The Goldsboro Fair begins today. Special rates have been offered over the A. & N. C. R. R.

The Shenandoah made regular trip yesterday, bringing in merchandise and carrying out cotton.

Casino Opera Company will appear in this city Tuesday Nov. 9th in Mikado, so we have been informed by the agent of the Theatre.

Fifty-eight bales of cotton sold at the exchange yesterday at 8.40 to 8.50. The New York exchange being closed, no market reports were received.

Personal.
S. H. Street left on the Shenandoah yesterday for the Elizabeth City Fair.

Kinston Items.

No damage here from frost yet. Cotton is timid yet; not a great deal coming in.

One of our young merchants spent two days at the Raleigh fair. Why? All the Kinston schools will have a holiday on Thursday, to attend the Goldsboro fair.

Mr. Elisha Lewis, of Davis county, spent a few days here last week, on a visit to his parents.

Mr. John T. Waleh, jr., a former resident of Kinston is now in business in Durham as a merchandise broker.

Rev. A. J. Hires, pastor of the Baptist church, has been quite seriously sick for a few days, but is now much better.

The price of chickens has fallen two points, but they are too high yet. The opossum season is on hand now and the price of chicken meat must come down.

We will hold the day when the New river oyster carts will begin their regular trips. Then we will strike another blow at the price of the gallinaceous fowl.

Rev. N. M. Jurney, pastor of the Methodist Church, has been preaching some unusually good sermons recently. He has many admirers here among the other denominations.

The delegates and visitors to the Atlantic Baptist Association which was held here last week, expressed themselves as mutually pleased with the hospitality of Kinston.

Prof. Geo. D. Meares and Mr. J. L. Hartfield are agents for the sale of pianos. The professor is a first-class judge of such things, and those wanting a piano would do well to see him or write to him before buying.

One of Rev. Israel Harding's morning-glories, which he planted on the north side of the court-house, has grown up a climbing rod to its very point and then has drooped its head in utter despair at not being able to climb higher.

Gov. Vance's speech here, on Friday, was a grand and masterly effort, worthy of him and of the occasion. No man can praise Vance—there is no room or any more. He sways a multitude "at his own sweet will." Even all the little boys are Vance men.

La Grange Items.

Mr. J. H. Wooten is still very sick at his home.

Col. Davis and the cadets will visit the Fair at Goldsboro next Thursday.

We are sorry to hear that Rev. Mr. Rose was so unfortunate as to lose his horse last week.

Religious services at the M. E. Church last Sunday, conducted by Rev. A. R. Morgan and others.

We are glad to see the many complimentary notices given Rev. G. W. Sanderlin for the aids addresses delivered by him at our State Fair.

The harvest wind and rain known to the oldest inhabitants visited this town last Thursday evening. The rain was almost one solid sheet of water and the wind blew frightfully. But little damage was done save the blowing down of much fencing and the unroofing of stables and other out-houses. The blow and rain lasted about three minutes, during which time considerable hail fell. We are glad to hear that the section visited by the storm was very small.

There are two forms of chronic rheumatism, one in which the joints are swollen and red without fever, and the appetite and digestion good, in the other the joints are neither red nor swollen, but only stiff and painful. In either form Salicylate will be relied on to effect a cure. It kills pain. Price 25 cents a bottle.

It is now with a good article of Pure Tobacco, ask your dealer for "The King."

ELECTION RETURNS.

The election returns come in slowly, an indication of considerable scratching. We give elsewhere the vote as far as heard from to 1 a. m.

We cannot understand the vote at Core creek for Simmons. It is reported that the tickets were destroyed; but what were the Democrats doing to allow such a thing, and could they not write tickets?

The county returns indicate that Clark and Lane and the coalition ticket is in doubt. The official count will be necessary to decide. The Democrats, so far as we can learn, except those connected with the railroad and a few others who advised the coalition movement in the beginning but turned their backs on it after they had gotten the party into it, gave it a hearty support. The Hahn crowd made a break on the 6th precinct of the 5th ward, Stimson's stronghold, and instead of the one hundred and fifty majority expected for the coalition ticket, it gave over one hundred majority against it. Stimson has always had a strong following in that precinct as the vote of 1882 showed, and his friends claimed up to yesterday morning that he still held them, but the votes have gone the other way.

But notwithstanding this the vote is close and the coalition ticket may yet be elected.

The indications are that Simmons is elected.

NEWS AND OBSERVER.

Interesting Experiences.

Hiram Cameron, furniture dealer of Columbus, Ga., tells his experience, thus: "For three years have tried every remedy on the market for Stomach and Kidney Disorders, but got no relief, until I used Electric Bitters. Took five bottles and am now cured, and think Electric Bitters the best blood purifier in the world."—Major A. B. Reid, of West Liberty, Ky., used Electric Bitters for an old standing kidney affection and says: "Nothing has ever done me so much good as Electric Bitters. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by Hancock Bros.

Mr. Cleveland's Minister to England.

On the day that Cleveland was nominated Edwin J. Phelps was sitting on the veranda of the Rockingham House at Portsmouth, N. H., talking with Associate Justice Gray of the United States Supreme Court. The business of Mr. Phelps in Portsmouth at that time was to argue a case before Mr. Justice Gray. An old acquaintance going by stopped and said to Mr. Phelps: "I see by the bulletin boards that you have a Presidential candidate." Mr. Phelps looked up inquiringly, and his friend said: "It is Grover Cleveland." "You don't mean it?" exclaimed Mr. Phelps in apparent great surprise. "Yes," replied his friend, "he has received the nomination. Do you know him?" "No," said Mr. Phelps. "I never saw him."

"Well, tell me," asked his friend, "what sort of a fellow is he, anyhow?" There was a silence of some moments, when Mr. Phelps looked up and said: "I will tell you what sort of a fellow he is. He is about a fifth-rate lawyer. Well, you may know what sort of a lawyer he is when he abandons his profession to become Sheriff of Buffalo, and by accident he was made Mayor, and by a turn of the wheel of fortune he became Governor of New York, and now he has been nominated, so you say, for President. Of course he will never had such a good opportunity to elect his candidate as it has this time, but they have put up Cleveland, whom nobody knows, and he is unfit and defeat is certain. If he had nominated Bayard, his election would have been a foregone conclusion."

Justice Gray sat quietly by, but with a roguish twinkle in his eye, and, said the gentleman who tells the story, "Mr. Justice Gray, if he could be induced to say anything about the matter, would not deny it."

A Doctor's Woe.

CHAMFORDVILLE, Ga., June 11. Forten years I have been suffering with muscular Rheumatism. Patent medicines and physicians' prescriptions failed to give relief. Last summer I commenced the use of B. B. and experienced partial relief before using one bottle. I continued its use and gladly confess that it is the best and quickest medicine for Rheumatism I have ever tried, and cheerfully recommend it to the public.
