BUSINESS LOCALS.

Just received, by Mrs. S. F. Stanly, a new supply of Royster's Choice Candies. Mrs. Dillingham's superior Ice Creams served daily at her rooms and furnished on reasonable terms for parties or festivals. mal 13 im

The tide was quite low yesterday. The civil docket will be taken up in our Superior Court next Monday.

Rodgers, the keeper of Craven street hotel, now entertains twenty-one guests at the expense of the county.

The board of trustees of New Berne Academy will meet this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the office of the President.

Congressman J. E. O'Hara was attending court yesterday and was of counsel for Cooper & Harrell in an indictment for keeping a disorderly house.

A box containing sixty-five books, presented to the Graded School Library by Prof. Edward Graham Daves, has been received. This is the third collection of books Prof. Daves has sent, and we are sure his kindness is fully appreciated by the good people of New Berne.

The lines on the Presbyterian picnic were sent us several days ago, but the proceedings of the Medical Society caused them to be laid aside at the time and they were overlooked for a day or two. We doubt not they will be read with interest by the children and others who attended.

An enthusiastic listener to W. W. Clark, Esq., while he was vigorously prosecuting Cooper & Harrell for keeping a disorderly house yesterday was requested to deposit twenty dollars with the clerk of the court, which he did very gracefully. People have a right to think while attending court, but they must not think loud.

The M. E. Sunday-school at Brice's creek, in this county, will hold their annual picnic at Riverdale on Saturday, the 29th. Drs. J. W. Saunders and E. L. Perkins have been invited to deliver lectures. The Havelock Sunday-school is expected to join them, and all others who will carry a well-filled basket. Speaking, singing, sailing, etc., will be the pleasures of the day, and a good dinner, if the baskets are not forgotten.

All Rail Route.
The A. & N. C. R. has made arrangements to take watermelons through to Northern markets by the rail route. This will be quite an advantage to the melon raisers in this section.

Schooner Arrivals.
The Mary S, Capt. Jim Berry, from Lake Comfort, with a cargo of corn.
The Havana, Capt. Spencer, from Engelhard, with cattle and corn.
The Marietta, Capt. X. Payne, from Middleton, with a cargo of corn.

Change of Schedule.
The summer schedule on the A. & N. C. R. will go into effect next Monday. The train will arrive here from Goldsboro at 7:49 and leave for Morehead at 8 o'clock. Going West, it will arrive here from Morehead City at 8:26 a. m. A freight train will be put on to Morehead City, which will leave New Berne at 4 p. m. on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.
There will probably be some irregularity in running this schedule or in making connections for the first week or two on account of the change of gauge on the R. & D.

Defying the Law.
"Taxpayer" in a communication published elsewhere demands that the county treasurer be compelled to conform to the law in regard to posting his monthly statements of receipts and disbursements of county funds.

From what we know personally of the treasurer of Craven county, and the esteem in which he is held by the people of New Berne and the county, we have not the least doubt that an examination of his accounts will show that they are all right and that he stands perfectly fair and square with the county. But the humblest taxpayer in the county has a right to insist on obedience to this law. If it is a bad law, or an unnecessary law, the General Assembly should repeal it, and the best way to bring it to the attention of the General Assembly is to enforce it. For a county officer to continually neglect to comply with a law after his attention has been repeatedly called to it, is, to say the least, setting a bad example.

The Superior Court.
Court convened yesterday morning promptly at 9:15 o'clock. The following cases were disposed of:

State vs. Albert Jones and Francis Jones; larceny; not pros as to Albert; jury not agreed as to Francis.

State vs. M. Hahn, Sheriff; allowing prisoners to escape. The defendant asked for continuance upon the ground that a material witness was absent. The State insisted on a trial. Defendant filed an affidavit for continuance; counsel for the State admitted the affidavit for the purposes of the trial. While the jury was being called, defendant's counsel moved to quash the bill of indictment upon the ground that one of the grand jurors who found the bill had a civil suit pending in the court when he was sworn as a grand juror. Upon examination of the records, the motion was allowed. The ineligible grand juror was discharged and a new bill immediately sent before that body.

The juror was a co-defendant in a suit brought in 1881, in which there were over one hundred other defendants and had forgotten all about it when sworn as a grand juror.

State vs. Harrell & Cooper; disorderly house; not guilty.

State vs. Harrell & Cooper; selling liquor on Sunday; not guilty. A motion to tax prosecutors with cost was denied.

Court took a recess to this morning at 9 o'clock.

Personal.
Messrs. John Bell, J. V. Williams, Hardy B. Lane and T. A. Green left yesterday morning for the New Berne District Conference of the M. E. Church, which convened at Kinston yesterday.

Mr. J. C. Wooten, jr., was in the city yesterday. He has been appointed railroad agent at Kinston and will take charge the 1st of June. It is a good appointment.

Defying the Law.
EDITOR JOURNAL:—From appearance and conduct, it seems that the county treasurer (D. N. Kilburn) does not intend to comply with the law requiring him to post a monthly statement of his receipts and disbursements of county money coming into his hands, and that there is a disposition on the part of some to screen or justify that officer in his stubbornness and willful refusal to perform the duties devolving upon him. It is almost a notorious fact that he has not, within the past two years and more, posted these monthly statements, and it is a topic of common conversation with officers and people of Craven county, and the charge of neglect is not even denied by that officer. Shall he be permitted to violate the law any longer?

No one (except the county commissioners) know any more about his business as county treasurer than they do of any private citizen's. We trust the grand jury now in session will take the matter in hand before they adjourn and compel that officer to comply with the duties of his office, or find out the real cause of this gross misconduct. Other persons are being convicted and punished for minor offences, and we do not see why he should go unpunished in the face of so many violations of the law by him. TAX-PAYER.

May 27, 1886.

M. E. CHURCH SOUTH.

RICHMOND, VA., May 25.—The Methodist Conference today passed a resolution that the Bishops be requested to put foreign missions in their regular annual visitations, leaving, however, such visits discretionary with them.
The Conference commended the Woman's missionary work by a unanimous vote.
Dr. McFerrer offered a resolution requesting that his protest against a change in the ritual, as reported yesterday, be entered on the Journal. The change referred to was concerning the order of the ritual in the baptism of children.
After considerable discussion, various other members signed the protest with Dr. McFerrer, and a resolution was adopted that the Bishops be requested to examine the ritual with a view to a change, and to report to the next General Conference.

The question of the place for holding the next General Conference was referred to a special committee, to report at their option through the Church papers.
A committee of five was appointed to select from the calendar such business for consideration by the Conference as may be deemed most important.
A resolution was adopted, authorizing the appointment by the Bishops of an assistant editor of the Christian Advocate; also authorizing the editor to draw on the book agent for $2,500 annually to pay corresponding.

Fire at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 26.—A disastrous fire occurred in a large brick and stone structure here early this morning. The loss will approximate $1,000,000. Among the principal losers are the publishers, Belford, Clarke & Co., and a large book bindery firm, Donahue & Hennebury. Next door was a fire-story building owned by O. A. Slaughter and occupied by the Furniture Firm of E. Deibel & Co. This firm was burned out. The most exciting part of the fire was a panic which occurred among the guests of the hotel Brunswick, directly opposite the burned block. The heat was so intense that every pane of glass in front of the hotel was broken. The guests became alarmed, and not stopping to dress themselves, fled from the hotel. Several firemen were badly injured.

Heavy Increase in Revenue.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The revenues of the government for this month are nearly $16,000,000 in excess of the expenditures during the same period, and the treasury officials are encouraged to believe there will be a comparatively large decrease in the public debt—about $12,000,000.

THE PRESBYTERIAN PICNIC.

Hark! was that the steamer Kinston whistle.
The sound I wish to hear, I say,
For the Presbyterian picnic
Will leave New Berne this very day.

So we will grab our baskets
And hasten to the foot of Metcalf street,
With light hearts and happy faces,
For our enjoyment will be complete.

Sailing up Trent river
Is a treat indeed;
Our little ones are happy
As we old ones take the lead.

Yes, that was the steamer whistle,
To remind us the day has come
For the Presbyterians to have their picnic,
To be enjoyed by every one.

Do let us grab our baskets
And go down in great haste,
One moment of this nice time
We really should not waste.

I got on the boat in time
And went and took my seat,
And waited very patiently
For our number to be complete.

Now we are sailing up the river
Enjoying the beautiful scene:
The woods they look so beautiful,
The banks so fresh and green.

The crowd it is so pleasant,
With Seymour, Stimson and Brown,
I know there never was a better crowd
That ever left this town.

We had a Smallwood, Lane, Allen and Vass.
All came with their baskets well packed,
Hollister, Holton, Slover, Eaton and Ives
Came with their bonnie wives.

Then came Claypool, Kilburn, Ellis and Foy.
With Moore, Erdmann, Miller and Jones, this day to enjoy.

Jordan, Wood, Dennison, Hancock and Bryan
All expecting to have a very nice time.

When we arrived at Foy's Mills,
A sight we did enjoy,
A band of black, shining faces
For a while our minds employed.

The best thing at Foy's Mills, you see
Plenty of water was desired,
In this pretty, romantic spot,
This cooling spring was our main prop.

You could see on every side
Young girls with bright faces;
I must not tell tales out of school,
But the lovers were in their places.

The crowd's expectations were realized.
For the day was as fine as we could desire,
Our table loaded with all that was good,
Plenty ham, chickens and pies.

The universal exclamation was,
What a splendid time we have had;
Going on a Presbyterian picnic
Is anything but bad.

Then to see the ladies
Putting on such airs;
Heads turned aside and mouth in prim,
Looking like they were ready to sing.

But I was sailing up the Trent;
The scenery was so grand
Made me very willing
These little airs to stand.

For I had left mine all at home
So as to have a day of fun;
It proved to be a joyful day
For me, and every one.

Mr. Miller was our mainstay;
He trotted all around
And watched both old and young.
So afraid they would get drowned.

Now sailing up the Trent river,
Enjoying all the sights,
With pleasant company all around,
I did not get tired until night.

The lemonade was refreshing
Mr. Ives handed me,
And I thought at that time
He was the cleverest man I could see.

In fact they are all as polite a set
As you wish to see.
The Presbyterians, I must say,
Is the very crowd for me.

Even when a stranger comes,
We reach out heart and hand
And give them a hearty welcome.
To join our little band.

It was a great pity
Our preacher was not there,
So we had to eat our good things,
With him we could not share.

So you see a picnic
Is a thing we should not dread,
As we all got home in time
To go to our little beds.

Saved His Life.

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., says he was, for many years, badly afflicted with Phthisic, also Diabetes; the pains were almost unendurable and would sometimes almost throw him into convulsions. He tried Electric Bitters and got relief from first bottle, and after taking six bottles was entirely cured and had gained in flesh eighteen pounds. Says he positively believes he would have died, had it not been for the relief afforded by Electric Bitters. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by Hancock Bros.

BRIEFS.
A bronze statue of Schiller has just been dedicated at Chicago.

Miss Polson has been driven to say that she will not marry President Cleveland.

Last year nearly 300,000,000 stamped envelopes were sold by the United States postoffice department.

A water spout in Washington county, Va., destroyed the residence of David Whitaker and drowned one person.

Two of the three men who were injured by the explosion of powder at the Sody mines near Chattanooga, Tenn., Monday, have since died.

The Christian Home of New York says: "Of the sixty-eight married men received in this home during the last year, two-thirds of that number had been separated from their families on account of their drinking habits."

So numerous and appalling have the atrocities committed by the Apache Indians in the Territories become, that Gen. Miles has offered a reward of $50 for every one captured and $2,000 for Geronimo, their chief.

On June 1st the change of gauge on the entire system of Southern railroads will be made from five feet to four and nine inches, making it uniform throughout the United States. There are 16,000 miles of track to be changed and it is thought that 14,000 of this number will be completed the first day. The very next day cars can be run without change of trucks or bulk on every road from Maine to Texas and from California to North Carolina. It will be the most stupendous and important railway event that has ever transpired.

Marvelous.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 3, 1884.
One of my customers, Mrs. L. Williams, has been using B. B. B. a short time and reported to me that its effects were simply marvelous, and that it far surpasses all other blood remedies she had used, and that she could heartily sanction anything said in its favor, as it has given her more relief than anything she had ever used before.

Sold in New Berne by R. N. Duffy and E. H. Meadows.

Railroad Accident.

ROUND KNOB, N. C., May 24.—The following is a correct statement of the disaster at Mill creek, near Round Knob: A new truss bridge of 110 feet span had but a short while been completed across Mill creek, and today, as freight train No. 4 approached the bridge, the first car next to the engine was derailed by a broken wheel. As the train ran on the bridge the broken truck ripped up the guard rail and knocked out a portion of the main braces, which caused a complete wreck of the structure, and nineteen cars, most of which were loaded with coal, were spilled into the creek.

Engineer Kirby had his leg broken just above the knee. The train was under full control and running very slowly. The train hands on top saw the cars going into the stream, and all jumped off, without the slightest injury. A force of hands was soon at work removing the freight and clearing the debris, and in less than two hours after the disaster a force of hands was sawing and framing another bridge to get the trains across. From what I can learn the railroad authorities expect to have the bridge rebuilt by Wednesday noon, although it looks as if it would require a week to clear away the broken cars. The passengers were transferred today.—Charlotte Observer.

Great Chicago Strike!

It is generally known throughout the whole country that large strikes are being made among the laboring classes in some of our largest cities, such as Chicago, Philadelphia and New York. Some have been wounded for life and some have lost their lives. The question now arises, what shall be done to keep the peace in Eastern North Carolina? The farmer cannot afford the eight hour system at the present prices of produce, neither is the laboring man satisfied with the present prices of labor. Some relief must be had; something must be done; and some one must come to the front and devise some scheme by which the people may be relieved from such a tyrannical oppression. In view of the foregoing facts, and in the absence of any relief from other sources, we suggest that the quickest and most satisfactory way of keeping down strikes and dissensions among the laboring classes of Eastern North Carolina is to make the prices of goods and supplies in conformity to low wages, and in making the suggestion we hereby announce to the public that we propose to act upon it, and direct everybody, laboring classes and all, to the great cheap cash store of Humphrey & Howard, where they will find a large and complete stock of groceries and dry goods at strike prices. The most vital strike in life is the strike for ways and means which guarantees you perfect satisfaction at the least cost; the strike then for the great cheap cash store of Humphrey & Howard will certainly obtain for you the lowest possible prices, thereby alleviating all past troubles and guaranteeing you peace, prosperity and happiness in the future.—m264wlm

Miraculous Escape.

W. W. Reed, druggist, of Winchester, Ind., writes: "One of my customers, Mrs. Louisa Pike, Barton, Randolph Co., Ind., was a long sufferer with Consumption, and was given up to die by her physicians. She heard of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and began buying it of me. In six months' time she walked to this city, a distance of six miles, and is now so much improved she had quit using it. She feels she owes her life to it." Free trial bottles at Hancock Bros.'
