Fine Goods! No Bargains!

WE HAVE NO DRIVES; we tried selling common goods cheap last fall and found they did not suit our customers. So no more trash for us. We intend to sell only good goods at very low prices. We do not claim to have a monopoly of all the goods or all the fine dry goods to be found in the city, but we do claim to carry many things in fine Dress Goods and Trimmings, and a thousand other things that ladies use which you cannot find in any other store.

We are running on Quality this season, and we are determined to roll our Customers Good Goods for Very Little Money.

We desire to sell the ladies trade, and we intend to keep just the stock they need. Call and see us and send for samples. Anything you buy from us is warranted.

If you have favored any other Store with the bulk of your trade, we do not ask you to desert them; only you may find some goods in our Store not obtainable elsewhere. If so, we would be glad to have a share of your patronage.

To our regular customers we would say we have just the goods for you this season. But we trash at catch-up prices. No more of that for us. We intend to sell only the best goods that the trade will buy at ROCK BOTTOM PRICES. SMALL PROFITS will give you nice goods very cheap.

Please don't call on us for Bargains, Bargains, Bargains. We have none. Remember, we keep THE Store for Nice Goods at Rock Bottom Prices.

HOSIERY—See our French Ribbed Hose for boys at Twenty-five Cents. One pair will outwear five ordinary hose and will not fade. We carry a full line of Lace and Cotton Hose.

HANDKERCHIEFS—We challenge the town to excel us in style, price and quality.

PARASOLS—It will do you good to see our stock of Parasols and surprise you as to price.

GENT'S SHIRTS—We carry

The Diamond Shirt. Of course it's the best Shirt made.

REMEMBER! Why don't you buy my shirts ready-made? What's the use of wearing your eyes out over fine needle work, and breaking your back trying to save a few cents? I don't see the sense of it. Why, you can buy shirts now-a-days for very little more than the cost of material. Look at this "Diamond" I've just bought. I tell you, Maria, I'm going to buy a shirt more than ever.

A. M. BAKER has NO Bargains to offer, but sells Good Goods at Rock Bottom Prices.

THE JOURNAL.

NEW BERNE, N. C., SATURDAY, JUNE 19, 1886.

NOT TO BE TRIPPED. "President and wife got in town last night," he confidentially inquired on the market yesterday morning. "No sir. They are not coming this way that I've heard of."

"They ain't! Don't they take in Detroit on their bridge tower?" "No."

"Well, that's funny. They got the story all over our neighborhood that the President and wife would be here today, and nothing would do but the old woman must ride in with me to see 'em. Say, Jane, this man says they won't be here."

"I don't believe it," she blantly replied. "I assure you, Madam," he replied, "that any such report is false. The President and wife are in Washington."

She would not be convinced until her husband had inquired of several other persons and received the same replies. "Waal, you've had your trip for nothing," he remarked. "I guess not," she replied, as she climbed down over the wheel. "Samuel, the first thing on the programme is ginger ale. Then comes soda water with sarsaparilla syrup. Then we'll have peanuts and if we feel like it we'll spread out some candy. I'm going to show the President of the United States that he can't bluff me with a cent!" Detroit Free Press.

THE CUT KILLED HIM.—"Well, poor Jones died last night." "Is it possible? I didn't hear he was sick. What was the complaint?" "Oh, he died from the effects of a cut."

AN Old Citizen Speaks. Mr. J. M. Norris, an old resident of Rome, Ga., says, that he had been badly troubled with kidney complaint for a great many years and with eczema for three years; at times could scarcely walk and had tried many remedies without benefit, until he began taking Electric Bitters and anointing his hands and feet with Bucklin's Arnica Salve. This treatment afforded him great relief and he strongly recommends Electric Bitters to all who suffer with kidney complaints, or need a blood purifier. Sold by Hancock Bros.
