American Leaving Mexico.

El Paso, Tex., Aug. 18.—The news of Gen. Sedgwick's departure from Washington for Chihuahus and Paso del Norte to learn the full particulars of the rial and sentence of Outting has acted as a sedative on El Paso, and impatient talk about the Government is seldom neard now. The spirit of indignation against Mexico is as strong as ever. Everybody feels confident, however, that if Sedgwick will review the case horoughly and not allow himself to be offuenced by the shrewd Mexican politician, who abound at Paso del Norte and Chihushua, he will find that the Sovernment is the correct one and will dmit of no milder solution than the release of Cutting and the payment to him of a round sum to indemnify him.

If, however, the General is not on his mard he will certainly fall a victim to the guile of the Mexicans.
