At 11 o'clock, Thursday, the 28th October, Horse parade, at which time Premium Horses will be designated by blue and red ribbons. Blue indicating first premium; red, second premium. This parade will be under the charge of Mr. W. F. Batchelor, Supervisor of the Department of Horses, and promises from present indications to be the finest show of horse fiesh ever seem in the Old show of horse ficah ever seen in the Old North State. We hope this may be true for it is our desire to show to our Nor thern friends, who will visit us on that occasion that North Carolina is well adapted to raising fine stock. Our climate is mild, our lands produce good clover and grass as has been proven this year by Messrs. Williamson and Upchurch of Raleigh; Wordsworth Charlotte, and many other prominent farmers throughout North Carolina. The Northern-born Settlers are going to try to get Cleveland to be present at their Convention. A large number of prominent Northern visitors will be present and deliver addresses.
