BUSINESS LOCALS.

Just received, by Mrs. S. F. Stanly, a new supply of Royster's Choice Candies. Mrs. Dillingham's superior Ice Creams served daily at her rooms and furnished on reasonable terms for parties or festivals.

The ladies of Christ Church congregation will hold a Bazaar and Festival on this (Thursday) evening, May 13th, at the McLean building, beginning at 8 o'clock. There will be no charge for admission, and the public are cordially invited to attend. We can promise all a pleasant evening and much to gratify the eye and please the appetite. A "Mikado pagoda" with the "three little maids from school" will be among the attractions.

FRESH STRAWBERRIES every day at JOHN DUNN'S. 11 3t

The gardens are needing rain.

Remember the bazaar tonight.

The thermometer was well up in the eighties yesterday.

The indications are that this section will have a full crop of fruit this year.

No charge for admission to the bazaar tonight on the corner of Craven and Pollock.

The M. E. Sunday-school will picnic up Neuse river today. We wish them a pleasant trip.

The steamer Elm City arrived from Norfolk yesterday evening with a cargo of merchandise.

The steamer Defiance arrived yesterday from Baltimore with a cargo of general merchandise.

The street sprinkler is badly needed. What has become of the one in preparation a week or two ago?

At a meeting of the citizens of Goldsboro last Thursday night over two thousand dollars were subscribed to continue the graded school.

J. T. Hall & Bro. give notice that they are prepared to fix stoves. They have withheld notice in the JOURNAL for fear of being overrun with work; but now they are prepared for the rush.

The board of trustees of the New Berne Academy was in session yesterday evening. We learn that a plan for continuing the graded school was adopted. We hope the board will see fit to give it to the public soon, that the citizens of New Berne may know what to depend on for another year.

A dry goods clerk on Pollock street is greatly exercised as to the authorship of the following quotation: "An unthought-like thought, which is the soul of thought." He interprets its meaning to be "the pin point of reverie." Some reader may perhaps enlighten us by explaining not only the quotation but also the interpretation.

"Why don't you go for 'em for not having a street sprinkler," said one gentleman yesterday who was much annoyed by the clouds of dust that would fog in on him as the drays went dashing by. "The matter has been referred to the committee on streets and pumps with power to act," was the reply. The next question is, why don't they act.

Bazaar for Benefit of Christ Church.
Ample preparation is making for a grand bazaar tonight at the McLean store. All who go will have a good time. The ladies in charge are a sufficient guarantee. There will be a fine display of fancy articles, and also of delicacies, at reasonable prices. No admittance fee.

Attention, Sunday School!

We are requested to announce that the M. E. Church Sunday school will assemble at the church this morning at 7 o'clock and proceed to Slover's wharf, at the foot of Union street and at 8 o'clock will leave on the steamer Kinston with an additional boat in tow for Spring Garden on Neuse river, where the children and teachers, and old folks are expected to enjoy themselves enough for one year.

Personal.

Rev. R. A. Edwards, of Philadelphia, is in the city on a visit to relatives.

Dr. Charles Duffy, of Onslow, is in the city.

Mr. B. L. Perry, of Wilmington, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. J. F. Ives left yesterday morning for the North after goods.

Mr. D. H. Harrison, of Beaver creek, Jones county, is in the city. He reports a good crop of cotton in his section.

Mr. F. E. Farley, of Hick's Ford, Va., arrived last night.

The O'Hara Bean.

The notice of a bean 2½ inches long, shown at the JOURNAL office yesterday morning has brought from our job printer, Mr. R. R. Hill's garden, one four inches long and nearly grown. It is from seed sent us by Congressman O'Hara, from the agricultural department, and to our agreeable surprise seems to be a valuable variety, especially for early maturity. We have named it the "O'Hara" bean.

An Important Literary Undertaking that Should be Encouraged.

Rev. L. C. Vass was appointed by Orange Presbytery to prepare a history of New Berne Presbyterian Church; but the records were all lost at the fall of New Berne in 1863. So he has enlarged the scope of his work and embraced the local history of this section. He has been engaged for months in diligent search and wide correspondence to get light on a most obscure department of North Carolina history.

A visit to his study yesterday, which contains one of the most extensive private libraries in the State, revealed to us some knowledge of the work he is engaged in. He has prepared a condensed statement of the moral and ecclesiastical condition of the Eastern colony of North Carolina during its early settlement, and the proprietary government; early movements by the Baptists, Methodists, Quakers and Episcopalians; Presbyterian settlements and influence, and the classical scholars in the colony.

The work will contain a careful sketch of the settlement and history of New Berne from 1707 to 1823 giving much entirely new matter, also a history of the first Presbyterian church from its organization down to the present time. In fact, it will be full of information unknown to any New Bernian, except in fragments, and not to be obtained anywhere save in this book. It will be illustrated with portraits of several pastors of the Presbyterian church, a splendid picture of Tryon's palace and a full description, other illustrations of early scenes, and, if the subscriptions to the work justifies it, a fine lithograph of New Berne. Some of these illustrations have been prepared especially for this book. Others, one being a splendid steel engraving, Mr. Vass has obtained the use of. The engravings alone cost several hundred dollars.

Mr. Vass proposes to have this book printed if the community will subscribe enough to pay for it. It is not a money making scheme. He has spent many months in collecting material and corresponding with the older former residents of this city, and historians, some of them the most prominent in the country, but only desires to obtain subscriptions enough to pay the actual cost of publication. It will be a book of general interest, and every citizen who desires to have the history of the town in a permanent form should subscribe. We see in the manuscript the names of pioneer settlers, whose descendants live in Jones, Onslow and other adjoining counties as well as in Craven.

A Factory and a Public School Wrecked—Many Children Killed.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 11.—A fearful storm of wind and rain swept over this city today continuously from 11 o'clock till noon. The court-house, on Second street, was totally demolished above the second story. The Lathrop school building, on Eighth street, was partially wrecked, and many children were caught in the ruins. An overall factory on Second street was blown down. The old water-works building, near by, was blown down. At the Western Union telegraph office but one wire is working out of the city. Communication has been established with St. Louis over that wire by way of Dallas, Galveston, New Orleans and Memphis. One span at the north end of the railroad bridge across the river was blown into the river, blocking the Hannibal & St. Joseph, Rock Island, Wabash & Kansas City, St. Joe & Council Bluffs roads. Eight girls have been taken out of the overall factory, four of whom are dead. Many others are in the ruins, but there is scarcely any hope for their lives. In the confusion it is impossible to ascertain definitely the extent of the calamity, but it is said that over 20 employees are imprisoned in the basement of the factory. At 8 o'clock p.m., as nearly as can be learned amid the intense excitement and confusion, about twenty persons are known to be dead. At the Lathrop school 11 children are reported dead.

The storm, although entailing such a loss of life, was nothing of the nature of the tornado that visited the city three years ago. It was a violent wind, accompanied by a flood of water and some hail, which turned many streets into rivers. Black clouds rolled over the city, creating almost the darkness of night, and made timid people crouch in terror in cellars. The streets were entirely deserted.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. jan24thaw1w

BRIEFS.

Queen Victoria has taken quite a fancy to Miss Cleveland's book. Henry Irving's receipts since 1878 are said to be nearly $2,500,000.

The brass band contest at Savannah was won by a band from New Orleans. The public debt was reduced nearly eleven million dollars during the month of April.

The city of Baltimore has passed an ordinance to number their buildings on the decimal system.

Four more deaths have occurred at Chicago, caused from injuries received by the recent riots at that place.

A careful estimate shows that about 919,000 pianos have been made in the United States during the last century.

The Indians out West are becoming so turbulent that Gen. Miles has declared to open a vigorous campaign against them.

Cincinnati, the queen city, is not satisfied with her present beauty and is going to expend $4,000,000 in paving her streets with granite.

The casting of a fifty-four ton breech-loading rifled cannon at Boston was a complete success. It is thirty feet long and the metal was three weeks cooling off.

Japan is taking steps to prevent the further export of adulterated teas. It is to her interest if she does not wish to lose her American trade, as experiments have proven that it can be grown here.

M. E. CHURCH SOUTH.

RICHMOND, May 10.—In the M. E. General Conference today Dr. M. B. Chapman, of Missouri, introduced a preamble and resolution in relation to the Confederation of the Methodist Episcopal Church South and the Methodist Episcopal Church North. The preamble sets forth in substance that the two churches have a common history and preach the same truths; therefore, that this General Conference shall elect a committee of seven, four of whom shall be clerical and three lay delegates, who shall meet a like committee from the Northern Methodist Church in 1888, looking to the reunion of the two churches. The resolution further sets forth that it is a sin and folly for two Methodist churches to occupy the same territory.

Dr. Chapman, in his earnest advocacy of this resolution, said that in his State the sin and folly of the matter had been observed; that he has seen in a small town of 400 or 500 inhabitants, two Methodist churches raising altar against altar—a waste of men and money and a waste of the forces of our christianity. The brethren in the South, he argued, have not this thing to contend with, and know nothing of the clash which is met with in the West, and know nothing of the facts in relation to the segregation of Methodism, which is going on under the present state of affairs. Continuing, Dr. Chapman said we who have seen this state of things are tired of this waste of men and money. Where the Northern Methodist Church is in the ascendancy we are dying by inches, and where we are in the ascendancy that church is dying by inches.

Dr. Whitehead, of Virginia, was in favor of referring the matter to the Committee on Fraternal Correspondence. The question was discussed at some length, and finally was referred to a special committee, to be composed of one from each Annual Conference.

Another important matter, looking in the same direction, was reference to an appropriate committee the preparation of a common hymnal that may be used by all different bodies of Methodism in the country.

The Committee on Itinerary, to which was referred the memorial from Louisville and Denver Conferences, that provision be made for the appointment of Evangelists, recommended nonconurrence.

Dr. Adams, of Ga., thought that Sam Jones and other such men should have nominal appointments.

Dr. Messick, of Louisville, strongly supported the report of the committee and was in favor of allowing the system of evangelism to stand as it is. He very forcibly contended that the Church did not want specialists on the subject; that every Methodist preacher is equally qualified to save souls. In the name of Methodism he protested against such an innovation, and when he concluded there was a hearty "amen."

Dr. Neely, of Texas, said that these evangelists, as far as he knew, were running on the plan of religion made easy. In the name of the Methodist Church and of our Church of God, he hoped that the measure would fail.

Dr. Winfield, of Arkansas, said that if the memorial is adopted every gum log in Methodism can and will be an evangelist in the next five years. "Do you know what a gum log is?" the Dr. asked; "it is one you can't do anything with. When I was in Europe with Bishop Wilson we were shown a certain kind of tree called feminine oak. You can't split it or do anything with it. It is just like a woman—when she will she will, and you can't do anything with her. There is but one Sam Jones in the world, and there will never be but one, and every little fellow that tries to be like Sam Jones will fail. You can make you can have but one, and if you attempt to duplicate him you will surely fail." [Laughter.]

He has turned Chicago upside down, and any man who has the courage to attack Chicago cannot be duplicated. He is being heard in Baltimore. He is the man of the century. We don't want any evangelists among Southern Methodists. We have already the grandest machinery in the world. Brethren, I'll tell you what is the matter. You go along lifeless and dead. Rekindle the fire in your own churches, for it is time Methodist ministers were looking this matter in the face.

Mr. McFerran spoke at length. He did not wish Sam Jones to be an evangelist of Georgia alone; did not wish to clip his wings, but give him the whole country.

Mr. McPhelan, of Ky., was opposed to erratic missionaries, and several other delegates took the same ground.

After a lengthy and interesting discussion of the matter the substitute was rejected, and the report of the committee was adopted by an almost unanimous vote.

The Conference then adjourned.

La Grange Items.

Our town is to vote on Local Option Monday, 7th of June.

Charley Ivey and Miss Annie Herron were married in Bucklesbury last week. Services at the M. E. Church last Sunday and Sunday night by Rev. W. E. Swain.

Brad Brown has been confined to his home on account of sickness for several days. We are glad to see him out again.

H. E. Dillon and W. S. Field represent this Lodge I. O. O. F. in the Grand Lodge, in session in Goldsboro this week.

"Dull times" is the complaint among merchants, farmers and all other employments. Imagination has much to do with these complaints.

The board of town commissioners met last week and elected H. E. Dillon, Mayor. At this meeting last Monday night G. A. Pitts was elected policeman.

A colored man, Davis was found to be crazy last Sunday on our streets. He has been kept under watch and efforts will be made to have him placed in the Insane Asylum at Goldsboro.

We have not learned if our farmers are having good stands of cotton. The heavy cool rain prevented the coming up as soon as it otherwise would. The stand of corn is said to be good.

We are glad to know that Capt. W. H. Rogerson has found employment as conductor on the A. & N. C. R. Mr. Rogerson was in the employ of the road for several years, and has a good reputation as an officer.

The brick work of Taylor & Britt's is complete, and the wood work is going on as fast as possible. The foundation for Kinsey's store is laid and as soon as the work settles it will be pushed to completion. We see lumber being piled in front of Dillon's preparatory, we suppose, to building his new brick warehouse. These things indicate a healthy financial condition, and disposition on the part of the merchants to "stick."

We are indebted, though rather late in acknowledging, to Jefferson Davis, Esq., of the graduating class at Trinity College for an invitation to attend the class presentation, which came off the 7th inst. Mr. Davis presented the class. We are also indebted to K. S. Uzzell for an invitation to be present at the commencement exercises of the University of N. C. June 2d and 3d. Address by Hon. Aug. Van Wyck, of Brooklyn; sermon by Rev. C. H. Hall, D. D., New York. Thanks to these young gentlemen for kind remembrance.

A Bad Fix.

Thousands of men and women all over the country are silently miserable, while the outside world think you have no cause to grieve. But, ah! We pronounce no anathemas against any other remedy, but we assert that one single bottle of B. B. B. will do more in the cure of any case of blood poison than twelve bottles of any other. Our book is free and it tells the tale. Address, BLOOD BALM CO., Atlanta, Ga. Sold in New Berne by R. N. Duffy and E. H. Meadows.

Kinston Items.

Our town has a barber shop with four chairs. Lewis Green has recently moved in with Willis, near the postoffice and they are well prepared for a rush.

The S. S. picnic excursion from Kinston to New Berne on Monday, May 10th, was enjoyed by all, and it is regretted that there was not room for all who desired to go.

A. E. S. Lindsey has been spending several days in Kinston, his previous home. He now makes headquarters at Goldsboro, as general manager of the Singer Company in Eastern Carolina.

D. W. Davis, Christian Evangelist in Jones and Onslow counties, is spending a few days in town, attending the series of meetings held at the Christian church by Ashley S. Johnson, of Knoxville, Tenn. One was baptized on Sunday and five on Tuesday afternoon by H. C. Bowen, of the Christian church.

Decoration Day

At the National Cemetery, May 30th.

All persons interested in the observance of this day, will please meet at the store of Maj. Palmer, on Thursday next the 13th inst., at 4 o'clock p. m. to make arrangements for the occasion, and order of the day.

On the 30th, the public is cordially invited to attend at the cemetery at 5 p. m.

His Bones Protruded Through the Flesh.

A prominent Alabama physician said: "A patient who was almost dying from the effects of Tertiary Syphilis and who had been treated by several noted physicians without benefit, used one dozen bottles of B. B. B. and was entirely cured. He had ulcers on his arms, and the bones protruded through the flesh and skin at the elbow, and death seemed inevitable."

Sold in New Berne by R. N. Duffy and E. H. Meadows.
