Fine Goods! No Bargains!

WE HAVE NO DRIVES; we tried selling common goods cheap last fall and found they did not at all suit our customers. So no more trash for us. We intend to sell only good goods at very low prices. We do not claim to have a monopoly of all the good or all the fine dry goods to be found in the city, but we do claim to carry many things in fine Dress Goods and Trimmings, and a thousand other things that ladies use which you cannot find in any other store.

We are running on Quality this season, and we are determined to sell our Customers Good Goods for Very Little Money.

We desire to sell the Ladies trade, and we intend to keep just the stock they need. Call and see us and send for samples. Anything you want is warranted.

If you have favored any other Store with the bulk of your trade, we do not ask you to do so any longer; only you may find some goods in our Store not obtainable elsewhere. If so, we would be glad to have a share of your patronage.

To our regular customers we would say we have just the goods for you this season. But no trash at catch-fy prices. No more of that for us. We intend to seek only the best goods that the trade will buy at ROCK BOTTOM PRICES. SMALL PROFITS will give you nice goods very cheap.

Please don't call on us for Bargains, Bargains, Bargains. We have none. Remember, we keep THE Store for Nice Goods at Rock Bottom Prices.

THE JOURNAL.

NEW BERNE, N. C., JUNE 5, 1886.

MA. newspaper paragraph says that "some parts of Georgia are infested by deer and wild turkeys that the people have to drive them out of their fields to protect their crops." To sportmen in thickly settled communities—Massachusetts, for instance—this statement of the condition of game in Georgia must afford a splendid vision. Massachusetts is the land where people came to speak of going "hunting" instead of going "shooting," because the sport there really was hunting, with little firing, and consequently little shooting, to reward it. The old commonwealth has become measurably restocked under the game laws of recent years, but the term "hunting" still holds good, even when you are only going after meadow-larks.

An Enterprising, Reliable House.

Hancock Bros. can always be relied upon, not only to carry in stock the best of everything, but to secure the agency for such articles as have well-known merit, and are popular with the people, thereby sustaining the reputation of being always enterprising and ever reliable. Having secured the Agency for the celebrated Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will sell it on positive guarantee. It will surely cure any and every affection of Throat, Lungs, and Chest, and to show our confidence, we invite you to call and get a Trial Bottle Free.

New Store! New Goods!

Bargains! Bargains!

I wish to inform my friends and the public in general, that I have just returned from the Northern Markets, where I have purchased a

Very Large and

Well Assorted

Stock of Dry Goods,

Clothing, Boots,

Shoes, Hats, Caps,

And everything you can call for that is kept in a First Class Dry Goods and Clothing Store.

If I can't sell you goods of every kind cheaper than any other house in the city (quality considered) I will give them away.

I bought low and I am determined to sell low. I would be pleased to have you call and examine my stock.

My Motto is—More goods and better goods for a little money than any other Dry Goods House in the city.

Very respectfully,

Wm. SULTAN,

Bishop Building, opp. Baptist Church,

Mar 24, 1886. Middle street.

J. A. THOMAS, Salesman.

New Millinery Goods!

My Large and Select

STOCK OF

New Millinery Goods.

HAS ARRIVED, but on account of press of business, I have no time to prepare for an OPENING DAY.

I will be constantly receiving additions to my stock, and will be pleased at all times to show the same to friends and customers among my Patterers and Bonnets.

Respectfully,

M. D. DEWEY.

For Sale or To Let

My entire Stock upon the most reasonable terms to go to the best purchasers. (No middle man to be used.)

I will sell my entire stock of CIGARS, TOBACCO, CIGARETTES, PIPES, and Fancy Articles, to any one in want for CASH, from day to day till all is disposed of.

Also Books, Writing Paper, Ink, and Drawing Tools, Water Colors, etc. In fact any goods I have in stock, all good and fresh.

This determination is arrived at for the reason that I want to change my business, (i.e.) from PUT IT DOWN, REMEMBER IT, WILL PAY ME TO COMPTON, INVEST IN ME, etc. I have done well, and I wish to sell out. And this is my reason.

W. M. SULTAN,

Why don't you buy my shirts ready-made? What's the use of wearing your eyes out over fine needle work, and breaking your back trying to have a few cents?

I don't see the sense of it. Why you can buy shirts now-a-days for very little more than the cost of material. Look at this "Diamond" I've just bought. I say, Maria, I am going to buy a dozen more right away.
