Kinston Items.

James W. Hodges, sr., of Beaufort county, was in town on Wednesday, May 5th, having some dental work done.
W. B. Murrill and lady of Gum Branch, Onslow county, have been spending a short while with friends in town.

Park Nunn is spending a few days at home, much to the delight of a certain person who—well, it won't do to tell secrets.

Collins & Crabtree have put up a sign with the words "tin shop" on it. It is a model of neatness and their work is of like character.

S. H. Rountree, jr., closed out his stock of goods some weeks ago, and has taken the road, selling tobacco and cigars. Success to him in his new work.
The town commissioners met last evening and elected W. F. Stanly, Mayor. Our town is in the hands of successful business men, and we may feel secure.

Bill Arry was greeted by a full house on Wednesday night. He is a representative Southern man, a remarkable combination of wit, philosophy and good sense.

Capt. W. P. Midyette, of Hyde Co., formerly of our town, spent a short time with us last week. He reports a good come-up of corn, except that planted before the heavy rains.

Col. Pardee was in town last week. He visited the battle grounds near the county bridge, and other points of interest, and we hope he may be able to send some cheering words to his New England journal.

Mrs. Lizzie J. Walsh, wife of Dr. J. T. Walsh, died May 4th, after an illness of more than a year. Her sickness first seemed to develop itself in the form of dropsy, but later proved to be an internal cancer, which proved fatal. Many friends sympathize with the bereaved husband and children.

Who shall be our next board of commissioners is an important question about which we should think. "The man who can pay his debts with low taxes" is one answer given. "The man who can arrange to reduce our pauper list, and still give to those in real need" is another answer. It is much easier to find fault than to manage public business, and all that the public need to ask of the electing power is to give us honest, successful business men, and we can justly hope for the best.

A most brilliant marriage occurred at Salem church, Pitt county, May 5th, at 7:30 a. m. C. W. Howard was master of ceremonies, and Laurie J. Chapman and Miss Fannie Brooks the contracting parties. There were a large number of attendants. Indeed, it was the consummation of the single life of two of the gayest and most happy persons who have graced the social circles of this country; and doubtless the beginning of a devoted marriage relation having the best wishes of numerous friends for success and happiness. A reception was held at J. B. Gardner's, where the evening hours afforded pleasure to all, specially to those living in hopeful anticipation of the day when like scenes may be repeated and they become the chief actors.

Interesting Experiences.
Hiram Cameron, furniture dealer of Columbus, Ga., tells his experience, thus: "For three years have tried every remedy on the market for Stomach and Kidney Disorders, but got no relief, until I used Electric Bitters. Took five bottles and am now cured, and think Electric Bitters the best blood purifier in the world."—Major A. B. Reid, of West Liberty, Ky., used Electric Bitters for an old standing Kidney affection and says: "Nothing has ever done me so much good as Electric Bitters. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by Hancock Bros."

A Baltimore housewife found a living frog in a bottle of chow chow the other day. He was too big to get out through the neck of the bottle, and must have grown considerably during his confinement in his air-tight prison. The story is vouched for by a Baltimore newspaper.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. jan24dtuatwly
