THANKSGIVING.—The New Berne Board of Trade at a regular meeting held on Thursday, Nov. 18th, adopted a resolution not to open their places of business on Thursday the 25th day of November, it being the day set apart by the President of the United States and the Governor of North Carolina for the people to observe as a day of thanksgiving and prayer.

JAMES REDMOND,
Secretary and Treasurer.

The steamer Trent arrived from up Trent river last night with a full cargo of cotton.

The Y. M. C. A. will hold union services this evening at the Baptist church. The public cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. A. T. Jenkins has enlarged her school-room. She now has twenty-five pupils. She is a most excellent teacher and thoroughly devoted to her work.

Rice is coming in scattering this year. Many farmers are holding back for a better price, but the outlook is not very bright for an advance in the market.

A delightful view of the city, surrounding country and the waters of Neuse and Trent rivers can be had from the observatory of the Hotel Albert.

While we read of snows, snow storms and blizzards in the North and Northwest, New Berne is enjoying a mild and delightful climate. Winter visitors ought to come on.

Mr. J. F. Congdon requests us to state that he has not advanced the price of slabs. His price is the same the year round, no matter how cold the weather or how frequent elections are held.

The attractive advertisements in the WEEKLY JOURNAL are drawing customers from a distance to trade. We met some in the city yesterday who live only a few miles from the Duplin line. They will come again.

Elder J. S. Dukes, an Advent preacher of Wilmington, N. C., will preach at Mechanics' engine house, on Hancock street, today, Sunday, at 11 o'clock; also at 7 p. m. every night during the coming week. The public are cordially invited. Subject this a. m. will be The Kingdom, When and Where; Rev. 11:70.

Personals.
Miss Estella Kemp is in the city, visiting Miss Sallie Faison.

Rev. Dr. Theo. Whitfield returned from Wilmington last night, where he has been attending the Baptist State Convention.

Mr. J. A. Patterson and wife returned from a visit North last night.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Lehman arrived last night.

Messrs. W. E. Kornagay and J. W. Bryan arrived last night on their way to Pamlico court.

Clement Manly, Esq., attended Kinston court yesterday.

C. B. Thomas, Esq., returned from Raleigh last night.
McD. Taylor, of La Grange, arrived last night.

Paper From Wood Pulp.
In our notice of the shipment of a lot of sulphite wood pulp by the S. H. Gray Manufacturing Co., by the steamer Experiment on Friday, we stated that a very good article of newspaper stock was made from it. We have before us a sample of paper made from this pulp by the Richmond Paper Co. and we find it a most excellent article of writing paper. We are now informed by Capt. Gray that this pulp is the very best grade used in place of lino-stock. The sample sent us is of a very high grade. The community is to be congratulated on the success which Capt. Gray has met in this enterprise. We need more men like him.

If you wish a Good Article Of FLEM TORRAGON, ask your dealer for "612 BIP."

Land For Sale.

Mr. P. Trenwith offers for sale in this issue of the JOURNAL a valuable tract of land near New Berne. A description is given in the advertisement. Here is a splendid chance for investment, as Mr. Trenwith is offering the land for sale because he wants to sell, and when a man wants to sell a thing he is the man, for one who wants to purchase, to see.

Church Services To-Day.
Christ Church—V. W. Shields, Rector. Sunday next before Advent. 8 a. m., Holy Communion; other services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 4 p. m. The public is always invited to take part in the services of this church. Ushers always at the doors to provide seats.
Methodist Church—Services in the Methodist church at 11 a. m., conducted by the pastor, Rev. L. W. Crawford. All persons are cordially invited to attend. At night the Methodist congregation will join in a union service at the Baptist church, held under auspices of the Y. M. C. A.
Presbyterian Church—Services by the pastor, Rev. L. C. Vass, at 11 a. m. and 4:30 p. m. Sabbath school at 3 p. m. The public are cordially invited to attend these services.

Baptist Church—Rev. Dr. Theo. Whitfield, pastor. Services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 3 p. m. Seats free and the public cordially invited to attend all the services of this church.
Y. M. C. A.—At their rooms on Middle street at 5 p. m. C. T. Hancock, leader. Topic, "A Merchandise that is better than Silver." Prov. 3:13, 26. Matt. xiii:44, 46.

Horse Hacked.
A spirited animal hitched to a buggy went dashing down Craven street yesterday with one of our most active young men and a colored boy holding the reins. It was no trouble to move along on the hard street, and so on they dashed down to the cotton exchange, where the occupants of the buggy managed to rein up to the ditch on the sidewalk and have themselves dumped out with but slight injury to their persons or to the buggy. After the buggy was overturned the animal stopped as if the job she was trying to accomplish was finished.

The young gentleman, who is every inch a man of pluck, immediately set the buggy to right, hitched the animal and took a pleasant drive.
The effect of the excitement was to cause some activity in the market for horse frames. One was put up for sale at auction at the corner of South Front and Middle streets—a frame that was built 27 years ago last spring—where a large crowd gathered, and the bidding was lively. The bid soon ran up to six dollars and there is no telling where it would have stopped, but Auctioneer Street announced that the buggy tied to the frame would have to be taken, too. These auctioneers know how to take advantage of an excitement.

Sheriff Murrill's Vote.
CATHARINE LAKE, Nov. 19, '86.
EDITOR JOURNAL:—I saw in your report of the vote of this county that Murrill received 94 votes and Farnell 576 and Frazel 20. And then again I see your Swansboro correspondent says the old sheriff, Murrill, has pulled through again by about 250 majority. Now it seems a little peculiar that these mistakes should occur in this particular case. Can it be thorough jealousy, envy or pure malice, that prompts such misrepresentations on the part of these reporters? I don't think either of them voted for Murrill, which fact makes it look like it. I don't suppose Murrill cares anything about it, but his friends like to see his vote correctly stated, for under the circumstances they feel proud of it. His vote was 914, Farnell's 516 and Frazel's 20, and your Swansboro correspondent must have known his majority was more than about 250.

FAIR PLAY.
We had seen an item in both the Wilmington Star and Goldsboro Messenger apologizing for having given Sheriff Murrill's vote as 94, but we never once thought that anybody had given the JOURNAL credit for making such an error. Therefore, we were much surprised when we read the above communication and hastened to examine our files to see what we did report. Upon examination we find in our Daily of November the 9th the vote of Onslow county, which was sent us as official, and in that report is the following:
"For sheriff, E. Murrill, 914; A. P. Farnell, jr., 516; J. O. Frazel, 20."

In our Weekly issue of Nov. 11th the same report appears with the vote for sheriff as given above.

Now if "Fair Play" has seen a copy of the JOURNAL that contained the vote for sheriff as he gives it, he must have received it from somewhere else besides this office. Such figures do not appear in the report that we published as official, and if we have ever published the vote as given by "Fair Play," we do not remember it, and we find it in any where else.

In justice to our Swansboro correspondent, we will state that probably his communication was written before the official vote was announced, or there might have been a typographical error. We do not read the proof of communications by copy unless they contain matter of importance. Our correspondent may have written 850 or 450, or he may have given merely an estimate without knowing the official vote.

The official vote was sent us, by what mistake not, by Mr. Humphrey. Whether he or our Swansboro correspondent voted for Sheriff Murrill we do not know. But "Fair Play" knows, or ought to know, that the JOURNAL would not need, nor allow any one else, in its columns, if we knew it, do Sheriff Murrill an intentional injustice. We know the circumstances under which he became a candidate for re-election, and think that under these circumstances his vote is very flattering indeed. But few men have so continuously held the office of sheriff and given such universal satisfaction.
But when did "Fair Play" see a copy of the JOURNAL with such a vote in it for Sheriff Murrill? We will reward him handsomely if he will send us the paper.

BAPTIST CONVENTION.

Second Day's Proceedings.
MORNING SESSION.
The convention commenced its second day's work promptly at 9:30 a. m. The sunrise prayer and praise meeting had been well attended, and was led by Rev. R. Van Deventer of Edenton.

After reading of the journal of yesterday Mr. G. H. French, of Wilmington, made some touching remarks and prayed for God's blessings upon the members of the convention and the work before them.

The hour for the special order—the report on State missions—arrived. Rev. A. G. McMannaway, of Charlotte, offered a resolution pledging the convention to raise $9,000 for State missions for the next year. Several members suggested that it be made $10,000.

The convention was addressed by Rev. W. R. Gwainy, in behalf of the new church building in that city, and the cause in Guilford county.

Rev. S. J. Howell, of Hamilton, in behalf of the Gospel destitution in the Eastern portion of the State.

Rev. N. B. Cobb, of Hickory, for the Piedmont section, where he insisted Baptist principles were less known than in any section of North Carolina, and where the teachings of the Bible are less believed and practiced.

Rev. A. G. McMannaway cautioned the convention against undertaking too much. If they were ready for a pledge of $10,000 he said, "but let us look at it," he said, "as business men."

Rev. C. Durham, of Durham, spoke to the report generally. "Our strength," he said, "was in God; if we shall depend upon Him, we can go forward."

Rev. G. P. Bostick, of Concord, spoke of the church recently organized in that town, and of their desire and purpose to build a house.

Rev. W. A. Pool, of Lenoir, spoke of the work in that section, and called attention to the need of help in the effort to build a church house in the town of Lenoir. In the course of his remarks he said that it was the religion of Jesus Christ that would settle the difficulties arising between capital and labor.

Rev. W. H. Battle, of Wadesboro, said it would be going backward to undertake no more than was done last year. He thought the convention ought to recognize God's blessing in the past year, by making an offering of greater endeavor for the year to come, and was therefore in favor of the resolution to raise $10,000.

Rev. Dr. Hufham offered to amend the proposition by making the sum $12,500, and in thrilling eloquence spoke for the same. "My days," said he, "are in the past; but you—Vann, McMannaway, Hunter, Norris, Durham Jones and the other host of young men—have the future before you, and why should you falter at difficulties—the work is God's." With passion and power Mr. Hufham drew all hearts to the new proposition.

Prof. J. W. Carr, of the University Chapel Hill, said the members needed teaching on the subject of giving, as a privilege and joy in the Christian life.

Col. L. L. Polk, of Winston, said he believed in taking a step farther and never going backward.

Prof. Thomas Hume, jr., of the University Chapel Hill, looked upon this occasion as an important opportunity, and desired to be recorded as being in hearty sympathy with all that looks to the up-building of the cause of Christ in North Carolina; although so recently coming to the State.

Rev. E. T. Vann, of Wake Forest, wanted the convention to think of this: If the increase for State missions will diminish contributions to other objects?

Rev. J. W. Wildman, of Lenoir, said enthusiasm was all right at the proper time, but not the way to raise money. He spoke of the experience in Virginia on the great memorial occasion.

Maj. W. A. Graham, of Lincoln county, thought members had better take the proposition to the churches, rather than to speak for them here. He, too, had experienced difficulties in meeting the pledges of enthusiastic occasions.

W. H. Pace, Esq., of Raleigh, who has been the chairman of the board of missions, said what had been accomplished during the past year had not been done without a struggle, and two laymen, feeling the importance of coming here without debt on the State mission board, had raised and paid into the treasury one-sixth of the whole amount required. He urged conservatism; was not opposed to the proposition, but wanted every member to feel the weight of the pledge, if made.

Rev. A. D. Cohen, of Smithville, thought members ought to undertake $12,500; and, as it was in the battles of the late war, if North Carolinians were called to the charge they would succeed.

Prof. F. P. Hobgood, President of Oxford Female Seminary, feared the undertaking. Last year many had been under the spur of the corresponding secretary, and he doubted if his association would be able to do next year as much as last for State missions.

Dr. Hufham again urged his proposition to raise $12,500 for the next year.

Rev. Baylus Cade, of Lenoir, said what they needed to do was to go home and perfect the units. He favored the proposition; if they did not undertake great things they would not accomplish them.

After some consultation Dr. Hufham's proposition was withdrawn and that of $10,000 adopted by a heavy rising vote.

Several announcements were made and then the body adjourned with benediction by Rev. J. W. Perry of Statesville.

EVENING SESSION.
The convention assembled at 7:30 p. m.

The congregation sang "Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." The special order for the evening was foreign missions.

Rev. Dr. Whitfield, of New Berne, one of the vice-presidents of the foreign mission board, read the third chapter of Ephesians.

Rev. N. B. Cobb, of Hickory, offered prayer.

Mrs. Jenkins sang as solo "Above the Stars there is Rest."

Prof. Geo. W. Manly, of Wake Forest College, being the first speaker, said what he should say would only be introductory. He believed in enthusiasm and hoped this subject would be enthusiastically received. He referred to the work and great success among the Telugus, and of Adoniram Judson's long waiting and final triumph. The children of Israel were kept back to them at last. He appealed to the members of the convention to lay before their churches the work of foreign missions, that they might be brought in sympathy with its needs.

Rev. Mr. Bell, Assistant Corresponding Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board or the Southern Baptist Convention, was the next speaker introduced. He reviewed the field where the missionaries are located, China, Italy, the Island of Sardinia, Brazil and Mexico. God had peculiarly favored the old North State in the person of Matthew T. Yates, the foremost of all the foreign missionaries, and lately sending to his aid Herring and Bryan. Every missionary sent makes it necessary to send more men, more church houses, more chapels, more schools; and all this calls for more money.

In former times, he said, we prayed for God to open the doors to the heathen world. We don't pray that now; there is no need for it—for the doors are open, and there is not a land or country today where the herald of the cross may not go. We used to pray for God to raise up and send forth men to preach the Gospel to the perishing heathen. This has been done, and almost every day men and women are offering themselves for work in foreign fields. The need upon us now is money. God alone could open the doors and send the men. We are to furnish the money. We need not pray God to turn some of our mountains into gold, and say go and mine it. He will not do it; but He has put the gold in the pockets of the members of the churches and calls on us to give it out.

He appealed for larger contributions and closed his able address.

The congregation stood and sang "There is a Fountain filled with Blood."

Rev. Dr. Whitfield called attention to the fact often lost sight of, that we are under obligations to send the Gospel to all nations; that the nations of the earth without the Word of Life are going down to everlasting night. They are lost now. There are six hundred times as many people in these heathen lands as in North Carolina. If other nations had the Gospel as our America has, what a glory it would be to Christ. Let us think of these things as appealing to us. A million of white Baptists, we are with only twenty-eight missionaries in the foreign field. There are others there, thank God for it, but we are not doing our part in it. Herring and Bryan were sent there none too soon. Yates and Honnax have been compelled to stop for rest. Let us send others and support them.

The congregation sang "The Morning Light is Breaking," and were dismissed.

A Chicago lover bet his girl that he could tell what she was thinking of. He thought she was thinking of him but she wasn't; it was about Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, which had just cured her of a dreadful cough.

A Land-Slide Falls on a Train.

PETERSBURG, Pa., Nov. 18.—At 7 o'clock this morning, as the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and St. Louis railroad limited express from Cincinnati and the West was entering the city, a huge land-slide came down from the bluff between the Point bridge and the Smithfield street bridge, on the south side of the Monongahela river, crushing into the train. Three of the sleepers were almost buried out of sight.

In one of the sleepers a stone weighing over a thousand pounds was lodged. Eight of the passengers were seriously injured. One of whom, a gentleman named Bennett, of New York, was probably die. The injured persons were promptly removed to the Monongahela House, the Seventh Avenue, and the St. James hotels, and are now resting comfortably.

Marvelous.
Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 5, 1884.
One of my customers, Mrs. L. Williams, has been using B. B. B. a short time and reported to me that its effects were simply marvelous, but that it far surpasses all other blood remedies she has used, and that she could heartily sanction anything said in its favor, as it had given her more relief than anything she had ever used before.
