City Council Proceedings.

Thursday, Sept. 16, 1886. A special meeting of the board was held this morning at 12 o'clock, Mayor Meadows presiding. Present Councilmen Moore, Hancock, Miller, Crawford and Draney.

Permission was granted Mr. F. T. Patterson to erect two corrugated iron stores on Middle street, between the brick stores now occupied by J. E. Smith and James F. Clark.

Councilmen Moore, Hancock and Mil ler voting in the affirmative, explained why they did so, stating they were opposed to the erection of any kind of building except brick or stone in the business portion of the city, but as permission had been given another party a few days ago to build a building of possition had been given another party a few days ago to build a building of possition had been given another party the chair, spoke briefly of the great pleasure and high honor he felt in the possition had occupied. Anthony Davis, Esq., the solid Pink-hiller, has been invited by the Superior court clerk of Brunswick county to attend the next term of his court, on the 20th inst., to answer the complaint of Judge Russell for the non-payment of $250 for writing the will of the Pink-hiller. Mr. Davis alleges that he employed and paid Frank Koonce to write his will and that he did not engage the services of the Judge and will not pay when he did not contract or authorize any one to contract for him.

Those sporting gents, Leon Albritton and Jas. L. Murphy, have moved to the Waller place, on the south side of the Neuse, about five miles from Kinston and half a mile from the famous Wood-ington mills. Their chief amusement and occupation will consist in fishing in the well stocked mill pond, hunting fox squirrels in the singing pines and he-roically guarding the fine arbor of scuppernong grapes, which flourishes there. Billy Brook's famous horse "snowball" is with them, acting in the triune capacity of butler, valet and cook. Their only piece of house furniture is a table made by placing an old door on a flour barrel, conspicuously arranged near the front door, with a huge brown jug invitingly standing in the centre of the table bearing liberty's motto, "Free trade and sailor's rights. Two champion 'possum dogs lay cozily around, while the 'possum pen is nearly completed for penning and fattening the smooth tail "varmints." A few boarders, if they relish "'possum fat and 'taters," will be accommodated until the 'possum season closes. This announcement is specially intended for the benefit of "old Chow Chow," Jeemes Daniel, Sheriff Taylor, and Kinston's lean town clock keeper, who are ex-pected to exercise the old house of haunts now supposed to be more than two hundred years old.

A respectable number of good and resolute men met at the court house in Kinston last Wednesday to consider what to do and how to do it for the promotion of the prohibition cause. F. Mr. Hires moved: 'That we organize ourselves into a law and order society for the purpose of, enforcing the pro-hibition laws of this town. On this motion Mr. F. B. Loftin spoke with carnestness, expressing his readiness and williness to have all such laws and williness to have all such laws faithfully enferced. Me. a. J. Loftin stoved for the appointment of a committee of twenty, to be appointed by the chairman, who should retire and report all necessary action for the consideration of the meeting. The motion was carried and the committee appointed. After a lengthy discussion, the committee reported substantially: "That we request the various town-"That we request the various town-ships to form prohibition clubs for the promotion of the prohibition cause. That we, the prohibitionists of Lenoir county, will not support for the legislature any candidate who favors the repeal of the prohibition laws."

A spirited fight was made on the adoption of the last resolution, Mr. A. J. Loftin, H. A. Edwards, J. M. Wooten and others favoring the resolution, while N. J. #### An Old Prophecy London Globe in 1883

Somebody has unearthed an old prophecy for the year 1886 of a decidedly uncomfortable nature. It appears that in the church of Oberemmel, near the city of Treveri, in Germany, there is a stone tablet some centuries old, on which is cut the prophetic verse—in proce it may be rendered: "When Mark shall bring us Easter, and Anthony shall sing praises at Pentecost, and John shall swing the censor at the feast of Corpus Domini, then shall the whole earth resound with weepings and wailings." Now it so happens that next year Easter falls on St. Mark's day, Pentecost on that of St. Anthony of Pantecost on that of St. Anthony of Fadua, and the Corpus Domini comes on St. John the Baptist's Day, June 24th. Here, then, are the first conditions of the prophecy fulfilled, so that now believers in prophecies and anxious minded persons generally have only to sit down and think of everything disagreeable that can receible harven to greeable that can possibly happen to this poor old planet and the dwellers thereon between January and Decem-ber, 1886. And really if the cyclones and earthquakes, and epidemics, and "ware and ramors of wars" of the years 1882-3-4-5 are to be celipsed, the prospect is not an agreeable one.

It is said of an old physician in Phila-delphia, when called upon to prescribe for a cough or cold, that he invariably refuses to do so, but recommends his patients to take Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Merfolk Cotton Exchange.

The new rooms of the cotton exchange in the Dodson mathle from building on Main street are ready for occupancy, and are a great improvement over the aid building on Water street. The first room on the second floor is the exchange room, on the left wall of which are large blackboards for the American cotton movement, while on the right are boards for the Liverpool and Bombay statements.

A Western Union telegraph office is also on the east side of the building, which will be under the supervision of Mr. C. Millon Kemp. The floor of this room is to be obvered with fineleum.

In the rear of this is the superintendent's office and directors' room, the floors of which will be covered with Brussels carpet. The whole place is finished with woods stained in imitation of cherry, the contractor for which was Mr. John F. Wilkins. Mr. H.
