The cold wave flag was flying yesterday, and the cold wave itself is here.
The first watermelon of the season was cut at the JOURNAL office yesterday.
The steamer Trent arrived from Trenton yesterday evening with a cargo of cotton.

The subject of book-keeping without extra charge will commence in the academy next week. Students should go in promptly on the first day.
We call attention to Mr. W. H. Oliver's insurance card in this issue. It represents some of the oldest and strongest companies in existence.
Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Green received yesterday, at their residence on the corner of Hancock and Pollock. A large number of their friends called during the day.

Mr. J. W. Stewart calls attention to his fine horses, mules and buggies in this issue. He proposes to conduct his business on a fair, square basis and give value for the money he receives. He has a fine bunch of horses and mules just received.
We have a communication asking us to answer why the tax collector should continue to pay over monies to D. N. Kilburn who was not declared elected, who has not been sworn as treasurer and who has not filed a bond as such. The JOURNAL is not the proper authority to answer such questions.

A Successful Hunt.
Master Thom. Carraway returned yesterday from a holiday hunt, bearing on his shoulder a venison ham of quite heavy weight. Thom. says they killed other deer besides this one, but he took only one. He shot a hind quarter and the hind of the one he killed himself.
Aquatic Coalition.
We are indebted to Mr. Geo. F. M. Dall for a remarkable specimen of aquatic coalition. It is a clam, an oyster and barnacle all closely joined together, each in his own party distinction, but working in a harmonious coalition. Mr. Ulrich Robinson, of Hunting Quarters, brought them up and also some oysters of the straight-out kind.

Well-Kept.
The new wall on Craven street was tested yesterday by Capt. R. H. Hilton with the Battalion engine, and pronounced O. K. It is over eighty feet deep and furnishes an inexhaustible supply of water. Why not place a pump there in such a way that it may be used for drinking purposes. We are of the opinion that it will afford better drinking water than the one now being used for this purpose. We suggest that the committee on streets and pumps investigate the matter.

Verdict Unanimous.
W. D. Sult, druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of rheumatism of ten years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 30 years' experience is Electric Bitters. Thousands of others have edited their testimonials, so that the verdict is all in favor of the Bitters. It cures all diseases of the liver, kidneys or blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at R. N. Duffy's drug store."

Dispensing The Canvassing Board.

A gentleman discusses at length the election laws and the action of the canvassing board in this issue and says "to be continued." We do not care to discuss this question as it is likely to go into the courts, but if others want to discuss it they can do it through the columns of the JOURNAL at the moderate price of ten dollars per column.

Turnips.
Freeman Ernal Esq., brought in on New Year's day three huge turnips, the largest weighing 5½ pounds. He is of the opinion that there is something wrong about the scales of these farmers who report turnips weighing seven, eight and ten pounds, and we agree with him, because we hardly think they can be grown to weigh two pounds more than these he brought.

Personal.
C. R. Thomas, Esq., of Beaufort, is in the city and will leave tomorrow for Raleigh. He is the representative elect of Carteret, and, we predict, will prove one of the most useful members of the House.
Mr. O. Marks' family left yesterday morning for Charleston to spend a few weeks with relatives and friends.
Mr. P. F. Teiser and daughter, of Richmond, Va., are in the city visiting his son, S. F. Teiser.

New Year's Day In The City.
The first day of 1887 was rather a sloppy but quiet one in the city. The colored people gathered in good numbers to celebrate the Emancipation Proclamation, and our merchants in consequence thereof enjoyed a good New Year's trade.
The Proclamation was more thoroughly celebrated than at any previous New Year's day. The Hahn and Stinson factions, or the straight-outs and coalitionists, each celebrated and each had a good large crowd. The coalitionists, after the street parade, with the Star Band to furnish the music, closed their exercises at the theatre, the place where the Hahn candidates were nominated last summer. The straight-outs after their parade with the Elm City Band to furnish music, closed their exercises at Staley Hall, the place where coalition was born.
In the evening the crowd from both sides assembled on Broad street to witness a foot race between two one-legged men. Whether or not these one-legged men were the representatives of the two factions we did not learn, but we will wager a fresh watermelon rind that a good two-legged Democratic colored man can outrun them both.

We are informed that a large number of the coalition crowd were entertained, after the exercises, at the residence of Councilman V. A. Crawford, who generously gave them a good New Year's dinner.

The concluding service on Sunday night, the 9th inst., will be in the Presbyterian church.
Gospel Hymns will be used at all of these meetings.
The subjects for prayer during the week are as follows:

Sunday, Jan. 2: SERMONS.—"O Thou that hearest prayer, unto Thee shall all flesh come."—Psalm 65:2.
Monday, Jan. 3: PRAISE.—For rich spiritual blessings; for the long-suffering grace of God; for manifold temporal blessings, private and public; for many tokens of the mighty working of the Holy Ghost, both at home and abroad; for the increase of missionary zeal among Jews and Gentiles; for new openings for the spread of the gospel in many lands; for the preservation of peace among the nations.—Psa. 111; Luke 1:67-79; Deut. 32:1-14; Psa. 119; 1 Chron. 16:1-34; Psa. 107; 1 Chron. 29:9-20.

Tuesday, Jan. 4: HUMILIATION.—For personal sins, family sins, and national sins; for the spread of unbelief and atheism in various quarters; for the fearful extent to which the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eye, and the pride of life, still prevail; for the large amount of intemperance, licentiousness, and other forms of immorality; for the formalism of many, and the cold indifference of others; for unseemly divisions and lack of love among those who are brethren in Christ.—Psa. 51; Jerem. 13:15-27; Philipp. 2:3-16; Ezra 9:1-15; 1 Cor. 5; Jude 1-16; 1 Cor. 2:1-10.

Wednesday, Jan. 5: PRAYER FOR THE CHURCH.—That the people of God may know their high calling and responsibility; that they may be filled with the Spirit, and bring forth the fruit of the Spirit, and labor aggressively for the conversion of souls; that grace may be given to all pastors, teachers and preachers, to proclaim the Word in its simplicity and fullness, and that the Lord may open the hearts of men to receive it; that believers may walk in fellowship and holy love, remembering that they are one body in Christ, and members one of another.—John 17:14-26; Ephes. 1; 1 Thess. 1; 1 Kings 3:22-38; John 15; 12:21; Luke 6:17-36; Ephes. 4:1-16; Matt. 6:5-34.

Thursday, Jan. 6: PRAYER FOR FAMILIES AND SCHOOLS.—That family love may be sanctified, husbands and wives walking together as fellow heirs of the grace of life, and training their children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord; that the young may be early drawn to Christ, and kept from the evil that is in the world; that great grace may be given to all teachers of youth; that the blessing of God may rest on all schools, colleges, universities, and Sunday schools; for all Christian Associations of young men and young women; for the protection of woman and the home, and the reformation of fallen men and women and the equalizing of the scale of morality for both sexes; for all who are in affliction.—Deut. 6:1-15; Prov. 4; Ephes. 6:1-18; 1 Chron. 17:16-37; 1 Tim. 1:1-14; Coloss. 3:12-25; Isaiah 12.

Friday, Jan. 7: PRAYER FOR MISSIONS.—That the Church of Christ may recognize the glory of the commission to "preach the gospel to every creature," and may feel it a privilege to make sacrifices that it may be fulfilled; that far greater zeal for the divine glory, and far more pity for the perishing may be imparted by the Holy Ghost to all the people of God; that faithful laborers may be greatly multiplied, and that all converts may be comforted, upheld, guided and made useful; that the hearts of the unconverted may be opened to receive the truth; that Christian missionaries may be favorably received by heathen rulers and peoples, and that native Christians among the heathen may be kept steadfast and made zealous in seeking the salvation of their countrymen; that God's ancient people, Israel, may acknowledge Christ as the Messiah; that the time may soon come when, according to prophecy, the Spirit shall be "poured out like floods upon the dry ground," and "the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose."—Acts 9:30-41; Isa. 44:1-8; Matt. 9:36-38; Rom. 11:25-32; Isa. 65; Isa. 11; Isa. 42:1-16; Acts 10:34-43.

Saturday, Jan. 8: PRAYER FOR NATIONS.—For the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the nations; for rulers and all in authority; for just and equal laws and righteous administration; for the better observance of the Lord's day; for the prevalence of the Spirit of Christ between employers and employed; that anarchism and all forms of lawlessness may pass away, and men live quiet and peaceable lives in all godliness and honesty; for peace among nations, and the removal of all racial and sectional antipathies; for the abolition of slavery, the opium trade, the liquor traffic, and all other immoral trades and practices; for the blessing of God on all efforts to remove the curse of intemperance; for the cessation of persecution for conscientious sake and of all oppression.—Psalms 47 and 98; Joel 2:28-32; Rom. 8; 1 Thess. 5:12-24; Zeph. 3:14-20; Rom. 14; Matt. 7:12-13; 1 Peter 2:12-20; Hosea 14.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—For as much as it has pleased some persons whose over supply of honesty and over zeal for right has moved them to write and publish sundry and unjust statements as to the action of the board of canvassers of this county, I have deemed it proper, most noble editor, to write you in order that you may be certain of the case as it really occurred.
The attention of the very wise and honest critics is respectfully called to the revised code of North Carolina, volume 2, chapter 16, in which the law is laid down under the significant head of "Elections regulated." After describing the powers of the board of county commissioners in appointing polling places, etc., sec. 2678 says:

"The board of commissioners for each county, on or before the first Monday of the month next preceding the month in which each election is held, shall appoint four judges or inspectors of election, two of whom shall be of a different political party, where possible, from the registrars, at each place of holding election in their respective counties."
The said judges of election shall attend at the places for which they are severally appointed on the day of election, and they together with the registrars for such precinct or township, who shall attend with the registration books, and after being sworn by some justice of the peace, or other person authorized to administer oaths, to conduct the election fairly and impartially according to the constitution and laws of the State, shall open the polls and superintend the same until the close of the election.

"They shall keep poll books in which shall be entered the name of every person who shall vote, and at the close of the election the judges of election shall certify the same over their proper signatures, and deposit them with the registrars of deeds for safe keeping. And said poll-books shall in any trial for illegal or fraudulent voting be received as evidence."
The board of commissioners shall immediately after the appointment of the judges of election as herein provided, furnish a list of names of such judges to the sheriff of their county, who shall within ten days serve notice of such appointment upon the said judges, and if any person appointed judge of election shall fail to attend the registrars of such township shall appoint some discreet person to act as such, who shall be by him sworn before acting, and shall be of the same political party as the absent judge or judges."

Section 2685 also says:
"The polls shall be opened on the day of election from seven o'clock in the morning until sunset of the same day and no longer; and each voter whose name may appear registered, and who shall not be challenged and rejected, shall hand in his ballots to the judges, who shall carefully deposit the ballots in the ballot boxes."
Section 2686 goes on to say that: Immediately after any election the judges of election shall deposit the registration books for their respective precincts with the register of deeds of their respective counties.

Section 2688 further says, after describing the ballot boxes and how furnished, "The said ballot boxes shall be kept by the judges of election for the use of their several election precincts respectively. And said judges of election, before the voting begins, shall carefully examine the ballot boxes and see that there is nothing in them."
In section 2690 it is laid down that the JUDGES of election in each township, ward or precinct shall appoint one of their number to attend the meeting of the board of county canvassers, as a member thereof, and shall deliver to the member who shall have been so appointed the original return or statement of the result of the election in such township, ward or precinct, and the members of the several township, ward or precinct boards of election, who shall have been so appointed shall attend the meeting of the board of county canvassers for such election in the county in which they shall have been appointed as members thereof.

The 2691st section says:
The members of the several boards of election to whom the original returns or statements of the result of the election in the precincts, wards or townships to which they respectively belong shall have been delivered as directed in the preceding section, shall constitute the board of county canvassers for such election in the county in which such precinct, ward or township shall be situated; and the register of deeds of such county shall be the clerk of such board unless the board shall elect another person in his place."
While section 2692 tells us that:
"A majority of the number of the several precinct boards of election who shall have been appointed to attend the meeting of the board of county canvassers as members thereof shall constitute such board."
Section 2693 directs that:
"The board of county canvassers shall meet on the second day next after every election at twelve o'clock noon of that day, at the court house of the county, and at that hour without delay, the members of such board who shall be then present, shall choose one of their number, who shall be the chairman. Provided the board of county canvassers of Carteret, Hyde and Dare shall meet on the seventh day after the election; and as soon as such chairman shall be appointed, he shall administer to each of the other members, and each of the other members shall take an OATH or affirmation in the following form: 'You do swear (or affirm) that you will faithfully and impartially execute the duties of the board of canvassers according to LAW.' And thereupon one of the members of such board, appointed for that purpose, shall administer to each chairman, and such chairman shall take an OATH or affirmation in the same form as that above by the other members of the board. And before proceeding to canvass and estimate the votes in such county, the chairman of the board shall administer to the clerk thereof an OATH or affirmation in the following form: 'You do swear (or affirm) that you will faithfully execute the duties of clerk of this board according to LAW.'"

The board being thus organized and ready for business, Section 2694 instructs them thus:

"The board of county canvassers shall at their said meeting in the presence of the sheriff and of such electors as choose to attend open and canvass and JUDICIALLY determine the returns and make abstracts, stating the number of LEGAL ballots cast in each precinct for each office, the name of each person voted for, and the number of votes given to each person for each different office and shall sign the same."
And Section 2697 says:

"Each abstract of the votes cast for such officers as the county alone elects shall contain an accurate statement of all the persons voted for and the number of legal votes cast for each."
And Section 2699 says:

"The person having the greatest number of legal votes for any office is to be declared elected."
But Section 2700 clinches the matter in these words:
"When the board of county canvassers shall have thus completed the comparison of the polls, they shall determine the result of the election in their county for all persons voted for and proclaim the same at the court house door, with the number of votes cast for each."
Now sir, if the board of canvassers have no power to decide what are legal votes and what are legal returns, what are they to judicially determine? If they are to merely receive and count the votes as sent in with no regard to the legality of the ballots or returns, then the votes they receive are not legal, and not judicial, but the law says they shall judicially determine the result and until that law is repealed no man who regards his oath can count or enumerate votes illegally cast or illegally brought before him.
The board of canvassers of Craven county at the late election are the peers of any electors in this or any other county for integrity, intelligence and all that makes up the character of an honest man either politically or in private life, and attacks upon them such as has been made, seems to have very fittingly come from those who have also attacked the Supreme courts of both this State and the United States for decisions made by those exalted tribunals.
