The city council will be in session tonight.
Three bales of stained cotton sold at the exchange yesterday, at 8 1/2 cents.
Writing in 1887 may not be any more difficult, but somehow a good many 6's have to be crossed.
The mighty are sometimes overthrown. So thought a book agent yesterday when he tackled one of our hardware men.
Large numbers of turpentine hands are leaving for the South every day.
Nearly two hundred went over the A.
& N. C. R. yesterday.
There does not seem to be the usual number of family movings going on in the city as has been heretofore at the beginning of the year.
The Morning News, T. B. Eldridge, editor, is a neat and bright five-column daily just started at Greensboro. We wish it a successful career.
More earthquake shocks occurred at Summersville, Columbia and Charleston on the 31st ult. At the latter place they were the least perceptible.
Wild geese seem to be plentiful in the lower Neuse. An oyster boat arrived on Sunday from down about Core cove, having on board twenty nice ones.
Yesterday was the coldest day this winter, the thermometer registering 16 degrees. The white flag hoisted during the day denoting fair or cold weather.
Both were true.

Born to Death.
Josephine Sheppard, colored, living on Broad street, near Moonshine alley, was seized with a fit Sunday evening and fell into the fire, sustaining injuries which proved fatal in a very short while.
The Largest Oyster Yet.
Mr. I. B. Watson, of Hyde, brought us yesterday the largest oyster of the season. The bivalve measured 8 inches by 5, that is, the shells did. The oyster was very considerably like the mountainers about wonderfully "swank up."

Accident at Thurman.
A correspondent from Thurman writes that last Saturday evening, while driving up stock for his uncle, Willie J. Harrison, met with a serious accident.
He was riding a mule and went up suddenly on a young horse, which kicked at the mule, missing him and hitting Willie on the leg, breaking it just above the ankle. Dr. J. B. Hughes was called and set the broken bone.
Up to this time Willie is getting on well.
Another Hunting Party.
Mr. Joseph Nelson went out on a hunting expedition during the holidays and reports a variety of successes. He killed two deer, and others three, making five in all, besides a lot of squirrels.
Another party went out who succeeded in killing a 300 gun and killed no game; but that was not the fault of the game, but the legitimate result of a fine gun resting on the bottom of the creek while it should be otherwise employed.

The Peas.
Growing the pean in North Carolina would no doubt prove profitable if given proper attention. An account from Greensboro, Ga., says: "There has been many groves planted in various parts of the State. There is a grove of four acres in Wilkes county, in which the trees have attained a height of twenty-five feet, and from which the weight of nuts is being harvested. In the State of Georgia, the pean is planted in the same way, and has been found to grow well."

Evangelical Alliance.

Union services will be held tonight at the Presbyterian Church, on Nassau street. Subject for prayer and consideration:
HUMILIATION.—For personal sins, family sins, and national sins; for the spread of unbelief and atheism in various quarters; for the fearful extent to which the lust of the eye, and the pride of life, still prevail; for the large amount of intemperance, licentiousness, and other forms of immorality; for the formalism of many, and the cold indifference of others; for unseemly divisions and lack of love among those who are brethren in Christ.—Psa. 51; Jerom.
13: 15-17; Philipp. 2: 5-16; Ezra 9: 1-15; I. Cor. 5; Jude 1-16; I. Cor. 2: 1-10.
The public are cordially invited to attend these services.

Personal.
Mrs. John H. Bell and children left yesterday morning for Washington City, their future home, where Mr.
Bell has been for some time holding a position in the pension department.

Messrs. Clement Manly, P. H. Pelletier and C. E. Foy made a business trip to Trenton yesterday.

Maj. W. A. Blount and wife, of Chocowinity, Beaufort county, left on the train yesterday morning for Durham, called hence on account of the death of Mr. Sanders, a son-in-law.

Mr. Geo. N. Ives returned last night from a trip to Raleigh.

On to Raleigh.
The members of the General Assembly are making their way to Raleigh to be ready for the war which begins tomorrow. Senator Chas. F. Warren, of the 2d district, Senator John W. Saunders, of the 9th district, Representative Chas. R. Thomas, jr., of Carteret, and Representative Waters, of Beaufort county, went up yesterday. George Green, jr., and John E. Hussey also went forward as contestants for the seats of Craven.

Representatives F. F. Green, of Jones, and I. B. Watson, of Hyde, arrived last night and will go up this morning.
Senator C. C. Clark and Representative W. B. Lane, of Craven, will also go up today.

"D. R. Walker."
Capt. W. W. Carraway—"D. R.
Walker"—who is so well known in our section, is way up in the cold northwest. An Austin, Minn., paper has the following clever reference to him:
"W. W. Carraway, post-office inspector, was in the city on Monday last, and made a thorough inspection of the postoffice. He found everything in good order, and gave the boys in the office some very high compliments for the manner in which he found the business.
He went away happy. Mr. Carraway, the inspector, is a noble son of North Carolina and weighs 200 pounds, is a newspaper man, and some of his articles of travel published in the Raleigh, N. C. News and Observer, are gems of literature. His account of a northwestern blizzard must be refreshing reading for the people of North Carolina. We wish we had many such North Carolinians in the north."

Further Particulars of the Capture of the Express Robber.
St. Louis, Jan. 1.—Robert Pinkerton and Superintendent Damsel, of the Adams Express Company, arrived here today from Kansas City with Fred Witrock, and Officer Robertson, of Pinkerton's agency, brought Weaver from Chicago. Both were taken to the Four Courts and handed over to the city jailer. Witrock said that he and Haight had planned the robbery, and all stories about Mrs. Haight's having done headwork was mere talk and nothing more. Fotheringham had known nothing about the contemplated robbery and suspected nothing wrong after he (Witrock) had entered the car, until he was thrown down and disarmed. Pinkerton talked freely to a reporter about the case and said: "We have nearly completed the work now and have turned up the larger part of the money, about $50,000. We have not added up all of our funds, but these figures are pretty nearly correct. There are still $7,000 or $8,000 out of it; we expect to recover the greater part of it; so you see the express company are not such heavy losers after all. The major portion of the money was found under Oscar Cook's house. He was an accessory after the fact, and if convicted can be made to serve a good term in prison.
Mrs. Haight knew nothing of the robbery until after it was done, and she has not been arrested. Witrock and Haight did the planning. Weaver weakened at the last moment. He was to ride on the front platform of the express car, and was to give warning of any approaching danger, but he backed out. Witrock had however, to put up $2,000 to induce him to keep his mouth shut. All of that money has been recovered except a few dollars which he spent."

DEED.
Of Bright's kidney disease, at Thurman, N. C., at the residence of her son, January 2, 1887, Mrs. Penelope Hardison, in the 6th year of her age.

P. T. Barnum thinks that he has got the strongest kidney tonic in Junco, but he must not forget the great excitement caused by the sale of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Kinston Items.

Mr. A. Slaughter has assigned to Mr.
Wm. Griswold.
A happy and prosperous New Year to the JOURNAL. [Thanks.—Ed.]

A car load of Georgia turpentine hands went up the road Saturday.
Emancipation day was celebrated by the colored people with parade and speeches.

Mr. Chas. F. Harvey, a former Kinstonian, but now manufacturing tobacco in Raleigh, spent the holidays here.

Prof. Meares returned to Raleigh from Baltimore on Thursday. He will be back at his post in the college on Monday next.

The schools re-open on Monday, Jan.
8d. For hard, honest work, the schools of Kinston have no superiors; though they have few to puff for them in the papers.

Dr. H. D. Harper cut the first watermelon of the season at his office on the first of January. Several invited guests enjoyed the feast. The Doctor is either too soon or too late—which is it?

Notwithstanding the weather, several hunting parties have tried the game this week. But how shall we divide two squirrels among three men and each man have a whole squirrel? Two veteran hunters discussed this question last Friday in Mr. Wm. Moore's old store, and came to this solution: "Three in two you can't."

There was a runaway and smash-up on Queen street last Thursday. Rev. J.
L. Burns had gone into a store and left his horse and buggy standing, un-hitched, near the sidewalk. The horse, without any visible or audible provocation, started suddenly and went galloping down towards the monument. A man ran out into the street to "head him off." This simply caused the animal to take the sidewalk in front of the postoffice. There he smashed one wheel, and, with the rest of the vehicle careered around. In front of Mr. S. H. Abbott's store the top was deposited; onward then, clearing the walk of pedestrians and clerks, till he reached Mr.
Canady's hardware. There he rested and quietly turned and viewed that part of the wreck which was still attached to him.

The ship of the Episcopal Sunday-school came into port and anchored in the opera house on the night of Friday, Dec. 31st. A goodly company assembled to witness the unloading of the cargo.
It was a beautiful sight. The ship was a three-master, with rigging, sails and yards, and anchor at the bow. Before the curtain rose, Miss Carrie Harding sang, with her usual felicitous success, "When our ship comes in," with a chorus of four full voices. When the curtain was up, the well-laden ship was exposed to view. Miss Mamie Hancock personated the captain, a daughter of Santa Clause, who had come from the old saint with a load of presents consigned to the students of St.
Mary's Sunday-school. The cargo was accepted by the superintendent, Mr.
Geo. E. Miller. The crew, Masters Geo. E. Kornegay, jr., Frank Hart-field and Larmour Parrott, then distributed the gifts. It was a most enjoyable occasion, and the arrangements reflect great credit on the contriver, Mrs. G. E. Miller.

fully submit our names to the public as Richlands Items.

The matrimonial fever is still raging.
Mr. D. W. Bostick and Miss Sallie Brown, both of Duplin county, were married on the 29th of this month and came to our county to spend the first few days of married bliss. Willie and Sallie have our best wishes. If nothing happens we can report a similar item in our next; "you needn't say nothin' 'bout it though."

A young man on Black swamp, Charlie N. B., has been visiting a young lady of his neighborhood for several months and had taken a particular aversion to her younger brother as he had been exceedingly annoying.
So to get revenge, he determined to catch the boy's pet cat and smear him like a sheep. But he made a mistake, it being night when he undertook the job, and caught his sweetheart's favorite, and when the poor animal returned to its mistress it was minus fur, and in some places, skin, and was also stump-tailed. The trick was found out on him and now he is in trouble and cannot be comforted, for she gave him his walking papers. We are sorry for you, Charlie, but beg pardon and try again.

Rev. J. D. Stanford has regular appointments on third Sunday in our village. He was quite a favorite with the people as a politician and is equally so as a preacher. Rev. A. G. Gantt returns to this circuit for the third time.
He is highly appreciated by his congregation. DOMINO.

Brace Up.
You are feeling depressed, your appetite is poor, you are bothered with headaches, you are slightly nervous, and generally out of sorts, and want to brace up. Brace up, but not with stimulants, spring medicines, or bitters, which have for their basis very cheap whiskey, and which stimulate you for an hour, and then leave you in worse condition than before. What you want is an alternative that will purify your blood, start healthy action of liver and kidneys, restore your vitality, and give renewed health and strength. Such a medicine you will find in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and only 50 cents a bottle at R. N. Duffy's drug store.

Their Business Meeting.
Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at R. N.
Duffy's drug store as their giving away to their customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply swarming in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, croup, and all other lung diseases quickly cured.
You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size $1. Every bottle warranted.

Swansboro Items.

A happy New Year to all. The year came in warm and rainy.
Our people are busy now getting ready to commence work for another year.

Mr. W. H. Hawkins has a fine mare 84 years old, as round and fat as a young colt, and as lively. Bill keeps her on the mantle piece in bad weather.

Another steamer passed our place this week from Massachusetts on her way to Florida for the winter. Her name is Blanche, her Captain Edwards.

Harry Burns, an old and respected colored man, died at his home near here last week, aged 51 years. An old colored woman named Mousy, also died, supposed to be 100 years old. We have some old folks in our county as well as tall ones.

There was a Christmas tree at Queens Creek church on Christmas day and it was a pretty one. About $100 worth of presents tastefully arranged and distributed by the proprietors, Messrs. I.
N. Henderson and D. S. Rodgers. It was for the benefit of the Sunday-school children at that place.

We haven't had time to reply to Fluke or Puke McGillican's last beautiful burlesque yet; will do it next week.
Guess he is done though and thinks he has done something great sure enough.
Well, maybe he can't get no one to help him write again like he did at first.
Jest so.

The Lake City minstrel troupe played here to a crowded house Wednesday night for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum. This was a rare treat in our village, as many of us never saw a regular minstrel troupe play.
The performance was very good, managed in our county and Carteret by Drs. J. W.
Sanders and G. N. Ennett, A. E. Oglesby and J. Royal.

R. G. W., one of our worthy friends, tried to sell some liver pudding. He asked 12 1/2 cts. per pound, but finally agreed to take 5 cts. provided the hotel keeper would let him eat breakfast out of them. This was agreed to, but friend R. said he'd be dod bugged if he didn't forget to go to breakfast and now says no more liver pudding for 5 cts. per pound for him.

A watch meeting by the citizens at Mrs. H. R. Ward's on New Year's eve night. About forty persons attended.
A number of ladies and gents from Carteret county were among the crowd.
Miss Eunice A. Thomas, Miss Alice Irvin, Messrs. B. H. Irvin and E. W.
Thomas among the number from Carteret county; Misses Cora, Carrie, Hannah and Katie Russell from Bear creek and Katie Yenters from Gum Branch.

An Aged Pedestrian.
Next to a walking match is Mr. R. R.
Sauter's walking fifteen miles in one day, fishing and hunting. He lives at Alhambra, Ga., is 75 years old, has had a running ulcer on his leg 50 years—one half a century—and previous to that day had not walked over half a mile per day for 30 years. Mr. Sauter, the Banner-Watchman and Rev. Dr. Calvin Johnson say that B. B. cured the ulcer and restored him.

"Oh, Josie," said little gleeful Maud, "we are going to have some honey made at our house." "How do you know?" asked Josie. "Because mamma sent the servant after three B's, and I don't know what bees are good for only to make honey."

The Missing Murderer.
Advices from Raleigh report an intense feeling of disappointment at the failure to capture Walter Bingham and on Thursday a demand was made for an increase of the reward from $400 to $1,000. It was hoped that the difference between these sums would be put up by public-spirited citizens, as the present reward is the largest the State can offer.
The failure of the detectives to arrest Bingham and not at all creditable.
His whereabouts are yet an absolute, impenetrable mystery. There are surmises by the score. It is the belief and hope of many persons that he has committed suicide. Some actually think that he has had the temerity to return to North Carolina, and is in hiding somewhere.

A gentleman of Raleigh, who was recently at the place where Bingham murdered Miss Turlington, made a strange discovery. It was of hair, evidently from her head, on the bark of a pine tree, only a few feet from the spot where her blood was found upon the ground. The hair was found caught in the bark of the tree in considerable quantity at a point some four and a half or five feet from the ground. This discovery has given rise to a belief that Bingham choked the poor girl before he shot her, and that in choking her he pressed his head and neck against the tree.—
