BUSINESS LOCALS.
The thermometer registered 90 at the Journal office yesterday.

Yesterday was pronounced by some of our citizens the hottest day of the season. But the thermometer at the Journal office didn't say so.

Jones Superior Court tomorrow. Wm. McDaniel will have carriage and horse. He will bring carriage to take out any one who may go up on the train.

Loads of crab grass hay are to be seen on the streets daily. When properly cured it is excellent forage and any amount of it can be grown in this section.

A heavy rain fell in this section on Friday evening. Mr. E. B. Cox, whose plantation is about three miles from the city, says more water fell at his place than at any one time in twelve years.

The "Hemlockers," up-town baseball club, and the "Greasers," of the railroad shop played a match game on the depot yesterday evening, and the "Greasers" carried off the prize by a score of 22 to 12, in six innings.

His many friends in North Carolina will be glad to hear that Capt. W. W. Caraway has been appointed a post-office inspector, and has been assigned to duty at Chicago, Illinois. This is a fine appointment, and in no respect at all more than the News and Observer.

We rejoice with the Observer over the fact that Capt. Caraway has received a good appointment. If any Democrat in North Carolina deserved it, he above all others, for his fitness, qualifications, genuine devotion to his party and hard work for the same, stood foremost. But we do object to his being sent to Chicago among the Anarchists and Socialists.

Now we understand why he has been keeping his horses so fat—he is going to drive through the country to his new home.

Correction.
In the report of the committee on credentials to the Democratic convention held at the theatre on Friday, Mr. Jas. A. Bryan is reported as a delegate from eight townships. In the election of delegates in the second ward of the city, the eighth township, no delegates were elected, each delegate being left to choose his own alternate.

Personal.
Miss Myrtle Pope, daughter of Mr. S. D. Pope, of this city, left yesterday morning for Mr. W. D. Pearce's, Lenoir county, to take charge of a school in that neighborhood. Miss Pope passed the eighth grade in the graded school of this city, and received high honors. She is a worthy, competent teacher, and has taught before. Her patrons will find they have made no mistake in appointing her.

Mr. H. P. Pelletier, Esq., of the firm of Gilson & Pelletier, left for Trenton yesterday to be in attendance of Jones Superior Court next week.

Miss Minnie Bellamy, of Atlanta, Ga., is in the city, the guest of Mrs. W. R. Gilson.

The Farmer's Excursion.
The steamer Grant brought down on Friday last a large number of farmers with their wives and daughters and some of their children. The steamer had about two hundred on board and they had a very good time. The steamer returned to New Bern on Sunday morning and the farmers were all well.

A Blind and Deaf Woman.
Miss Minnie Wallace, of Atlanta, lost her hearing, her sight, and some of her limbs. Some persons were advised to be unkind to her, but she was swollen, and painful, her limbs paralyzed, appetite lost, and she was taking out a miserable life. Six bottles of B. B. B. restored her sight and hearing, relieved all aches and pains, added flesh and strength and she is now a well woman. Write to her.

Sold in New Bern by H. N. Duffy and E. H. Meadness.

Customs Duties on Tobacco.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—The British Foreign Office has informed the Postoffice Department that tobacco from the United States is liable to customs duties in Great Britain, except in case of packages weighing not more than three ounces, which may be imported duty free, provided the maximum limit has been 12 ounces.

Church Services to-day.
M. E. Church—Services by Rev. Geo. W. Neal at 11 a.m. The public cordially invited.

In a Strait.
The Hahn faction of the Republican party are terribly disappointed at the harmony which prevailed in the Democratic convention on Friday. They have labored hard to make the Democrats believe that they would disgrace themselves by voting the coalition ticket, but failing in this they are now trying to presume upon the ignorance of the colored voters and make their belief that the whole ticket is a regular out and out Bourbon. Democratic ticket.

In this they will also fail, for colored voters understand the matter thoroughly. They know that it is simply a union of Democrats and Republicans for the purpose of sending good and competent men to the General Assembly, overthrow the corrupt crowd led by Hahn, and elect good and true men for county officers. The Hahn crowd know that the Stinson following combined with the Democrats will defeat their ticket, and they are making a desperate effort to prevent the combination. It is in the interest of good government that the coalition ticket shall succeed, and it is gaining strength every day.

'An Unhappy Set.'
EDITOR JOURNAL.—I see that a number of Republicans are trying to get a State convention, notwithstanding the executive committee of the State refused to call one. In their address the following appears:

It will be observed that only five members voted against calling a convention. This is a minority of the committee. To permit this decision of the committee to stand unimpeached and unresisted would be to assent to and approve of the establishment of minority rule in the government of the Republican party exactly as is now the case in the administration of county government under the present Tory system, as erected under the constitution as amended by the fraudulent convention of 1875.

Now I take it to be good doctrine that if a majority of those present voted for the resolution it was carried and is binding on the party.

Six members were present of a committee consisting of eleven members, this was certainly a quorum qualified to transact business, because a larger number could not constitute a quorum is not allowed to in the address. Then by what rule is a quorum required to be unanimous to make an act binding on those they represent? Then the smile of the county government is better than the gentlemen intended it to be.

The majority party in the Legislature appoint the justices in the county to administer the laws of the county. They are empowered to appoint a board of commissioners to transact certain business matters under the laws. Then the majority in the State government appoints with the nominees through their representatives as a county committee ruling the majority of a county in its legislative capacity. It can be diminished or increased in area by the legislature, regulate the wages of the citizens, if the legislature see fit, it can do so, how can a committee of seven members of the legislature and assigned to Carter's? Its judicial arrangement is made of the will of the Legislature.

If not, how came Craven discovered from all contiguous counties and placed one hundred miles away from the nearest in this judicial district? Majorities do rule in this government, but one thing necessary to ascertain in determining it, is to find out what is a majority, and majority of what? If our Republican friends are not careful they will find that this action of the executive committee was binding, and, even in Republican circles will be regarded as such when submitted to the property authority, and upon very sound principles.

BRIEFS.
Four cases of cholera have been discovered at Naples.

Minnie Hawk, the noted singer, has sailed from Bremen for New York.

A race of one hundred and five miles between sixty Baltimore pigeons has been arranged.

There has been an advance of from five to ten per cent in the price of cotton goods in Canada.

Mr. Keiley, the much rejected foreign Minister has at last received an appointment at Cairo, Egypt.

As it came, so it went, might be applied to a Montana town. It was one of those mushroom settlements that spring up like magic. One of those growing colonies came along and completely wiped it out of existence.

Acting Secretary Fairchild has received a report from Special Agent Jerome at Tucson, Arizona, to the effect that large numbers of Chinamen are continually entering the United States over the Mexican border, in violation of the law.

There is a movement on foot in Ohio to remove the remains of President William Henry Harrison from North Bend, Ind., to Spring Grove Cemetery, at Cincinnati. At this present resting place there is no monument of anything to mark the spot of his burial place.

The London Times referring to the recent dispute between the United States and Mexico, has this to say: "The chief difficulty in the way of a settlement of the matter lies in Cutting's appeal to the angry passions of Texans, and the desire upon the part of raiders on both sides the frontier for an outbreak which would result in the restoration of Donna Anna." President Dix, of Mexico, can have no wish for a collision with his powerful neighbor, and he must be well aware there are enemies of on both sides the frontier who are clamoring for war. Mexico has been surprisingly reasonable in dealing with Cutting, considering the provocation he gave, and although Secretary Bayard has been a little too exacting, the action of the President and Senate is all that could be desired. In that action lies the assurance of peace."

Kinston Items.
See what a rent the envious Casca made when, with malice aforethought in a recent newspaper issue, he plunged the dirt into the JOURNAL's heart through its Kinston correspondent.

The Kinston College announcement for 1886 is out. The fall session opens September 8th and continues to December 23rd next, with the same instructors as last session except Prof. Alderman, who takes the chair of Prof. Rose.

William L. Alley, it is said, will probably be the prohibition candidate for the House of Representatives from this county. It is in fact better than what William wants. That is the way a patriot always talks.

Col. George T. Wasson, of Goldsboro, was at Kinston last Thursday silently viewing the proceedings of the Republican convention, and solemnly dropping a tear over the identical spot where several years ago he laid low James H. Harris, of Raleigh.

Our neighbor, widower Fields, has been unwell and confined to his room much of his time since his return from the Onslow picnic. That is the trouble with widowers—those eyes—one week well and sick the next, which is the result of too much weeping.

Our farmers, we are told, are hunting a candidate for the legislature who can "cut grass" like a farmer. Ah, if that's what "the horny handed" sons of toll want, we have their man in sight, our neighbor, the learned lawyer, J. Q. Jackson, Esq., to whom we point with pride. Will our neighbors have the most farm-like job of cutting grass ever done in this country, when Deacon Harding's court house flowers got grassy this summer? He should have brought the farmer's heart to an unanimous nomination to have seen how grass was cut on all occasions. That is what J. Q. Jackson can "cut grass"—he is built that way.

The delegates to the Republican county convention met on the 12th inst. at Kinston, with D. M. Stantons, chairman of the executive committee, temporarily presiding. A committee on credentials having been appointed, the convention took half an hour's recess during which Hon. J. E. O'Hara addressed the people in a short but sharp speech. Upon re-assembling, Mr. Stanton was made permanent chairman, with J. C. Carter and Richard L. Parrott secretaries. Hon. F. B. Loftin then arose and spoke at length, urging harmony and introducing a resolution appointing delegates to the Congressional convention, which met with violent opposition and was by a small majority voted down. Balloting for delegates then began, resulting in the election of B. Frank Carver and Richard L. Parrott, the former being for Loftin and the latter for O'Hara. The election being divided, Mr. Loftin declined an endorsement by the convention. The convention at this time became obnoxious and very disorderly, threatening to break up in a row, but the able chairman held them in the room, thus saving the great hall for the use of the people of many from an early rout.

Committee on Resolutions.
The Board of the County Convention will meet on Monday, August 16th, at 10 o'clock.

Mexicans Killing Americans.
WASHINGTON, August 13.—It is asserted at the state department that there are no fresh developments in the Cutting case, and that the attitude of this government has not changed in any respect. This case is the fruit of natural friction or antagonism between the systems of government of two people who differ radically in character and customs. The position we have taken is based upon the assumption that all material facts and legal features of the case are as they have been set forth in the correspondence and reports already made public; but in a matter involving possible warfare it is held to be incumbent upon the United States to make sure that there is nothing of importance beyond the official information already in hand and to this end the best efforts of the department are turned.

The foundation once firmly laid, a decision will have to be made, whether the differences found to exist shall be reconciled through the further efforts of diplomacy or by war, but in no event will this government assent to the doctrine that an American can be arrested, tried and punished abroad for an offense committed within our domain.

DALLAS, Tex., Aug. 13.—Commercial circles in this city were greatly agitated last evening by the receipt of a telegram by the machine and implement firm of Hatch & Co., from their agent in Mexico, advising the firm not to ship any more goods to that country, as it was not judicious to do so, and the feeling is too bitter to allow the business of Americans, particularly from Texas, to be carried on. The feeling of two dead Americans had been found on a public highway with the evidences of having been murdered. The agent advised would leave the country at once, while he could do so with safety.

ADVISED TO OTHERS.
MRS. WINDOL, of SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It softens the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Two or five drops a bottle.

Editor Cutting's Statement.
EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 13.—An American newspaper correspondent, in company with Samuel Field, a well known citizen of Dallas, saw Cutting in the jail at Paso del Norte yesterday. He asked him how he had managed to escape from the jail, and Cutting replied that he had a copy of the paper, El Sentinel, I entered a corner cafe kept by a friend of mine and casually handed him a paper, the only one I had. This is all I did, and is the very truth as to the story of my circulating great numbers of the paper in Paso del Norte." He asked Cutting whether he intended to appeal his case to the Supreme Court of Chihuahua. He said that his attorney, a young Mexican student, just out of the law school, had determined to do so.

Will Protect American Citizens.
GALVESTON, August 13.—The Committee on Platform and Resolutions of the Democratic State Convention completed its labors last night. The resolutions which have been adopted and referred to this Committee, have all been supplanted by a platform which states that American citizens should receive the protection guaranteed by the Constitution, and that protection was badly needed.
