BUSINESS LOCALS.

Attention to the change in the advertisement of E. H. & J. A. Meadows in this issue.

Mr. W. H. Boyd left at this office yesterday $1.00 for the Charleston edition, which was handed over to Mayor Meadows.

Two bales of cotton from Pitt county were sold at the Exchange yesterday by E. W. & S. W. Smallwood, and one from Onslow county by Green, Foy & Co.

Those wishing to subscribe for Rev. Mr. Vase's forthcoming book on the religious history of New Berne and this section can do so by applying to Mr. T. A. Henry, at Patterson's shoe store.

Mr. R. L. Keeler, of Northwest Point, Lighthouses, in Pamlico sound, writes that his station was violently shaken on the night of the 31st of August.

Mr. W. H. Boyd wants agents for the sale of the "The Lee Book," which contains the memoirs of Gen. Robert E. Lee, his military history and campaigns.

The committee on the constitution ticket for Craven county will open the campaign at Yallowboro next Saturday, Sept. 18th.

The Camp Meeting at Harrington Woods.

The Union Camp Meeting at Harrington Woods is now open. Owing to the frequent showers for several days the preparations were not complete, but the meeting was formally opened yesterday by electing Rev. J. W. Telfair Chairman, who read a portion of the scriptures and was followed with prayer by Rev. W. H. Thurber.

Services will be held today at 11 a. m., 3 p. m. and 8 p. m. Rev. J. C. Price, of Salisbury, arrived last night and will attend today.

There is an auditorium well covered which will seat comfortably one thousand persons and twelve or fifteen hundred can get in good hearing range of the preacher's stand.

A separate arbor is arranged for white visitors under which several hundred may be accommodated and hear the discourse and singing.

The undergrowth has been cut out and beautiful grounds laid out for the comfort and convenience of all.

Drive wells were being placed and a supply of good water will be obtained. A large attendance is expected today and tomorrow, and ample arrangements are made at the ferry to transport persons each way at the moderate cost of ten cents for the round trip.

Who Owns the Property?

The property of the following persons in James City was sold for taxes by Sheriff Hahn for 1885, and he has made deeds to the county for the said property:

Daniel Keys, Esther Spellman, Robt. Spivey, Lolly Keys, Gilbert Spruill, Henry Spruill, Anthony Kinsey, Sam'l Stallings, sr., Willie Stanly, Hester Latham, Hasty Taylor, Thomas Vail, Wm. Latham, Hardy Walker, Edward White, Moses Latham, Mary A. Whitehead, Whitehurst, Armstrong Leary, Hardy Williams, Eliza Campbell, John R. W. Bembery, Cathar Ballard, Anthony Eckert, Willie Elliott, sr., Dany Eborn, Isaac Ferber, Elizabeth Hinc, Luke Jones, Mark Nicholas, Olive Williams, Geo. Willis, Paul Williams, jr., Paul Williams, sr., Luke Williams, Lewis Williams.

There is also a large number of deeds for taxes 1886 and 1884.

The average tax due by the above persons is about fifteen cents; the cost paid by the county on each deed was two dollars and sixty-five cents.

From the Leno Star State. HURONS, Tex., Feb. 1886. For many years my wife has been afflicted with a large eating ulcer of the leg, which has had the attention of several doctors, and the use of all kinds of medicine, without benefit.

She was told that B. B. K. would cure her. She has used two bottles, and the ulcers improved rapidly until entirely cured.

It was the first and only medicine that ever did any good. W. J. KIMM. Sold in New Berne by R. N. Duffy and E. H. Meadows.

Gen. E. F. Butler says he is not going into politics any more.

Large schools of whales are reported off the banks of New Foundland. The Mississippi river is said to have been lower this summer than for years.

Mayor Courtney estimates the damage to buildings in Charleston at six million dollars.

Mrs. Gen. W. S. Hancock has about completed writing the reminiscences of her late husband. They are to be published this winter.

A visitor to the cemetery at Mobile, Ala., says that the grave of Father Ryan, the poet priest of the South, is scarcely recognizable for the grass and weeds.

Hon. S. S. Cox is credited with having written home to a friend that he expected to return from Constantinople early in October and announce himself as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress.

Great Britain is closely watching the movements of Russia, Germany and Austria with regard to their movements concerning the Bulgarian crisis.

In a word, John Bull will not be ignored when the sick man's effects are to be distributed.

A Los Angeles (Cal.) paper having no appreciation for the beautiful, complains "There are too many artists here, and not enough tillers of the soil, too many people trying to paint sunsets and picturesque scenes, and too few who are willing to set out vines and plant fruit trees."

A Dakota farmer, grumbling at the poor outlook for wheat in the early summer, offered to give to his wife all the wheat he would have over 1,500 bushels. He has just housed some over 2,500 bushels, and his better-half's memoranda begins, one black silk dress, two new bonnets, etc., etc.

The surrender of Geronimo, the noted Apache chief, and his blood-thirsty followers, will bring a feeling of great relief to the inhabitants of Arizona and New Mexico.

These savages have been the terror of that region for years, and have successfully defied the combined pursuit of United States and Mexican troops, crossing and recrossing the frontier with wonderful adroitness, and on every occasion they would hie from their hidden recesses in the mountain gorges and murder inoffensive inhabitants, burn their homes and carry away all movable property.

Upon this surrender may be termed the close of the Apache campaign.

The population of Syria is almost in a state of jubilation because of the active efforts of Turkey to force Syrian recruits into the Turkish army.

The Syrian reserves have been called out and a general conscription is being enforced. Several thousand recruits have been sent to Damascus. The people generally are much excited. Trade is stagnant. Most of the people are very poor and the recruits who are sent away from their homes as a rule leave their wives and families destitute.

Alexander Leaves Bulgaria.

SOFIA, Sept. 8.—Prince Alexander has signed the deed of abdication, and has departed from Sofia. A crowd of people witnessed Alexander's departure from the palace, and thousands lined the route taken by him through the town.

The Prince stood in his carriage, bowing and saying "Good-by, my brethren," and the populace were much affected. Tears being to many eyes, and hearty wishes were expressed for the Prince's speedy return.

Prince Alexander will go to Lom-Palanka. A manifesto was issued by Alexander prior to his departure. It says: "We, Alexander, Prince of Bulgaria, being convinced that our departure will contribute to Bulgaria's liberation, having received assurances from the Czar that the independence, liberty and rights of our country shall remain intact and that nobody shall interfere with its internal affairs, inform our beloved people that we renounce the throne, wishing to prove how dear to us are the interests of Bulgaria, for which we are willing to sacrifice that which is more precious to us than life."

After expressing his affection for his subjects and his heartfelt gratitude for their devotion, he says he will pray God to shield and prosper the country. He concludes by asking the people to obey the regency and the ministry, to the end that order and peace may be preserved.

Prince Alexander is accompanied by M. Stambouloff. The Prince will go direct to Darmstadt.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—On the definite abdication of Prince Alexander Turkish and Russian commissioners will be appointed to form a provisional government to conduct Bulgarian affairs pending the election by the general assembly of a new ruler.

The Porte has formally declared that Turkey will never consent to any proposal contingent or other, that Russia shall occupy Bulgaria, Eastern Roumelia or any part of Turkey, and the Porte has sent a note to the powers praying them to prevent a foreign military occupation of Bulgaria.

Diplomats at Constantinople believe that the Bulgarian national assembly will re-elect Prince Alexander.

The Vienna Free Press says that Prince Alexander yesterday, when delivering his farewell address to his officers and informing them of the urgent necessity he was under to leave Bulgaria, said: "If my departure is not forever, it is until the national assembly of Bulgaria decides the question."

The St. Petersburg Novoye Vremya urges Russia to secure a good understanding with Turkey, and urges Turkey not to abandon its traditional policy of adapting itself to existing circumstances.

A Russo-Turkish alliance, adds the Bulgarian question, Russia should concern herself less about Western Europe in order to obtain a freer hand in the East.

Turkey has authorized the Ottoman Bank to issue a loan of 500,000 Turkish pounds, half payable directly and the remainder in installments.

The population of Syria is almost in a state of jubilation because of the active efforts of Turkey to force Syrian recruits into the Turkish army.

The Syrian reserves have been called out and a general conscription is being enforced. Several thousand recruits have been sent to Damascus. The people generally are much excited. Trade is stagnant. Most of the people are very poor and the recruits who are sent away from their homes as a rule leave their wives and families destitute.

The President's Long Carriage Drive.

SARASOTA, Fla., Sept. 7.—Their three days' carriage drive ended when the President's party drove up to the log cabin once more at noon today. A pack of hounds in full pursuit of a deer crossed their path at a distance.

Upon entering Sarasota village, the party drove to the workshop of Taxidermist Elmer, and Mr. Cleveland and Dr. Ward left directions for the mounting of the buck heads which they secured in the hunt of last week.

A hunter had just left for mounting the skin of a black bear that had been shot near Paul Smith's. Although the party has travelled ninety-four miles since leaving here last Saturday, Dr. Ward will return to Albany on Friday. President Cleveland may remain a week longer.

Most Excellent. J. J. Adams, Chief of Police, Knoxville, Tenn., writes: "My family and I are beneficiaries of your most excellent medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, having found it to be all that you can claim for it, desire to testify to its virtue. My friends to whom I have recommended it, praise it at every opportunity."

Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is guaranteed to cure coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma, croup, and every affection of throat, chest and lungs. Trial bottles free at Hancock Bros. drug store. Large size $1.00.
