One Yankee brether are proving to be too smart snafors for the old world. For of a quarter of a century they have held the America Cup, and it really looks like they will continue to hold it.

JAMES G. BLAINE has not by any means retired from politics. He is making a vigorous canvass of Maine and New Hampshire.

THE NEW YORK HERALD has been soliciting contributions for some time to procure a testimonial for the American people to show how the American people appreciate the efforts of the American people.

and brought with it dismal forebodings. These again disappeared when an hour later the rain ceased and the sun came out.

Much was done today in the way of relief. The substance committee have distributed 6,000 rations, of which about 1,000 are given to colored people.

has been caused by the tenor of the news. The people are feeling that the situation is very serious.

Professor McGeer, of the Georgia Institute of Technology, writes in a letter to the News and Courier that there is no reason to fear that the earthquake is due to a volcanic eruption.

Five additional deaths from the earthquake were reported at the health department today. Caspar White, a colored infant, eight days old, died in a tank on King street from exposure, infant, five months old, bronchitis and exposure, W. P. Thompson, colored, 35 years old, hemorrhage and exposure, and two other colored infants, both from exposure.

After pointing to the fearful hour of 9.45, which brought such disaster to Charleston, for eight days, the hands on St. Michael's clock made a move yesterday. The watchman, who is charged with the regulation, went up into the clock tower and managed to start the old clock again, and at 2 o'clock the hands started once more to indicate the hour of the day.

Mr. Henry W. Grady, of the Atlanta Constitution, writes in this way to make certain statements, both in his paper and in his correspondence, that his work paper, which are not only wrong as to the actual conditions of affairs here, but are calculated to work great injury to Charleston in the immediate future.

has become unhealthy. Place your hands over the face of the B. B. B. and you will feel the difference.
