A MESSENGER OF GOD.—A man came into a room, where lay the still form of a little boy, surrounded by mourning friends. "You wonder that I care so much," he said, "as the tears rolled down his cheeks, "but your boy was a messenger of God to me. One time I was coming down by a long ladder from a very high roof, and found your little boy standing close beside me when I reached the ground. He looked up in my face with childish wonder, and asked, 'Weren't you afraid of falling when you were up so high?' And before I had time to answer, he said: 'Ah, I know why you were not afraid: you said your prayers this morning before you began your work.' I had not prayed; but I never forgot to pray from that day to this, and by God's blessing, I never will."

An Old Citizen Speaks.
Mr. J. M. Norris, an old resident of Rome, Ga., says, that he had been badly troubled with kidney complaint for a great many years and with cessants for three years; at times could scarcely walk and had tried many remedies without benefit, until he began taking Electric Bitters and anointing his hands and feet with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. This treatment afforded him great relief and he strongly recommends Electric Bitters to all who suffer with kidney complaints, or need a blood purifier. Sold by Hancock Bros.

EARLY TRAINING.—To shape the character of a child aright is a task which perhaps only those who have been wisely disciplined in youth are thoroughly competent to perform. Few know how to go about it; fewer still possess the requisite patience and equanimity to adhere persistently to the rules under which alone it can be accomplished. The great difficulty is with those strange propensities which, wholesome in themselves, and implanted in our nature for wise purposes, may become, if unregulated by principle, the sources of the worst vices and the most heinous crimes.

A Mad Girl.
Thousands of men and women all over our country are silently miserable, while the outside world think you have no cause to grieve. But, ah! We pronounce no anathemas against any other remedy, but we assert that one single bottle of Dr. R. B. W. will do more in the cure of any case of blood poison than swears and oaths of any other. One week is free and it tells the tale. Address: BLOOD BALM CO., Atlanta, Ga. Sold in New Berne by R. N. Duffy and E. H. Meadows.
