"Ah," said the summer tourist, leaning over the fence and addressing the farmer, "may I make bold to inquire what that great quantity of green vegetation growing over there is?"

"Certainly, mister, that's corn!"
"Ah, thanks. And those large animals over the fence, they are?"

"Cows," my friend, every one of 'em cows. Say, you don't seem to be very well posted on these 'ere things, do you?"

"Perhaps not. The fact is my business has kept me so closely confined that this is the first chance I've had to go out in the country."

"No, sir, I am editor of an agricultural paper. I have held that position for thirty years."—Editorial Note.
