After urgent solicitations from many friends I have consented to run another of those health-giving, soul-stirring, blood-renovating, knock in the head all atiments excursions to Nag's Head, and at the small sugs of $2.00 for adults; children from four to twelve, half fare.

It will be unnecessary to attempt to describe the beautiful scenery en route, and the elegant drives on the beach, among the "Kill-Devil Hills;" the delidious plunges among the breakers; the romantic promenades for the young:

the wide, elegant verandas for the enless sentimentally inclined; the excel lent cuisine of the "prince of category, Capt. Tom Southgate; and the anjoy ment of sheepshead, bluedish, soft crabs and other delicacies which mine host Jacobs loads his groaning tables with;--are only part of the pleasures to be enjoyed on this trip; and words are inadequate to tell the balance. I can't describe the beauties and the please of the trip; you must go to enjoy them. Our "fire laddies" will participate in this grand excursion, and will see that your cup of enjoyment is continually
