THE JOURNAL.

NEW BERNE, N. C., OCT. 6, 1886.

Not To Be Bluffed.
"President and wife got in town last night!" he confidently inquired on the market yesterday morning.
"No, sir. They are not coming this way that I've heard of."
"They ain't! Don't they take in Detroit on their bridge tower?"
"No."
"Wall, that's funny. They got the story all over our neighborhood that the President and wife would be here to-day, and nothing would do but the old woman must ride in with me to see 'em. Say, Jane, this man says they won't be here."
"I don't believe it," she bluntly replied.
"I assure you, madam," he replied, that any such report is false. The President and wife are in Washington."
She would not be convinced until her husband had inquired of several other persons and received the same replies.
"Wall, you've had your trip for nothing," he remarked.
"I guess not," she replied, as she climbed down over the wheel, "Samuel, the first thing on the programme is ginger ale. Then comes soda water with sarsaparilla syrup. Then we'll have peanuts and popcorn, and if we feel like it we'll spread out on some candy. I'm going to show the President of the United States that he can't bluff me worth a cent!"—Detroit Free Press.

THE CENTURY
FOR 1885-86.

The remarkable interest in the War Papers and in the many timely articles and strong serial features published recently in THE CENTURY has given that magazine a regular circulation of
More than 300,000 Copies Monthly.
Among the features for the coming volume which begins with the November number are:
The War Papers
By General Grant and Others.
These will be continued (most of them illustrated) until the chief events of the Civil War have been described by leading participants on both sides. General Grant's papers include descriptions of the battles of Chancellorsville and the Wilderness. General McClellan will write of Antietam, General B. C. Bull of Shiloh, General Pope of Leesport and others of the Second Bull Run, etc. Naval combats, including the fight between the Monitor and the Alabama, by officers of both ships, will be described.
The "Reollections of a Private" and special war papers of an anecdotal or humorous character will be features of the year.
Serial Stories by W. D. Howells, Mary Halleck Foote and George W. Cable.
Mr. Howells' serial will be in lighter vein than "The Rise of Silas Lapham." Mrs. Foote's is a story of military life, and Mr. Cable's a novelette of the Academics of Louisiana. Mr. Cable will also contribute a series of papers on Slave songs and dances, including negro sermons weekly, etc.

Special Features
Include "A Tricycle Pilgrimage to Rome," illustrated by Pennell; Historical Papers by Edward Eggleston, and others; Papers on Paris, by S. G. W. Benjamin, lately U. S. Minister, with numerous illustrations; Astronomical Articles, practical and popular, on "Ideal Astronomy"; Papers on Christian Unity by representatives of various religious denominations; Papers on Manual Education, by various experts, etc., etc.

Short Stories
By Frank R. Stockton, Mrs. Helen Jackson (G. H.), Mrs. Mary Halleck Foote, Joel Chandler Harris, E. H. Royce, T. A. Janvier, Julian Hawthorne, Richard M. Johnson, and others, and poems by leading poets. The Departments—"Open Letters," "Brio-Bran," etc., will be fully sustained.

The Illustrations
Will be kept up to the standard which has made THE CENTURY engravings famous the world over.
Prices: A Special Offer.
Regular subscription price, $5.00 a year. To enable new readers to get started, we will, with contributions from Generals Grant, Beauregard, McClellan, J. B. Johnston, Lee, Wallace, Admiral Porter, and others, we will send the 12 back numbers, November, 1885, to October, 1886, with a year's subscription beginning 1887, for $6.00 for the whole. A subscription, with the 12 numbers bound in two handsome volumes, $7.50 for the whole. All numbers daily supplied at three prices: 1. Single copies, 2. Five copies, 3. Ten copies. A few specimens copy (back numbers) will be sent on request. Mention this paper. All orders and prepayments taken—subscriptions and supply orders according to our special offer, or remittance may be made directly to THE CENTURY CO., New York City. Circulars free. New Berne, N. C., Sept. 5, 1886.
