BUSINESS LOCALS.
 Any one wanting fresh Beef or Mutton can get them tomorrow morning at C. T. Watson's Fish House. 24 1/2 Old papers for sale at this office.

Mr. W. H. Boyd makes an announcement concerning insurance. See "ad."

Preaching at Neuse union camp meeting commences this evening at 8:00. Fare for round trip, ten cents.

Notice the change in F. Ulrich's "ad." He has something of interest to ladies and gentlemen, too.

Rev. George Needham will assist Rev. Dr. Theo. Whitfield in a series of meetings, commencing next Sunday.

L. Watson is getting in a big stock of clothing. His advertisement has been handed in but not in time for this issue.

The schooner Cherubin arrived from Philadelphia yesterday with a cargo of coal for the A. & N. C. Railroad.

Our Mr. Taylor was in Kinston yesterday and reports the cotton market lively. One hundred and fifty bales were sold at 9.75 to 8.85.

Watson & Daniels are treating our people to fine Beef or Mutton, which they receive daily and keep at their fish-house at the market dock.

Cotton reached its highest point for the season yesterday. Mr. B. Weathers had in a lot that classed above middling and brought nine cents. He uses a Van Winkle gin.

The festival given by the Baptist Church, Aid Society and Excelsior Fire Company will be held on Tuesday night in the store on Pollock street, recently occupied by the National Bank. This is for a good cause and we hope will be largely attended. Remember Cook's Orchestra will furnish music.

O. Marks comes to the front today with news to his customers and all who wish goods. He has purchased a large stock and is offering great inducements to the trade. He has a corps of polite and attentive clerks who will take pleasure in showing any one through his establishment. Go and see.

The second week of the graded school closed with over two hundred pupils registered. Nearly one hundred of these are in the pay department. Visitors to the school report that the order and discipline is good and excellent work is being done. The use of a good building gives this school an advantage over others, and with its fine corps of teachers ought to command a large patronage.

Funerals.
 Mr. G. W. Griffin, from near Manteo, Roanoke Island, is in the city canvassing for "The World's Wonders," a book nicely illustrated and containing considerable information.
 Col. L. W. Humphrey, of Goldsboro, arrived last night.

Still Missing.
 Mr. Geo. Allen shipped by express last week one hundred and forty copies of Allen's Forty Lessons in Double Entry Book-keeping to Baltimore schools. The second edition of this work will soon be exhausted, as the demand is constantly increasing. It gives us pleasure to note the success of this book as it is the work of one of our enterprising citizens.

Presented.
 The Directors of the National Bank in this city, yesterday, elected Mr. John B. Carraway teller, to fill the place of Geo. H. Roberts, elected assistant cashier some weeks ago.
 Mr. Carraway, from long and faithful service as collector and book-keeper, is fully qualified for the position to which he has been promoted, and will doubtless fill the office creditably to himself as he has done through which he has heretofore passed.

The New Democratic Chairmen.
 The county Democratic Executive Committee at its meeting yesterday elected O. R. Guion, Esq., as its chairman for the ensuing two years. Mr. Guion is a young man full of energy, ability and good judgment, and we believe has the good of the county and the honor of the Democratic party at heart. He will make a thorough organization of the party and endeavor to bring out a full vote. The issue involved in the present election are as important to Craven county as they were two years ago. The work done by Mr. Guion two years ago is sufficient evidence of what young men will do when put to the test. We are satisfied that Mr. Guion will prove a worthy successor to Mr. Wood.

Y. M. C. A. meeting, 3 p.m. Leader, Geo. L. Wadsworth. Subject: "How to Find the Lord." Jer. 29: 13, 18.

House Breaking.
 On Monday last the dwelling-house of Mr. Hugh J. Lovick, on Pollock street, was entered and robbed of various articles, among which were two clocks, one pistol, a set of ear-rings, one watch chain, pair of gold bracelets, set of gold cuffs, buttons, a gold ring, etc.
 The jewelry and other articles were offered for sale at different places in the city, and Marshal Harget was soon on the track of the thieves. The information he received led to the arrest of Leon Falford, a colored lad about ten years old, and from information received from him, two others, W. H. Falford, col., aged about eleven, and James Cooper, aged fourteen years, were arrested, and they are held at the station for preliminary trial.

Policeman Bowden, in his search and arrest of the two last named boys yesterday evening, recovered several of the most valuable articles taken from the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Lovick were absent in Beaufort county at the time, and have not yet returned.

Complimentary.
 The Greensboro North State, in an article "About Railroads," pays the following compliment to President Bryan of the A. & N. C. R.:

"President Bryan has purchased a large lot of steel rails for his road, and will keep on doing so until he has a track second to none in the State. When the ditching shall be completed he will have an excellent road bed. Mr. Bryan has certainly developed a high order of railroad ability since he took hold of the 'Millet Road.' It was in a horrible condition when he was placed at its head. It is now and has been for many months in fine order. Mr. H. has certainly hit upon his vocation."

We are glad at any time to reproduce an item complimentary to any of our fellow citizens, but the above is rather a double entendre. We gladly accept the compliment paid Mr. Bryan, but the words, "It was in a horrible condition when he placed at its head," does another one of our esteemed citizens, Col. Jno. D. Whitford, an injustice. When the A. & N. C. R. was turned over to Col. Whitford by the Best crowd it was reported by Gen. W. G. Lewis to be indeed in a horrible condition. But Col. Whitford immediately began the work of improvement and within a year or so had put down several miles of new steel rails, and had greatly improved the rolling stock and road bed. Mr. Bryan, we are pleased to note, is continuing the work of improvement and prosecuting it with vigor and earnestness, and is conducting the affairs of the road in a business-like manner. We can give him full credit for his work without detracting from the merits of his predecessor.

Meeting of Democratic Executive Committee.
 The county Democratic executive committee met at the city hall yesterday.
 M. DeW. Stevenson, Esq., was called to the chair.
 J. H. Hackburn was requested to act as temporary secretary.
 The secretary called the roll.
 The chair announced that a quorum being present, the meeting was ready for business.
 Mr. A. W. Wood put in nomination for permanent chairman O. H. Guion, Esq.
 Mr. R. P. Williams nominated M. DeW. Stevenson, Esq.
 Mr. Stevenson requested his friends not to vote for him, as his business was such that he could not give the position the time which it demanded.
 A ballot was ordered, which resulted in the election of Mr. Guion.
 Mr. J. H. Hackburn was placed in nomination for secretary.
 Mr. Hackburn asked to be excused, and nominated H. S. Nunn.
 H. S. Nunn was elected secretary by acclamation.
 On motion of P. H. Pelletier, Esq., the State Democratic platform was read.
 On motion, the meeting adjourned, subject to the call of the chairman.

Interesting Experiences.
 Hiram Cameron, furniture dealer of Columbus, Ga., tells his experience, thus: "For three years have tried every remedy on the market for Stomach and Kidney Disorders, but got no relief, until I used Electric Bitters. Took five bottles and am now cured, and think Electric Bitters the best blood purifier in the world."—Major A. B. Reid, of West Liberty, Ky., used Electric Bitters for an old standing Kidney affection and says: "Nothing has ever done me so much good as Electric Bitters. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by Hancock Bros."

Some Interesting Developments in the Miller Case.
 Another phase in the apparently interminable case of James H. Miller, the gambler, came up yesterday. He has for twenty days past been in the work-house. Yesterday, through Messrs. Fuller and Gatling, he applied to Chas. D. Uphurch, clerk of the superior court, for permission to appear before the court and take the insolvent debtor's oath. A schedule of Miller's property was at the same time filed. In the petition it was stated that he had served his thirty days' sentence in jail and also twenty days in the work-house, after the end of his term in jail. It set forth further his claim that he could not pay the $3,000 fine imposed upon him, with the costs in the case. The application was for the assignment of his property as far as it would go toward paying the fine and costs. Clerk Uphurch overruled this motion, upon the ground that he did not have the power to entertain it, or any jurisdiction in the matter, after Judge Phillips' judgment, rendered at the last term of court, and after the action which the board of commissioners of this county has taken in the matter.

Miller's counsel at once gave notice of appeal to the superior court. His counsel took the further step of suing out a summons against clerk Uphurch, returnable at October term. The suit is against Mr. Uphurch's bond and is for his alleged failure to perform his duty in the premises. Mr. Uphurch accepted service.

The next step in this curious case is another application for habeas corpus. This is to be made, it was learned yesterday, before Judge Guion at Washington next Monday. —News and Observer.
