LOCAL NEWS.

Journalist's Alibi.
New Bern, N. C., July 15. The Journalist's alibi in the case of the late Mayor is being established by the fact that he was in New Bern at the time of the murder.

The People's ticket reports progress, and will continue to progress until the day of election.

Another Row in the Convention.
The Raleigh Observer wants a sober pressman. We thought all were sober in the City of Oaks now.

Watermelons have been shipped over the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad during the past week.

There is a low place in the middle of Broad street, just in front of ex-Mayor Long's residence, which needs attention.

All the ladies of New Berne interested in temperance work are requested to meet with the ladies of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in the lecture room of the Presbyterian church on Tuesday morning, July 20, at 10 o'clock to be addressed by Mrs. Chapin in the interest of the Society.

John S. Long, Esq., is contributing a series of articles to the Winston Sentinel, the first of which appeared in Thursday's paper and was upon Recollections of Fessenden Satterthwaite of Washington.

John S. Long brings out in bold relief many of the excellent qualities of this truly noble man, and it will be a valuable addition to the biographical literature of this section of North Carolina.

We are at loss to know how the Raleigh News and Observer gathered the information that the United States court was in session at New Bern the past week, and the Richmond Dispatch even more particular, stating that the court opened on the 14th was presided over by Judge Seymour and the docket was light, while we herein New Bern have no such knowledge.

The editor of the Journal has not enjoyed very good health this spring, most of the patent medicines he has taken have only afforded temporary relief.

On the 14th inst. he was afflicted with a cold, which in accordance with arithmetical progression showed that he could only last about two hundred and forty days. Being thus impressed, his eyes longed for the scenes of his childhood, and yesterday morning he set out for Jones county, where he will, in addition to Billard's remedies, stir and water, try that Col. Mulberry Sellers' raw turnips.

The steamer Carolina came in Friday night from Snow Hill, making the run in eleven hours from dock to dock, including a delay of over an hour on the way, besides having to stop up at all sudden bends in the run on account of high water. This is the quickest trip on record.

The Way of the Transgressor is Hard.
On yesterday the incarceration of Jos. H. Miller of Raleigh, began thirty days' imprisonment and a fine of two thousand dollars and soon was the sentence of the court when he was convicted of gambling in a house in the city of Raleigh. An appeal to the Supreme Court was made, but the case was thrown back on Thursday.

A Darting Thief.
A negro boy entered the back door of the store of Mr. Max Schwarz about 10 o'clock last night and attempted to take out some goods, when the colored porter made an effort to arrest him, the thief drew a pistol, fired at him, and made good his escape. Fortunately the porter was not hurt.

That Blessed Baby.
The Governor's Guards at Raleigh introduced the dangerous experiment of having a baby show in connection with their fete militaire. We say dangerous for the reason that if the frown of fond parents once settles upon the guards, their future must be anything but glorious. There were fifteen little cherubs all in a row, two of whom were the recipients of prizes, one for being the loveliest girl and the other the handsomest boy in the number. Two fond mothers and two hopeful papas were made happy; but that of the other thirteen mamma and disappointed fathers: what must have been their feelings? How dull must they have estimated the perception of the committee, to say nothing of the bare suspicion of favoritism or deeply designed falsity?

On the wounds thus inflicted upon loving hearts ever be healed? or if healed will not a hideous scar be left as a perpetual reminder of the fearful conflict and dreadful defeat?

As the proud possessor of seven promising offspring, with a heart bristling with sympathy for the disappointed contestants, we find it difficult to work ourselves up to offer congratulations to the successful little innocents who have been by erroneous zeal made the cause of unpleasantry recollections in the memories of the twenty-six defeated contestants, with a respectable contingent of grandpas and grandmas whose silver locks will doubtless shake with a calm but very decided evidence of disapproval of the committee's award. We do not object to baby shows; we are used to them. We have in a somewhat interesting experience of twenty years never failed to have a baby show two or three times a day and an occasional one in the night time—the latter generally with scanty thrills—but it is the madness of deciding which is the loveliest or the handsomest that we are discussing upon and wherein lies the danger to our gallant fellow soldiers of the Governor's Guards.

Canada must be pretty well filled with bank Presidents and cashiers. Nearly every batch of press dispatches has a header, "Skipped to Canada."

Referring to our navy, a daily paper reports the Atlantic Squadron as being under sealed orders to proceed to the scene of the recent fishery troubles. It is further facetiously remarked that the fishermen will protest the navy while upon the excursion.

A dispatch from Fort Keogh, Montana, says that the mercury is up to 120 degrees in the shade. It will be remembered that this is the place where the thermometer ranged from 80 to 60 degrees below zero last winter. No more complaints of North Carolina weather from us for awhile.

The proposed permanent exposition of the Three Americas is attracting considerable attention. Two events to celebrate are under discussion: first, the 12th of October, 1892, the 100th anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus, and second, the 4th of March, 1889, when the Constitution of the United States will have completed the first century of its existence. Among the places already taking steps to secure the location of this proposed grand exhibition, are New York, Washington, Chicago, St. Louis and the City of Mexico.

The former mentioned event would be much more fitting, as it effects the whole hemisphere, thus, especially making the exposition more concerted and widespread. Washington is the most appropriate and suitable location in that we all have a common interest there which will make it more of a national affair. On this occasion it is proposed that, besides our own President, the presidents of the fifteen American sister republics, the Governor-General of Canada, the Emperor of Brazil, the King of Italy, in whose domain Columbus was born, and the Queen-Regent of Spain, from whose country he set sail, shall unite in unveiling a colossal statue of the illustrious discoverer of America.

"Nearer my God to Thee."
IN MEMORY OF MR. AND MRS. DISOWAY, died July 16, 1886, in the 59th year of her age.

"Nearer my God to Thee."
Some months past Mrs. Disoway received a hurt from a fall, from the effects of which she never recovered. She descended from one of the oldest Newbern families.

"Nearer my God to Thee."
Her father, John Justice, Jr., was one of Newbern's business men, near one hundred years ago.

"Nearer my God to Thee."
He and his co-temporaries Messrs. Devereux, McKinley, Taylor, Ellis and others whitened the waters of the Neuse with the salt of their shipping.

"Nearer my God to Thee."
In the death of Mrs. Disoway a good woman has gone to rest.

"Nearer my God to Thee."
On Saturday afternoon at 6 o'clock the solemn burial services were held at Christ church.

"Nearer my God to Thee."
As the last solemn words of the service fell from the lips of the pastor, the choir sang the hymn "Nearer my God to Thee."

"Nearer my God to Thee."
Amid the solemn silence of the evening shades the singing of this hymn was peculiarly impressive.

"Nearer my God to Thee."
How comforting is the hope that she is "Nearer my God to Thee."

"Nearer my God to Thee."
Nearer the Great White Throne,
Nearer the Crystal Sea,
Nearer to Thee.

"Nearer my God to Thee."
Assembled around the tomb, her children bowed down with grief and speakable, her body was committed to the earth.

"Nearer my God to Thee."
To them the sweetest solace is the blessed hope of blissful immortality.

CHICAGO, July 16.—A special dispatch from Mier, Mexico, says: "A courier has just arrived from the interior and reported that the revolutionists under command of Juan Mariano captured the town of Aguas. Five citizens were killed in the fight. Gen. Reyes has ordered the eight regulars to the scene, with instructions to fight the revolutionists wherever he finds them. The revolutionary party is gaining strength daily. A large number of its sympathizers are coming in from the States of Coahuila and Nuevo Leon and also from Texas. Governor Cuella is at Victoria, the capital of the State. He will probably be obliged to call on the Federal government to put down the rebellion, and in that case martial law will be declared."
