Remember the lecture tonight by Rev. Arthur Millard at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A.

Two cases were before the Mayor yesterday for fast driving and one for keeping a hog within the city limits. They were discharged upon payment of cost.

The action of the Republican convention at Kinston has considerably multiplied things in the Hahn and Stinson factions of this county. That end of the convention that admitted the delegates elected by the Stinson Republicans nominated I. B. Abbott, who was the second choice of the Hahn Republicans and that end of the convention that admitted the delegate elected by the Hahn Republicans, nominated Hara who was the second choice of the Stinson Republicans. In the meantime the coalition ticket of Craven is gaining strength because it is the people's ticket.

The Lecture.
Rev. Mr. Millard will deliver one of his interesting lectures tonight at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. Subject: "Sir Walter Scott." Ladies and gentlemen will find this a pleasant and enjoyable entertainment. The hour of opening, 8 o'clock. The price of admittance will be 25 cents for adults, children under 13 years old, 15 cents.

Wishes to be in Time.
A man in this city of keen perception says he notices that men who keep livery stables are very popular and are taken as candidates more frequently than any other profession of the day.

This being so and wishing to be in line for the campaign of 1888 he proposes to go into that business on a somewhat extensive scale and is now accumulating stock. He has bought a second hand carry comb.

A Wonderful Old Colored Man.
Among the colored excursionists in New Berne from Washington came Mustapha, one of the most remarkable negroes in the State. The late John Lang, of Washington, bought him forty years ago from Dr. Shade Allen. He was then fifty-four years old. He is now going in his ninety-ninth year. He remembers distinctly the great August storm of 1795. He spent the most of yesterday with his old slaves, Dr. Long and John S. Long, Esq., and returned cheerful and happy on the steamer this morning.

Accused for Attempt to Entangle
Simon Stanley, col., was before Justice Wright yesterday charged with an attempt to entangle in Laura Dunham, col. He was defended by Messrs. J. F. Pollock and W. E. Clarke appeared for the defendant, Geo. H. White for the prosecution.

After hearing the case, it was agreed by counsel that the defendant be released to give bond for his appearance in the next term of the Superior Court in the sum of one hundred dollars to answer to the charge of an assault upon Laura Dunham.

Cap. C. D. Foy of White Oak, Jones county, is in the city. He is spoken of by the Republicans in Jones for legislative honors.

A. C. Higgins, Esq., the popular clerk of the Superior Court of Onslow county, is in the city.

Dr. Henry Canada of Onslow is in the city.

Gratham Richardson, Esq., the energetic farmer of Bellair plantation near Beach Grove, was enjoying a drive on his fine street yesterday and claimed his right of way.

Wm. Washington Bryan, C. E. Foy and Chas. M. Hasty returned last night from the State Convention at Raleigh. Mr. Bryan was elected chairman of the delegation from this county, and Mr. Hasty, State agent for political returns in the question of voting by proxy.

Regulars and Irregulars.

Our Kinston correspondent speaks of the delegates who nominated I. B. Abbott for Congress, at the Kinston convention on Wednesday, as the "irregulars" and those that nominated O'Hara as the "regulars." To one who was present and looking on it was hard to tell which was the regular and which the irregular. True, the O'Hara wing had the chairman of the executive committee with them, but unlike the King, he can do wrong. When he refused to proceed with the business of the convention because the delegates and everybody else refused to clear the hall at his bidding, the convention had no other alternative but to put some one in the chair who would proceed. It will not do to recognize the right to use such arbitrary power, even in a Republican convention, as was attempted by Watson on this occasion. Of course he had the right to request the delegates and spectators to retire, but if they refused to obey his request there was nothing left for him to do but to proceed with the business of the convention. We are not acquainted with the rules and regulations of the Republican organization, but common sense teaches that a temporary chairman of a political gathering is not invested with the powers of a military dictator.

Improvements About the City.

Mr. J. A. Meadows is erecting a handsome office near the corner of South Front and East Front streets.

Lumber has been collected for repairs to the cotton platform.

The new wharf of the Neuse and Trent River Steamboat Co. is complete, and is one of the best on our water front.

The new dwelling of Clement Manly, Esq., on East Front street, is nearing completion. It is a handsome building and most admirably arranged for comfort and convenience.

New awnings have been built to several of the brick stores at the foot of Middle street.

The grass on the sidewalk in front of the Presbyterian church yard has been removed and the walk put in splendid condition.

Engineer Cooby, of the Neuse and Trent line, is building a new residence on Neuse street.

Mr. R. B. Davenport has laid the foundation for a new dwelling on the northwest corner of Pollock and George streets.

R. B. Lehman, Esq., has purchased the Schlaechter property on the southeast corner of Pollock and George streets, and is preparing to erect a handsome dwelling.

Mr. Snelling is erecting a store on Pollock street between Metcalf and George.

Mr. S. R. Street, jr., is erecting a nice dwelling on Pollock street between Hancock and Metcalf.

Mr. L. H. Cutler has repaired his fine dwelling on the corner of Hancock and Pollock and added a bath room.

Mrs. Mary Heath has made repairs to her dwelling on Pollock street.

A new dwelling has been erected on the corner of South Front and Eden streets.

The paint brush has improved the appearance of buildings on George street between Broad and Neuse.

St. Peter's Church yard on Queen street has been enclosed by a neat fence.

Are We Republicans?
EDITOR JOURNAL:—We notice an article in your paper of August 12th, headed "a resolution that was rejected," which we ask space to reply to, as we think it reflects upon us, and not to remind you of the omission of the resolution, as the writer would have us to believe. The writer says that the resolution was "aimed at certain delegates who stated that they would not support certain candidates in case they were nominated, and certain delegates who were known to be Republicans, or who advocated Radical doctrine. It was intended to bind certain Democrats who had no fixed political principles above self, and who would bolt if their man was not nominated." We did assert that we would not support certain candidates if they were nominated. And are we who have always voted the Democratic ticket to be called Republicans simply for asserting our right to vote for who we pleased? Do we advocate Republican doctrine when we advocate voting for principle and not for party? Have we no fixed political principles when we have never cast a Republican vote? If certain candidates had received a majority of the votes cast at the primaries, this resolution would not have been introduced.

DELEGATES.

WRITERS.

The flood at Mandalay, Burmah, has rendered fifty thousand people homeless.

Henry Irving, the English actor, has been sued by a Brooklyn playwright, who claims that Irving has one of his plays.

A large delegation of railroad and steamboat managers and ticket agents are at Fortress Monroe in a three days' convention.

Scientists have discovered that at the present wearing away of the rock at Niagara falls, within 2,900 years it will all have disappeared.

The water supply of the great city of London is becoming insufficient. A proposition to get it from the mountains of Wales is being considered.

The keeper of a convict camp near Lumpkin, Ga., says that among the eighty-six negro convicts, thirty-five are preachers, and all are members of the church.

Wednesday, September the 1st, instead of August 28th, as formerly reported, has been definitely settled upon as the time for the race between Haulan and Courtney on Jamaica Bay over a three-mile course for a purse of $2,500.

It seems that they have become friends again as they are said to have spoken and shook hands at Rockaway the other day for the first time in three years.

An exchange tells of a man by the name of Robinson who was short-sighted and wore spectacles. In going down the street one day he accidentally trod on the foot of a pretty young lady.

"Awkward fellow," said she, "don't you see? And you wear spectacles, too." Robinson smiled sweetly, as he contemplated the injured member. "I beg your pardon," said he, "but I should need a microscope to see your foot." We suppose it is needless to say that it was granted.

Since the release of Cutting, as far as he is concerned, no further trouble is anticipated with Mexico. The case of Arrese has not yet been settled, but no doubt will be, as Secretary Bayard has said from the beginning. If the hot-blooded Texans could have had their way the United States would have been plunged into war today, but our cool and wise government did not so see fit, and, what might not have been a war with Mexico alone, has been averted.

It is difficult to forestall what will be the outcome of the present disturbance in Central Southern Europe. It seems that the action of Alexander, Prince of Bulgaria, a province lying on the north of Turkey, have not been in concert with a portion of his subjects, as well as some of the more important powers. Dispatches announce that the Prince was taken unaware from his palace in Sofia at midnight by a Russianized regiment of cavalry and carried away to a place called Reni on Russian territory. While this seems to be in accord with a large number of Bulgarians, yet the majority of the populace have risen up and declared their adherence to Prince Alexander. A second provisional government has been set up with headquarters at Timova, the former capital, with M. Stambouff as President. He has summoned the Bulgarian militia to service and will proceed to rescue the Prince and escort him back to Sophia to be replaced upon the throne.

Secretary Bayard to Governor Ireland.
AUSTIN, Tex., Aug. 23.—Secretary Bayard has written Governor Ireland that, from the report of our Consul at Piedras Negras, it appears that all the acts which constitute kidnapping in the Arrese case were committed by the officers at Nueces county, Texas. If it should appear that Mondragon or any other Mexican instigated or aided the American side in the kidnapping, constituting under the laws of Texas, kidnapping, a case may possibly be presented for a demand on Mexico for the extradition of the offenders.

Cutting Doesn't Rejoice in Freedom.
EL PASO, Tex., August 23.—Cutting received notice of his prospective freedom in a very gloomy manner, saying that now that the Mexican Government was going to turn him loose in this manner, he did not see how he would be paid for his imprisonment. Consul Bayard, who was present, assured him that that would make no difference in his claim for damages, for though the Mexican Government might now release him they would still be compelled to pay for his illegal imprisonment, as one of the boldest rights of an American citizen had been violated in his person. This seemed to cheer the prisoner, and he informed the Consul that he wanted $10,000 indemnity. The Mexican Consul scoffs at the idea that Mexico will pay any indemnity.

Railroad Collision.
BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Aug. 24.—This morning, six miles west of here, a freight train collided with a passenger train on the Michigan Central railroad. Two parties were badly injured. Two wagons were tipped over, three freight cars loaded with lumber and salt and went down a forty foot bank. A defective air-brake caused the accident.

Kinston Items.

Mark Cecil, infant son of W. T. Oast, was taken suddenly sick last Monday and died in about an hour after he was taken, it is supposed of congestion of the brain.

Col. L. W. Humphrey, of Goldsboro, was among the "visiting statesmen" at the Republican Congressional convention here last Wednesday. He is a power in nominating conventions.

Otis Griffin, son of E. M. Griffin of this place, about eight years old, came very near being drowned while playing on a plank over deep water in the Kinston park last Wednesday. He was taken out of the water just in time to save life.

Indicted parties are learning how to circumvent grand jurors in the matter of indictments. They colleague with witnesses and make friends with complainants, who, on getting in the grand jury room, suppress facts or suggest falsehoods as inclination disposes them.

The delegates to the Republican convention at Kinston last Wednesday commenced pouring in on the evening of the 23d, and by night of the 24th every available house in the town was occupied. The boarding-house of Wiley Lowery was soon overflowing full, with the Hotel de Hunter, Singleton's Metropolitan House and the Hotel Lincoln on the European plan drew all the patronage they could accommodate.

There was some delay in securing a place for holding the convention, but at length Fisher's Hall being obtained, the delegates repaired there and "opened the ball." The irregulars organized at one end of the hall with Frank Dancy as chairman and nominated Israel B. Abbott of Craven county as their candidate for Congress. Mr. Abbott was present, accepted the nomination and declared himself a candidate. This set them left the hall, whereupon A. M. Watson, chairman of the Republican executive committee of the 3d Congressional district called the regulars to order and proceeded with the business of the convention. J. E. O'Hara was nominated for Congress and the two Republican candidates in the field in the 3d district with sufficient Republican majority in the district to make the contest interesting and close, it being understood a Democratic candidate will be nominated.

The progress of the business in the Superior Court has been retarded to a considerable extent by the trial of the case of State vs. Job L. Stroud and Sam'l Howard for hog stealing. If believed, the State witnesses were very damaging to the defendants, but in the progress of the testimony it came out by confession that many of them were hog thieves themselves, while some of them had such bad character otherwise as to make their testimony unreliable and difficult for a jury to credit. The jury have been kept together since their empanelment and last Wednesday morning returned a verdict of guilty as to both defendants. After this case was given to the jury, the case of the State vs. A. Slaughter and Park Nunn for assault and battery upon Joel R. Hines was called and a jury secured. Dr. A. J. Fordham was introduced as a State witness. The defence objected to him as being an infidel, but after examination the court admitted the evidence. The defendants were charged with an aggravated case of assault and battery. Dr. Fordham testified that when he saw Hines one of his ribs was broken, another fractured and one of his eyes was bruised. The complainant, Hines and a colored witness, both proving good character, said the defendant Nunn got out of the buggy and kicked complainant Hines while he was in the scuffle with Slaughter. The defendant Nunn swore he did not kick Hines at all, and the defendant Slaughter, admitting the battery, also swore that Nunn did not kick Hines. The jury returned a verdict of guilty as to Slaughter and not guilty as to Nunn. The case of W. H. Whitfield for manslaughter in the killing of J. J. Sellers last winter was taken up last Wednesday. The defendant was acquitted, the jury agreeing without leaving the box.

General Joseph E. Johnston.
ST. LOUIS, Aug. 24.—The reports which reached here from Washington to the effect that General Joseph E. Johnston is dying in this city are incorrect. The General arrived here yesterday from the West on private business. He has been suffering from a slight attack of malaria for several days, but was so far recovered today as to take a drive about the city and attend to his business.

China Keeping an Eye on Russia.
LONDON, Aug. 23.—Despatches from Tientsin say that the Chinese Government has decided to despatch troops to the neighborhood of Port Lazareff as a precautionary measure against the reported design of Russia to seize that place.

Wonderful Cures.
W. B. Hoyt & Co., wholesale and retail druggists of Rome, Ga., say: "We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Bucklen's Arnica Salve for two years. Have never handled a remedy that sell as well, or give such universal satisfaction. There have been some wonderful cures effected by these medicines in this city. Several cases of pronounced Consumption have been entirely cured by use of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters. We guarantee them always. Sold by Hancock Bros."

It will surely cure any and every affection of Throat, Lungs, and Chest, and to show our confidence, we invite you to call and get a Trial Bottle Free.

Mr. Gladstone's Speech at Chislehurst.
LONDON, Aug. 23.—Mr. Gladstone, in an address delivered at Chislehurst today, said he would continue to struggle for the restoration of happiness to Ireland, British prejudice against Ireland, he declared, was rapidly disappearing. "All authorities agree," he continued, "that the relations of the two countries are miserable, far as the Irish was concerned, and the honor of England required an immediate settlement of the Irish question."

Burned to Death and Restored to Life.
I know of a man near Mazy's, Ga., who for ten or twelve years was almost a solid sore from head to foot. For three years, his appearance being so horribly repulsive, he refused to let any one see him. The disease, after eating his flesh, commenced on his skull bones. He tried all doctors and medicines without benefit, and no one thought he could possibly recover. At last he began the use of B. B. B., and after using six bottles, his sores were all healed and he was a sound man. He looks just like a man who had been burned to death and then restored to life. The best men of the county know of the case, and several doctors and merchants have spoken of it as a most wonderful case.
