodox religion.

"If de way to Heaven am lined wid whoopin', howlin', screamin' men an' women I should reckon dat 'noas' of de chill'en would git scart and turn back.

"De man or woman who can't 'sperience a change of heart in a church congregashun of respectable people won't be very apt to hit it in a barracks half-filled wid loafers.

"It seems to be a good deal easier for pussons to believe dey hev a call to go out an' spread de gospel den for 'em to believe dey hev a call to make a livin' by day's work.

"If it has become necessary to scare a man into callin' hisself a Christian it am no wonder dat religion doan' pay back borrowed money any sooner dan older folks.

"If Sam Jones can convert men to Christ by a mixture of humor, pathos, farce an' sense, delivered in an ole barn, what's de use of our costly church edifices an' high-salaried vreachers?

"It am my opinyun dat ninetents of dese wanderin' revivalists will hev just as hard work to squeeze into Heaven as de average sinner.

"When you skeer a man into obeyin' de law you doan' make a law-abidin' citizen of him any mo' dan you make a Christian of a man whom you skeer into gittin' up in a crowd an' declarin' dat he am gwine to lib a different life."

A Bad Fix.

Thousands of men and women all over the country are silently miserable, while the outside world think you have no cause to grieve. But, ah! We pronounce no anathemas against any remedy, but we assert that one single bottle of B. B. B. will do more in the cure of any case of blood poison than twelve bottles of any other. Our book is free and it tells the tale. Address, BLOOD BALM CO., Atlanta, Ga. Sold in New Berne by R. N. Duffy and E. H. Meadows.

HE KNEW WHAT HE WANTED. —Brown—I say, Smith, what's the attraction up this way? I see you passing quite frequently.

Smith—Yes, six nights in the week, and twice on Sunday. There's a lady in the case, old man.

Brown—Ah, ha! I see. But six nights in the week and twice on Sunday is rather thick, isn't it? I found that twice a week was —

Smith—Yes, but you married a young lady. I'm courting a widow. I know what I'm about, old man.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. A man entered an asylum for inebriates, and asked, "Do you treat drunkards here?" "Yes, sir," replied the attendant. "Then show me the bar," he yelled, for I'm a drunkard!"

"When some deep and immedicable wound" takes your breath away, don't lie down in despondency, but send a boy with twenty-five cents to the nearest druggist for a bottle of Salvation Oil.
