Editor New Berne Journal: Extract from Baltimore Sun's Letter.

My attention having been called to an article in the Washington Gazette signed "Carolina; ; and to an editorial on that article. I shall take the liberty of using the columns of your paper for the purpose of referring to the same. I am not surprised that the writer of the article signed himself "Carolina"; a malicious liar is not anxious that he shall he known. Hatching his false Extract from Baltimore Sun's Letter. WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Senator Beck-has arrived here for the session of Con-gress, and was in search of hotel accom-modations when a representative of The Sun greeted him with an inquiry about the political outlook in Kentucky. The Senator says it is all nonrense to talk about contesting Speaker Carlisle's elec-tion, as the latter received over 700 clear majority, and that fact cannot be wiped out-contest or no contest. It is known shall be known. Hatching his false statements in darkness, he is not likely out-contest or no contest. It is known to proclaim to the public "I am the man." Rather, under the clock of a that a powerful influence was brought to bear against Mr. Carilise, but it was virtuous name, he insiduously attempts fortunately discovered just in time to prevent his defeat. Senator Beck says Mr. Carlisle will be the Speaker of the to ingratiate himself with, as is too often the case, a too credulous public.
