Germany is the least literate of any country in the world. At the riot in Amsterdam, 22,000 persons were killed and 80,000 wounded. A movement is on foot in Maryland to hold a reunion of all the Joneses in that State. Many of the wealthy proprietors in New York City are fighting the proposed Broadway arcade. Strikings efforts are being made in some of the large cities to suppress indecent advertisements in cigar store windows. Col. McClure, of the Philadelphia Times, says that he thinks the illustrated feature of journalism will not last. It ought not to.

A late census report of Paris shows that there has been a decrease in the population of over 100,000 within the last four years. A Texas judge has decided that when one man in that State approaches another with his hands in his pockets it is an invitation to shoot. This is something like the Virginia judge who once decided that calling a man a liar was equivalent to knocking him down, and he could thereafter govern himself accordingly.

The extreme cold weather now being experienced by the inhabitants of Labrador and Northern New Foundland is unprecedented. Reports say that 8,000 of the 15,000 population in Labrador have died from starvation, and that all the ice has not yet broken up. It is very remarkable when it is considered that this locality is in the same latitude as Northern Great Britain.

Kinston Items.

The ruthless dog war continues. It plays alike the "just and unjust" dog. It comes that dogs and bar-rooms are the only "contraband articles" in Kinston under this dispensation.

"Handsome" Grady has just returned home from the county of "big blues," seriously hurt internally by a kick from a horse. Stay away, young man, stay away, from the "big blues" of Sampson, or suffer in the heart.

The mayor and town committee are quite resolute in making Kinston a dry town. Having shut up all the liquor saloons, they are now laying twenty-five hundred feet of fifteen inch drain tiling on Heritage street, to take off surface water. Bad whiskey and bad water must go from Kinston.

Your James county itemizer, we observe, is in great distress at the entire absence of snakes from his county. Never mind, old fellow, some of the Kinston saloons have moved to Trenton and they always breed imaginary if not real snakes. You'll see 'em yet—they all left Kinston about July 1st, 1886.

Mr. W. O. Moseley and Miss Fannie B. Wooten, both of this county, were united in matrimony last Wednesday morning by Rev. Israel Harding, at the residence in Kinston of John F. Wooten, Esq., the bride's father. The united couple immediately started on a bridal trip to Asheville, N. C., and elsewhere. This event has greatly pleased and encouraged our Kinston widows.

On the night of the 23d of July the smoke house of B. F. Higgins in Content Neck township was feloniously entered and about one hundred and fifty pounds of bacon ham stolen. Five days afterwards search was made on the premises of Simon Crook, colored, living on the land of J. H. Stevenson, where most of the stolen bacon was found, buried in a barrel in Crook's garden. The thief was present when the search was made, and when after digging in the ground, the treasure was struck he slipped to the woods amidst a shower of bullets, making his escape, probably unhurt.

Judge Clark, who will hold the approaching term of Lenoir Superior court, has requested Sheriff Sutton to provide a look-out for the court room and a dozen cane bottom revolving chairs for the comfort of his jurors. This may mean that the next term of this court will be run on "tick," which will be a great relief to the law breakers who cannot realize on their crops before the fall. And then the jurors will revolve in body as well as in mind. How nice that will be! Now if our accommodating sheriff would provide "saloon attachments" to the revolving chairs, what a happy and comfortable time it will be. Who would not be a juror then?

A Terrible Mistake.

Pittsburg, July 27. Mrs. John Prill was frightened by a great storm yesterday and ran to her bed chamber for a vase of holy water. She hastily grasped the wrong bottle and liberally sprinkled her head, face and shoulders with sulphuric acid. Her cries brought assistance. Her life will be saved, but her eyes are destroyed, and she will be terribly disfigured.

CATTLE AFFECTED WITH TEXAS FEVER. ST. PAUL, Minn., July 27.—A Bozeman, Montana special says: Texas fever has broken out among a lot of graded cattle brought here by J. F. Curtin from Kansas City. Already twenty-one have died and many more deaths are expected. The herd has been quarantined. Stock men fear the disease will spread, as a drove of 35,000 head of cattle, from which this lot was brought, the fever at Missouri Valley, Iowa, are now being driven into the territories.
