THE PRESIDENT'S CANDIDACY.
The President's candidacy seems to be a dead issue to the River and Harbor Commission. The Commission has succeeded in capturing a majority in Georgia, and the Commission for Georgia is now in the hands of the Georgia Commission. The Commission has been very successful in capturing a majority in Georgia, and the Commission for Georgia is now in the hands of the Georgia Commission.

Hyde County Items.
Pango river has been buoyed at last. The river is now open for navigation. The water is high and the current is strong. The boats are running freely and the trade is brisk.

Hyde County Items.
Crops are fair to good, and most people are doing their best. The weather is favorable and the soil is rich. The farmers are busy planting and tending their crops.

Hyde County Items.
The steam yacht Eva Parker is again likely to become a source of contention, as it is said her new owners are not agreeing well. The yacht is a fine specimen and is well equipped for a cruise.

Hyde County Items.
We are often amused at the names suggested by various correspondents of the Washington Gazette as suitable and good men for the office in that county. Some of the suggestions are quite amusing.

Hyde County Items.
Carrington is "wet" and equally since the election on the first Monday in June; very few whites voted "license" in that election, and most of those who did were in some way connected with liquor traffic.

Hyde County Items.
The correspondent of the Falcon has discovered that from the mainland Hatteras can only be reached by embarking on one of the little fish boats running from Elizabeth City or New Berne. The boats are small and the ride is rough.

Hyde County Items.
The convicts on the Alligator canal in Hyde county, under the superintendency of Mr. Rheem, are doing a good job and are making good progress. It is quite a place of resort for the curious, and many go there on almost every Sunday.

Hyde County Items.
Prospective would-be candidates are coming out in numbers, all anxious to serve the people, for a consideration. I hear spoken of for the office of register Messrs. S. K. Cason, W. D. Mann, Cluding Davis and others. For the office of clerk not so many aspire; perhaps the $1000 per annum and the more arduous duties and less pay are the causes.

Hyde County Items.
Is there none competent to represent this district and others in Congress except lawyers? It seems to us that the law is the only profession that is respected in this district. The lawyers are the only ones who are considered as men of standing.

The Industrial Growth of the South.
The Baltimore Manufacturer's Record, in its semi-annual review of the industrial growth of the South, shows that during the first six months of 1886 there have been added to the number of manufacturing and mining enterprises in the South thirty new ice factories, forty foundries and machine shops, one Bessemer steel mill, three stone foundries, fifteen gas works, seventeen electric light companies, seven agricultural implement factories, seventy mining and quarrying enterprises, eleven carriage and wagon factories, eight cotton mills, eighteen furniture factories, fifteen water works, twenty-nine tobacco factories, forty-eight flour mills, two hundred and forty-eight lumber mills, including planing mills, saw and door factories, etc. In addition to which there were a large number of miscellaneous enterprises. Among the leading enterprises established during the last six months were the Alabama furnace, the Thomas Company, with $1,000,000 capital, composed of leading Georgia capitalists, the $2,000,000 DeBarclay-Coulter and Iron Company, to build furnaces in Alabama, two 100 ton furnaces at Sheffield, Ala., one at South Pittsburg, Tenn., one at Ocala, Ala., and two in Sequatchie Valley, Tenn., a Bessemer steel mill at Chattanooga, Tenn., iron pipe works to cost $200,000 at the same place, $500,000 dry dock and ship yard at Newport News, Va., and a $250,000 English company to mine coal in Kentucky. The amount of capital including the capital stock of the incorporated companies represented by the new manufacturing and mining enterprises organized or chartered at the South, and in the enlargement of old plants and rebuilding of mills that were destroyed by fire during the first six months of 1886 aggregates about $63,618,200.
