The street lamps were lighted on Sunday night, an evidence of returning prosperity to the city. Vorz early and late and as often as your conscience and the judges of election will allow you, and then let politics alone for a season. The series of meetings at the Methodist Church have resulted in much good. The pastor, Rev. L. W. Crawford, has the day which was made by labored earnestly for the cause, and his efforts have been crowned with twentyfive additions to the church. We are in receipt of The Christian Washington, N. C., by G. W. Jackson, jr., editor and proprietor. It is a fivecolumn paper, well gotten up, and is to be issued semi-monthly at 75 cents per year in advance. Our best wishes for its success. The song service and Bible reading at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday were especially few words for O'llara on the outskirts interesting. The attendance was large and has been gradually on the increase that they were making a terrible mince the close of the heated term. We gladly note more attention being given the singing, a feature we deem so attractive and valuable.

It is not necessary that a man should be dead in love with the candidate for whom he votes. The true patriot and citizen often votes for a man whom he regards as his personal enemy. The first thing to accertain is, is the candidate honest, capable and true. The next thing, is he the nominee of the party to whom you belong. Clark and Simmons are both honest, capable and true men, and they are the nominees of their party. Vote for both.

Lookout for Mixed Tickets. The candidates on the Hahn ticket having seen the hand-writing on the wall and fearing defeat, have had mixed tickets printed-part coalition and part "Hahncock." Let our coalition friends be on their guard and not be deceived by this little scheme. Scrutinize your tickets closely and see that they are straight!

Hotel Albert The new hotel being erected by Mr. Moses Patterson, when completed will be an ornament to the city. The roof is about finished and it is hoped to have it completed by the first of January. It has been named "Hotel Albert" in hoper of Mr. Patterson's little grandson, Albert, son of J. A. Patterson.

The building is to be supplied with all dern conveniences, so that guests om all parts of the country can be en-tained in the best style.

An Old Chigen Speaks

Mr. J. M. Norris, an old resident of Rome, Ga., says, that he had been hadly troubled with kidney complaint for a great many years and with eczema fer three years; at times could scarcely walk and had tried many remedios without benefit, until he began taking Electric Bitters and anointing his hands and feet with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. This treatment afforded him great relief and he strongly recommends Electric Bitters to all who suffer with kidney complaints, or need a blood purifier. Sold by Hancock Bros. Mr. J. M.
