Thieves Enter in and Steal.

Mr. John B. Reel writes us from near Grantsboro that thieves entered his premises last Friday night and took from a small ware-house, adjacent to his store, which he had carelessly left unlocked, a barrel of pork and a barrel of flour and carried them off on a horse cart and he has not been able to trace it. He thinks this news ought to be published in order to warn of the consequence of carelessness.

Wildcat Dogs.

News comes to the JOURNAL office that Mr. Bryant Huffman, living at the head of Hominy swamp, near Richlands, Onslow county, has the champion wildcat dogs in this whole section. One night last week his two dogs went out and chased a wildcat to a tree when, young Huffman, the blacksmith—and a good one, too—went out, and with the assistance of the dogs, succeeded in killing six of the varmints. A good night's work for a blacksmith and two dogs.

Ranaway.

A mule, yesterday evening, started at a gentle pace to move up the street from the Old Dominion wharf with his dray, no driver and only impeded by a yellow dog which vigorously resisted his passage. At the corner of South Front street a post attempted to aid the dog in the impediment, which aroused his mulishness to a full determination to run, which he did down South Front, and in doing so came near running over a number of ladies on the sidewalk. Fortunately they escaped and but little damage was done.

The commencement season is at hand, and the invitation cards, as usual, are gotten up in neat and attractive style.

Norman Porter's Wound Not Fatal.
MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 17.—The physician who attended Norman Porter says Porter left here on the morning after he was out that his wound was not serious enough to prevent his attending to his duties as sleeping-car conductor. He was not in Montgomery at all when Mr. Davis spoke, being in Atlanta before the procession started from the hotel.

An End to Bone Scraping.
Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven bottles of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well." Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box by Hancock Bros.

A Doctor's Woes.

Crawfordsville, Ga., June 11, '85.
For ten years I have been suffering with muscular rheumatism. Patent medicines and physicians' prescriptions failed to give relief. Last summer I commenced the use of B. B. B., and experienced partial relief before using one bottle. I continued its use and gladly confess that it is the best and quickest medicine for Rheumatism I have ever tried and cheerfully recommend it to the public.

The long and much talked of case of Mrs. J. H. Fields for a charged offence against the rules of P. B. Church, came to an end last Wednesday in this place. The offence, as we are reliably informed, consisted in Mrs. Fields giving his guests a party, or dance, last Christmas for which Mrs. Fields was cited to appear before the church. The case was disposed of the first of this month as we learned, but last week Mrs. F. received another notice to appear and answer, but positively refused, and declined to remain longer in fellowship of the church.

M. E. CHURCH SOUTH.
RICHMOND, May 15.—In the M. E. General Conference today, Rev. H. C. Phillips, fraternal delegate from the African M. E. Church Conference now in session at Augusta, Ga., was presented, and addressed the conference.
Rev. Sam Jones and Sam Small, evangelists, attended the conference today. Various memorials were presented for and against a division of the North Carolina conference. Referred to committee.

A resolution was offered that Sunday school superintendents be not allowed to serve more than four years. Also, a resolution to appoint mission evangelists. Both were referred.

A prolonged discussion was had over a resolution that acceptable matter for publication in the advertising columns of the Christian Advocate (the organ of the Church) be not refused because of the unfriendliness, real or supposed, of the parties seeking to advertise. The resolution was finally referred to a committee.

Rev. Mr. Briggs, of Canada, delivered a farewell address to the conference, in which he uttered the most cordial expressions of fraternal love and friendship. Bishop Hargrove (presiding) responded, reciprocating the pleasure expressed in the visit.
