MONEY IN IT.—A man afflicted with deafness took a prescription to a Topeka druggist, who filled it with care and in the latest style. The deaf man asked the price, when the following talk occurred:

Druggist (leaning on the counter and smiling in a won't-you-pay-up sort of manner)—The price is 75 cents.

Deaf Customer—Five cents? Here it is.

Druggist (in a louder voice)—Seventy-five cents, please.

Deaf Customer—Well, there's your five cents.

Druggist (in a very decided and very firm manner)—Seventy-five cents.

Deaf Customer (getting angry)—Well, what more do you want? I just gave you five cents.

Druggist (sotto voice)—Well, go to thunder with your medicine; I made three cents, any way.—Drug Journal.

THE SANCTUARY OF HOME.—Home is the chief school of human virtue. Its responsibilities, joys, sorrows, smiles, tears, hopes and solicitudes form the chief interests of human life. Go where a man may, home is the center to which his heart turns. The thought of his home nerves his arm and lightens his toil. For that his heart yearns when he is afar off. There he garners up his best treasures. God has ordained for all men alike the highest earthly happiness in providing for all the sanctuary of home.

"My dear, look down below," said a pompous man, as he stood on the Brooklyn bridge, with his wife, gazing at a tug, hauling a long line of barges. "She's like—the tug is like a man working and toiling, while the barges, like women, are——"

"I know," interrupted she, acridly, "the tug does all the blowing, and the barges bear all the burden."

Most Excellent.

J. J. Adams, Chief of Police, Knoxville, Tenn., writes: "My family and I are beneficiaries of your most excellent medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; having found it to be all that you can claim for it, desire to testify to its virtue. My friends to whom I have recommended it, praise it in every opportunity."

Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is guaranteed to cure coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma, croup, and every affection of throat, chest and lungs. Trial bottles free at Hancock Bros. drug store. Large size $1.00

Chattel mortgages and Lien Bonds for sale at this office.

New Store! New Goods!

Bargains! Bargains!

I wish to inform my friends and the public in general, that I have just returned from the Northern Markets, where I have purchased a

Very Large and Well Assorted Stock of Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps,

And everything you can call for that is kept in a First Class Dry Goods and Clothing Store.

If I can't sell you goods of every kind cheaper than any other house in the city (quality considered) I will give them away.

I bought low and I am determined to sell low. I would be pleased to have you call and examine my stock.

My Motto is—Most goods for the least money for a little [illegible] any other Dry Goods House in the city.

DUFFY'S COLUMN.

BARGAIN—"A gainful or satisfactory transaction."—Webster.

We repeat with emphasis, everything formerly mentioned in this column calling attention to the many "Bargains" with which our store is packed from the bottom to the top, and after reading the above definition of this much discussed word, we hope, if you want "gainful or satisfactory transactions," that you will visit our "Bargain Store." We invite the public to inspect, compare, and judge for themselves, quality at all times considered.

We have cheap or low-priced goods for those wanting goods of such character, and medium or fine goods for those wanting such kinds, but do not discriminate against any class of trade. Our store is for the public, and we at all times welcome any in search of Bargains. As to competition with the "large and imposing houses that are in our city," we would say that our building is much smaller than we would like it to be, but your compare what is in it, with other stores, think you will decide that goods with us are abundant.

We are grateful and thankful for past favors, and a continuance of your valued patronage is most earnestly solicited.

FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY:

Good quality 4-4 Bleached Domestics for 6 1-2 cents, worth 8 cents.

TORCHON Laces, 12 cents for 12 yards.

Our Shoe stock is now complete.

Come to see us for all kinds of Goods, and we will satisfy you. Samples furnished upon application.

SATURDAY, we propose to give you a drive in Maple, Tennis and Boy's Straw Hats. If you want a Straw Hat, you can save about one-third by buying from us.

Respectfully solicited,

H. B. Duffy.

Merchants, Bankers, Manufacturers and others:

DEAR SIRS:—In addition to our Mercantile Agency reports we are now publishing a weekly commercial and financial newspaper in our name of serving business men, particularly merchants, bankers and manufacturers. It does not deal with gossip or fiction, but reports, reviews and discusses those matters, domestic and foreign, the knowledge of bearing upon the business of this country. Covering the crops in detail, investigating and reporting upon the financial condition of investment securities and reviewing the markets are special features, while the tariff, monetary, transportation, legal, bankruptcy, partnership and hundreds of other topics are ably treated, not in the interest of political parties or geographical sections, but in the best interest of the business men of the whole country.

It is emphatically the business man's newspaper.

We solicit your subscription for one year at five dollars.

Very truly yours,
THE BRADSTREET COMPANY.

Harper's Magazine,

ILLUSTRATED.

The December Number will begin the Seventy-second Volume of HARPER'S MAGAZINE. Miss Woolson's novel, "East Angels," and Mr. Howells's "Indian Summer," following the foremost place in current serial fiction, will run through several numbers, and will be followed by serial stories from H. H. Boyesen and Mrs. D. M. CRAIK. A new editorial department, discussing topics suggested by the current literature of America and Europe, will be contributed by W. D. Howells, beginning with the January number. The great literary event of the year will be the publication of a series of papers—taking the shape of a story, and depicting characteristic features of American society as seen at our leading pleasure resorts—written by Charles Dudley Warner, and illustrated by C. S. Reinhart. The Magazine will give especial attention to American subjects treated by the best American writers, and illustrated by leading American artists.
