Premiums are offered on cotton, as much as $50; tobacco $40 for ten pounds; corn, $50; wheat, $50; oats, $50; rye, $20; rice $20. The above are not the only premiums on the above crops, but we only mention a few to show that it will pay the farmers to show their products. Handsome sums are given all ladies work of every kind, both fancy ornamental and useful; preserves, pickles jellies, &c. But we can't take up space in telling of them. Best plan is to send to the Secretary at Raleigh for a premium list. Those who enjoy fine trials of speed will miss a great treat if they stay away from the coming State Fair.

The premiums in this department are large enough to induce the fastest horses in the country to come.

NEW YORK, October 16.—Greene & Co's report says: The market was feverish, but generally averaged somewhat higher. It first advanced, making some Sa4 points, with a subsequent partial reaction, but the close was steady, at a fraction above last evening. The general influences, both domestic and foreign, appeared to show very little change, and the fluctuations were due principally to the erratio movements of the leading operators. principally to the erratic movements of the leading operators, representing both the bull and bear sides.
