HE GOT HIS CUSTOMER.—The following story is told of an enterprising New York jobber, the events having taken place some years ago: The merchant in question, having heard of the arrival of a country trader who was known to be a large purchaser and of unquestionable credit, was resolved to get him to visit his establishment, and, once there, he felt sure he could secure him as a customer. He accordingly sent out one of his drummers, of whom he had quite a number, adapted to every taste and disposition. The one sent, however, returned without success. No. 2 was dispatched, with no better success, and again No. 3, and so on, until all had gone and come back without their man.

The merchant now determined to go himself, and finding that brandy and water and free tickets to the theatre were of no avail, for the country trader did not take one or go to the other, he was reduced to the necessity of employing a ruse, which, as the sequel shows, was simple as well as effectual. On taking his departure, after a pleasant interview, the merchant took care to commit the "mistake" of taking the trader's hat instead of his own. Next morning, as was expected, the merchant received a prompt visit at his store from the country trader, who called to look up the hat which he supposed had been hurriedly exchanged. This was what the merchant wanted, and through this means sold a good bill of goods and secured a regular customer.—Dry Goods Reporter.

Interesting Experiences.

Hiram Cameron, furniture dealer of Columbus, Ga., tells his experience, thus: "For three years have tried every remedy on the market for Stomach and Kidney Disorders, but got no relief, until I used Electric Bitters. Took five bottles and am now cured, and think Electric Bitters the best blood purifier in the world."—Major A. B. Reid, of West Liberty, Ky., used Electric Bitters for an old standing Kidney affection and says: "Nothing has ever done me so much good as Electric Bitters. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by Hancock Bros."

Elderly gentleman (to little boy who is buying candy)—"My young friend, don't you think that, instead of spending all the pennies you get, it would be better to put some of them away for a rainy day?" Little Boy—"Naw. What is the good of money on a rainy day? Ma never lets me stir out of the house."

Mr. Charles Raith, watchmaker and jeweler, Baltimore and Mount streets, Baltimore, Md., says: "I have been suffering excruciating pain caused by spraining my left ankle, and have been unable to obtain any decided relief or to walk right. I was advised by a friend to try Salvation Oil, which I did, and to my astonishment and delight after trying it I am able to use my left foot and leg as well as my right. It didn't take half a bottle to accomplish this. It also cured my rheumatic troubles."

"Mamma," said Johnnie, "can anybody hear with their mouth?" "No, child, I don't think they can," replied the mother. "Then, mamma, what made Mr. Jones tell sister he wanted to tell her something and put his lips to her mouth instead of her ear?"

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

"Why, Franky," exclaimed a mother at the summer boarding-house, "I never knew you to ask for a second piece of pie at home." "I knew 'twan't no use," said Franky, as he proceeded with his pie-eating.

DUFFY'S COLUMN.

BARGAIN—A gainful or satisfactory transaction.—Webster.

We repeat with emphasis, everything formerly mentioned in this column calling attention to the many "Bargains" with which our store is packed from the bottom to the top, and after reading the above definition of this much discussed word, we hope, if you want "gainful or satisfactory transactions," that you will visit our "Bargain Store." We invite the public to inspect, compare, and judge for themselves, quality at all times considered.

We have cheap or low-priced goods for those wanting goods of such character, and medium or fine goods for those wanting such kinds, but do not discriminate against any class of trade. Our store is for the public, and we at all times welcome any in search of Bargains. As to competition with the "large and imposing houses that are in our city," we would say that our building is much smaller than we would like it to be, but if you compare what is in it, with other stores, think you will decide that goods with us are abundant.

We are grateful and thankful for past favors, and a continuance of your valued patronage is most earnestly solicited.

FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY:

Good quality 4-4 Bleached Domestic for 6 1-2 cents, worth 8 cents.

TORCHON Laces, 12 cents for 12 yards.

Our Shoe stock is now complete.

Come to see us for all kinds of Goods, and we will satisfy you. Samples furnished upon application.

SATURDAY, we propose to give you a drive in Men's, Youth's and Boy's Straw Hats. If you want a Straw Hat, you can save about one-third by buying from us.

Respectfully submitted,
H. B. Duffy.
