Business Boats at $1.00. Summer weather. White Lawn Duds, Bows, Summer Underwear, Tennis Shirts, Plaited Boomer Shirts, Tourist Bags, etc., at HOWARD & JONES.

Cooler.
Farmers are complaining of too much rain for fodder pulling.

The Democratic convention of the second Senatorial district will be held at Plymouth on Wednesday September 1st.

A farmers' dinner was held at Mr. John Dillard's, near Croatan, yesterday. The barbecue was said to be excellent and everybody enjoyed themselves.

The foundation walls of Patterson's new hotel are about complete. Elevators are to be put in and the building when completed will contain all the modern improvements.

Capt. Frank Bell, with the schooner Varna, arrived yesterday, having made the trip from Bladenville, a distance of eighty miles, in about seven hours. He reports good crops in Hyde.

The delegates to the Republican Judicial convention returned last night and were met at the depot by one of the colored brass bands of the city and a large crowd of colored people who assembled to congratulate Geo. H. White, Esq., upon his nomination.

Mr. T. J. May, of Bachelor creek, sends a basket of very fine Bartlett pears. This section seems to be well adapted to the growth of this fruit and grapes. Our market ought to be well supplied. Mr. May ought to have sent a sample to the Fruit Fair.

There will be a meeting of the Central Coalition Committee today at 12 o'clock at the office of Hon. C. C. Clark. Every member should be present. We are engaging in a campaign of more importance to Craven county and all the people in it than for several years, if ever before. Let the committee enter earnestly in the work, form plans and arrange for a vigorous campaign, and a brilliant triumph awaits the people's ticket in November.

The Northampton Convention.
A telegram was received in this city yesterday morning announcing that the Republican Judicial convention at Jacksonville had nominated Geo. H. White for solicitor of the second Judicial district. He is probably the best colored lawyer in the State and is a man who sustains a good moral character in this city where he lives. It seems that Solicitor Collins had left his fence down some time.

James W. Waters has returned from a trip to Cape Lookout. He had a fine time and reports the outlook very fine.

Leibel E. Hardy, of Greene county, is in the city on one of his medical visits to Dr. Duffy. Mr. Hardy looks much improved in health and enjoys the privilege of many years of usefulness.

Miss Maudie Amyette arrived from Morehead City yesterday morning and went off through the mountains to spend the balance of the summer.

Dr. and Mrs. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. F. Ulrich, and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Green have returned from Morehead City.

Mrs. C. E. Slover is here from Black Mountain on a short visit. She will return in a few days to remain the balance of the summer.

Chas. H. W. Wahab arrived yesterday from Hyde county. He is confident that Latham will be triumphantly elected.

B. F. Mayhew, Esq., Messrs. Chas. E. Ford and J. F. Jewell, of Pamlico, are in the city. They report fine corn crops in their county.

F. W. Hancock, Esq., returned last night. He has been on a trip to Asheville to Fayetteville, in attendance of the pharmaceutical association, and elsewhere about the State where it is good for handsome widows to see.

H. B. Bryan, Esq., returned from Raleigh last night.

Meeting of Central Committee.
The Central Committee will meet on Monday at 8 o'clock at Hon. C. C. Clark's office on Friday, Aug. 20th, at 12 o'clock, N. C.

Commissioners Meeting.
They will be holding of the Board of Commissioners on Monday.

Real Estate Mortgage and Deeds for sale at the Court's office.

The Pamlico Ticket.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—In the JOURNAL of the 12th inst. we see the ticket of the Pamlico Democracy brought out in full. The slate was made out by one or two of the delegates on their way to the Congressional convention at Elizabeth City who were so very sanguine of nominating Hon. T. G. Skinner. Their defeat should be an admonition to them that the action of large bodies of intelligent men are not always determined by the will of dictation of one man.
All Democrats we leave the matter of nominations to the county convention which convenes on the 18th of September next, and venture the assertion that the slate presented before the people on that day, though striking in resemblance, will differ materially in its general make-up. We say to the gentlemen, be not too sanguine, lest you meet with another "Waterloo."
Away with such presumption. The Democratic voters of Pamlico are possessed of sufficient intelligence to act and select for themselves, and any party who presumes to do that for them will soon find the reward (?) that he so justly merits. DEMOCRACY.

Kinston Items.

The rains are copious and incessant, yet crops stand it well.

The steamer Kinston took up a large crowd of colored excursionists to Seven Springs last Wednesday. Excursions, like money, make the boat go.

The "five foolish virgins" now have their "lamps trimmed and full of oil." Next Saturday, we are told, will see a light which cannot be "hid under a bushel."

The county commissioners are now placing in the court house between three and four hundred new and substantial arm chairs. They will greatly add to the comfort of visitors at court.

S. T. Crossland holds an old copper cent, issued in the reign of George II of England and dated 1741. It may be of much value to curiosity hunters as an "old coin," but, as money, it is not worth a cent.

Rev. D. B. Clayton, Universalist, preached to a very full house at Woodington last Sunday and baptized in Neuse river just below Kinston, a number of converts the following day. He also preached to a large and appreciative congregation at Kinston last Monday night.

The Kinston Hymnical Association—Messrs. Fields, Parrott, Jackson, Loops and Padrick—offer twenty-five dollars to the member who first marries. That is not much soap for such a hazardous undertaking; still the entire association are moving like political candidates for the prize.

Capt. Wm. W. Carraway, recently appointed to the high position of post-office inspector in the Postoffice Department at Washington, D. C., perfected his bond here last Tuesday and will, in a day or two, start to Washington for assignment of duty at Chicago, Illinois. "Farwell, brother Crawford."

Shade I. Wooten and E. W. Bizzell, of La Grange, were in Kinston last Monday, having their measures taken, respectively, for the House of Representatives and Clerk of the Superior Court. Both are strong men and many people think the convention next Saturday will make each of them a snug fit.

The Kinston Club and the La Grange Central played baseball at La Grange last Monday, the Club making 13 and the Central 5, and this too, with a New Berne-Snow Hill battery aiding the Central. With the banners of the Clairmonts and the Central trailing under their feet, the Kinston boys are happy and hilarious.

It is said a court composed of seven justices of the peace, in Indian Springs township, Wayne county, recently "took the bull by the horns" and delivered a judgment divorcing a man and wife from the bonds of matrimony. The court expressed doubts as to its authority to act in the matter, but felt satisfied "the reason of the thing" would justify their judgment.

The Strike in Augusta.
AUGUSTA, Ga., August 18.—The strike is on again. A hitch in negotiations resulted in the breaking up of the peace propositions and in reinstating the strike. The hitch is as to who are included in the pay-roll. Secretary Turner understood the superintendent, president, etc., to be on the pay-roll, but the books of the companies show differently. Turner withdraws his proposition and orders his Knights not to go to work. The mill men are willing to stick to the proposition accepted yesterday, are willing to leave everything to the arbitration provided for in the proposition, but decline to have the clause of the proposition relative to the pay-roll stricken out. Turner is satisfied that any arbitration committee would decide that the office named do not come within the meaning of the pay-roll clause of the proposition. Therefore having failed in his purpose, through a misunderstanding, he withdraws the proposition made by virtue of such misunderstanding, orders the Knights not to report for duty and declares the strike still on.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
Mrs. WINDLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind and colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Sold everywhere.

Wanted at Once.
Five hundred white boys and girls from 14 to 21 years of age to learn cigarette making. The work is light and very profitable to those who are willing to apply themselves diligently.

Real Estate Mortgage and Deeds for sale at the Court's office.

Speech of Hon. T. G. Skinner Before the Convention.

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Convention: We have waited long, gentlemen, to see what issue would come of your deliberations and I congratulate you that they have ended in nominating the distinguished gentleman who has just addressed you. I know that Major Latham, ever since I have known him, from his boyhood up, or from his early manhood, has been a true, tried and consistent Democrat. [Applause.] I don't believe that there is any man in the First district of North Carolina who can say in his heart that he is a true, tried and consistent Democrat, that will refuse to support a Democrat because he dares to differ with him. [Applause.] I know that Major Latham prefers the principles and traditions of the Democratic party. [Applause.] I know that every true Democrat who receives with his traditions the love for the constitution, wishes to see the constitution strictly observed. I know that it is necessary to have a Democratic government in order to have that constitution strictly construed, and when we have a Democratic Senate, a Democratic Supreme Court and a Democratic Congress we will take that time-honored instrument from the mud in which the Republican party has trampled it so long and roll it up as a chart to guide us in the future government of this country. [Applause.]
Fellow citizens, it is necessary that we should elect a Democrat from this district, because all over this government the Republican party has been marshaling their hosts and preparing to do battle in November that they may come into the next Congress with a Republican majority, and if they wrest the government this time from our hands long will be the day before we can recover it again. That being the case, every man who is a true Democrat, every man who is in favor of the constitution, every man who desires to see the Democratic party prosper must sink his prejudices. [Applause.]
Now, fellow citizens, we have a Democratic President and a Democratic House, but we haven't a Democratic Senate. We are partially Democratic but if we can keep this Democratic government for a few more years we can have a whole Democratic government.
I wish I had time to tell you what we can do and I wish I could talk to you about Grover Cleveland and the fulfillment of his promises and tell you where I think he has fulfilled them and where he has not. I will say but one word, that so far as Grover Cleveland is concerned in relation to Civil Service Reform, I think he will be taught better. I know that no Democratic efforts are possible to carry on a Democratic government with Republican officials. What would you think of a general, who, after he had captured a town, go to sleep and leave around the town the same guards that he found there. These are not only my ideas upon Civil Service Reform but these are the ideas of a large majority of true Democrats all over this country.
I ask you here if there is any man in this district who has said that because he was supporting me he would not support Major Latham, if there is, I ask him to take it back. [Applause.] If you work, fellow citizens, with the same zeal that you did for the nomination of George Brown, Jim Edwin Moore, Major Latham and myself I know that you will succeed. [Applause.]—E. City Economist.

Chicago Strike Ended.
CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—A meeting was held by the striking nailers at Cummings' last night, and the long strike, which has been in progress for the last fourteen months, was brought to an end. The old men will be accommodated by the company as far as possible and every department of the Calumet iron and steel works will start up with a full force. None of the non-union men will be discharged, but as many of the old men have secured positions elsewhere, there are plenty of places to accommodate several hundred of idle men at satisfactory wages.

The Packing House Employees of Robt. Warren & Co., at their stock-yards, have returned to work. The superintendent of the establishment said that when the men went out there was no unfinished and rather than have the meat spoiled the old hands were taken. The men claim that the basis of the settlement was an agreement of the firm not to ship any more beef over the Lake Shore road.

No Connection With the Camp Meeting.
NEW BERNE, Aug. 17th, 1886.
EDITOR JOURNAL:—I notice in this morning's JOURNAL under the head of "Grand Camp Meeting at New Berne," an article saying it is a union of all the Churches of every denomination and in the printed notices the name of the Rector of St. Cyprian Church as one of the managers. Cyprian has no connection with the camp meeting whatsoever, and I am informed that our Rector's name was used without his consent.

J. B. Brown.
"Oh, might I kiss those eyes of fire,
Ten thousand souls would quench desire,
Still would I steep my lips in bliss,
And dwell an age on every kiss."
That young dude needs something for his blood; he is surely good for it. B. B. B. is the best thing for him, because it will cure him. But this drug is not all alone in his territorial jurisdiction by a "long time." Many others are considerably "rattled" just now about the blood poison business, but B. B. B. will cure for the least money and in the shortest time. The poison is coming. Purify Yourself.

CLIPPINGS.

Eight of the original thirteen of the Emerson family of Buckeport, Me., are living, and their combined ages are 807 years.

Thirty-eight two-horse and thirty-five one-horse carriages followed the remains of a two-year-old child to the Catholic cemetery of Wilkesbarre on Sunday last.

A Naugatuck man saw something green in a cake of ice and split the cake open. The green thing was a small frog, which after an hour or two in the sunlight hopped about vigorously.

A Carson, Nev., newspaper says that in the Carson river above Empire the fishing is good, but below the town the fish will not bite, "having lost their teeth from salivation by the mill chemicals."

Preparations had already begun for celebrating the one hundredth birthday of Mrs. Bethiah Hancock in Richmond, Ind., on the 9th of September, but she died on Friday last. She was born in Bordentown, N. J., in 1786.

The Rev. Mason W. Presley, a United Presbyterian clergyman of Philadelphia, in a sermon on Sunday said very truly that "the press is the herald of the Gospel and the greatest preaching agency that the Church has ever had."

Twenty-five years ago three brothers named Dwyer were separated. They met the other day in a shipyard in Bath, Me., where two of them had been working for some time without knowing of the relationship. The third, a sailor, came to the yard, and the kinship was accidentally discovered.

Two tramps walking on the Fort Wayne Railroad track near Allegheny on Saturday saw a little child playing on the track, and at the same time saw a train approaching. One of them, August Godlieb, ran for the child, reached it just in time to throw it from the track, and then was ground to death under the wheels of the locomotive.

A lot of tpey fellows in St. Paul painted the nose of one of their number a bright red, and he walked into the hall of the Salvation Army there for a joke, while the other took back seats to see the fun. But the Salvationists at once saw in him a fit subject for their prayers, and they prayed and sang over the fellow until he became very penitent, and apparently on the high road to conversion, to the disgust of his companions.

More than twelve months ago a woman in La Grange, Ga., while feeding a large flock of chickens dropped a diamond ring from her finger, but not being able to find it, concluded that one of the fowls had swallowed it. It was not thought best to kill all the chickens in order to find it, but the internal arrangements of each fowl afterward killed were carefully examined. A week ago the ring was found. It was under the dirt just where it had been lost.

The Rev. Leonard Bacon, who himself apparently is a visitor of watering places, has no good words for other clergymen who do the same. He is quoted as saying that at many of the ideal of summer resorts there is no one profession so multitudinously represented as that of the men who are supposed to be officially burning with zeal for the rescue of a dying world, and that there is no smaller small talk talked and no lazier dawdling done by any than by them.

Saved His Life.
Mr. D. I. Wildeson, of Horse Cave, Ky., says he was, for many years, badly afflicted with Phtisis, also Diabetes, the pains were almost unendurable and would sometimes almost throw him into convulsions. He tried Electric Bitters and got relief from first bottle, and after taking six bottles was entirely cured and had gained in flesh eighteen pounds. Says he positively believes he would have died, had it not been for the relief afforded by Electric Bitters. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by Hancock Bros.

The Surplus Resolution.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—When Congress adjourned there were ten cents that had passed both Houses, but remained unsigned by the President, and accordingly failed to become laws. Among them was the Morrison surplus reduction resolution and a bill for the erection of a public building at Annapolis. The others were private pension bills and claims for relief. The President today gave out for publication a memorandum giving his reasons for pocketing these bills. This is an unprecedented proceeding on the part of a President and quite characteristic of Mr. Cleveland. The memoranda are written in the same style as his vetoes, and, in fact, they are to all intents and purposes vetoes. The only memorandum of general interest is that which concerns the surplus resolution, which reads as follows:

This resolution involves so much and is of such serious import that I do not deem it best to discuss it at this time. It is not approved because I believe it to be unnecessary, and because I am by no means convinced that its mere passage and approval at this time may not endanger and embarrass the successful and useful operations of the Treasury Department, and impair the confidence which the people should have in the management of the finances of the Government.

These memoranda have been deposited by the President in the State Department.

A CARD.
To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a medicine which will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by missionary Dr. J. C. Smith in South America. Send your name and address to the Rev. James T. Brady, Station B, New York City.
