Has Goods that everybody wants. We are offering them at prices that all can well afford to pay. We don't pretend to give a list of all our attractions; if we did we should have to pay for extra advertising; but here is a condensed and sufficiently representative bill, which we commend to your attention.

Dress Goods.

A fine Cassimer, pure wool, for 10c. per yard, in nice shades, worth 20c. of any man's money. Fine Debaize and other dress goods at remarkably low prices; all we ask is an inspection. Then in Fine Goods we have all wool Cable Serges, 36 inches wide, Camel's Hair Serges, French Plaid Cashmere, Striped French Silk and Worsted Hair Mixed Cloth.

In BLACK GOODS we have all wool and Camel's Hair Suitings and Serges, Lupin's Cashmeres, etc., etc., among which is a half wool double width Cashmere, nice looking, for 20c. per yard.

See our Heavy Black Silk. Then look at our Black Satin Rhodamite.

Wraps for Ladies and Misses,

Walking Jackets, Jersey Jackets and Dolmans, made of boucle cloth and other fabrics, are cheap.

Our Hosiery Stock

Is complete and very low. We realize that times are hard, have bought our stock at bottom prices, and sell them very close.

We have more than a thousand things too numerous to mention a full line of Corsets, Gloves, Ladies' and Children's Vests, Handkerchiefs, Buttons, Gimps, Fringes, Etc., Etc., Etc.

All we ask of our friends is a trial; if we don't suit you both in price and quality it won't be our fault.

We are the only parties that sell the Celebrated Diamond Shirt, Collars and Cuffs.

We think them better than any other you can find in this market.

To our friends in the country and city we would say we are very anxious to have your trade. We are headquarters in this city for styles, and we sell good goods at hard time prices. If you want Fine or Common Goods we have them.

Then to that class of our friends, the Wholesale Buyers, we would say we wish you all the success possible, and will sell you goods very, very cheap, but unless you can pay the cash spot down we cannot sell you, as we have marked our goods too close to sell them on time.

We respectfully request a call from all, and if we don't sell you it won't be because our goods are not cheap.

Don't Forget

A. M. BAKER.

THE JOURNAL.

NEW BERN, N. C., NOV. 16, 1886.

AN INQUIRY.

COMPOSED BY ANNIE CLARKE.

Stop sweet singer, and tell me if thou knowest,
Some fair land o'er which thou rovest,
Some valley far out West,
The dear little singer sweet, but low
Drew near her side and answered
"No."

Oh! gentle moon, so kind and bright,
Can'st thou answer for a question to-night—
Tell me of a hand for which I sigh,
Where'through never lives, and friendship
Ship never dies?

The moon moved on, but very slow,
And sweet, but sad, responded, "No."
Oh! mighty deep, whose waters glisten
Clear,
Dost thou know of an island far away
Where free from toil one can stay?
For a moment they stopped their perpetual flow,
Then on they went as they answered,
"No."

Tell me, O my secret soul, speak from within,
Is there no resting place from sorrow
and from sin?
Is there no place where one may be blessed,
From all earth's trouble and sorrow
rest?

Faith, Hope and Love, best boons to mortals given
Sweetly whispered, "Yes, in Heaven."

A young man having saved a girl loved from drowning, her grateful father thanked him with enthusiasm, and said: "My dear sir, how can I reward you? Which would you rather I should give you, two hundred thousand dollars, or the hand of my dear daughter?"
The young man, thinking to get both the money and the girl, answered: "The hand of your daughter, sir, by all odds." After they were married, the old man said to his son-in-law: "I'm glad you chose Susan's hand, for, as I'm almost penniless, I should have had hard work to raise the two hundred thousand dollars!" The young man was silent.

The bright six-year old son of a genial clergyman had been engaged with some of his friends in wrongdoing, and was called into the house under circumstances that seemed ominous. "Did you get licked?"
inquired one of his matter-of-fact companions the next day. "Well, yes, I did," admitted the young philosopher; "but I should have got off all right if there'd been anything for supper that father liked."

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a recipe that will cure
you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN,
