The Sheriff and his deputies were busy yesterday summoning witnesses to Raleigh to go before the House committee on privileges and elections in the Lane and Hussey case.

At the election of officers of the fire department on Wednesday the 5th of January, the following gentlemen were elected: Joe K. Willis, chief engineer; E. M. Pavie, first assistant; M. T. Roberts, second assistant; S. B. Waters, secretary and treasurer. These gentlemen are competent and worthy to fill the responsible positions to which they have been elected. Mr. Willis, we predict, will prove a worthy successor to his predecessor, Mr. Revis.

Members W. B. Boyd and Alpheus W. Wood left for Raleigh yesterday morning to attend the meeting of the Grand Lodge of A. F. & A. M.

Maj. R. S. Tucker, of Raleigh, was in the city yesterday attending a meeting of the stockholders of the National Bank.

Dwelling houses and kitchen burned.

The dwelling house and kitchen of Miss E. B. Hedford, who recently moved from Pitt county to Mr. E. D. Wetherington's plantation near Tarboro in this county, were consumed by fire on last Sunday night. Mr. Hedford saved out the wearing apparel of his family and a small quantity of provisions. The houses were worth about $300.

Steamship shipwreck.

The German ship Elizabeth, from Hamburg to Baltimore, was stranded on the Virginia coast about fourteen miles south of Cape Henry, last Saturday morning and the entire crew of fifteen men were lost.

The Little Island and Dam Neck Life Saving Stations attempted to rescue the crew, but it not only proved unsuccessful, but two of the Life Saving crew were lost. The crew of these stations as soon as they assembled with their life saving apparatus made six attempts to shoot a line to the distressed ship, but without success. In the face of almost certain death these brave men of the Life-Saving Service attempted to rescue the crew of this ship with their life boats. Of those who made this daring attempt, Captain Abel H. H. H. and Stephen George Stone, John Lane, Joseph Spratley and Jesse H. H. H. Two other men were washed ashore and were picked up unharmed, but were recommended to be one of the most valuable ships that ever occurred on the Virginia coast.

Now it is right to be afraid, danger is all around us. We must be on our guard. One of the most valuable things that ever occurred on the Virginia coast.

A New Combination, Securing a Daily Line of Steamers to New Berne.

From the Wilmington, Del., Morning News we clip the following item:

"A contract has just been concluded between the Wilmington Steamship Company of this city and the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk, the Norfolk Southern and the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad companies, whereby the steamers Eagle, Vesper and Annie, formerly of the Electric Line of steamers, will be placed on the route between Elizabeth City and New Berne, N. C., connecting with the three railways above mentioned, and securing the shortest route from New York Philadelphia and Baltimore to Goldsboro, N. C., and tributary points.

"The steamers are now being thoroughly overhauled at the Pusey and Jones Company's yards and will be placed on the route in about thirty days, when freight trains will be dispatched daily from Boston, New York Philadelphia and Baltimore, and run through without breaking bulk to Elizabeth City. From this point the steamers will run to New Berne in about 18 hours. The time from there to Goldsboro will be about four hours. The line, which will be called the Eastern Carolina Despatch, will give the Pennsylvania Railroad Company access to the business of nearly the whole State of North Carolina."

It will be seen from the above that President Bryan has not devoted his entire time in trying to outdo Messrs. Clark and Lane from their seats in the General Assembly. A daily line of steamers from New Berne to Elizabeth City, if it has sufficient backing to maintain itself, with the connections above mentioned will prove a powerful competitor to the Atlantic Coast Line for the business of Central and Eastern Carolina.

We regret that this arrangement was not made with one of the old established lines already running to New Berne. Why it was not we are not able to answer; and what effect this new combination will have upon the old lines remains to be seen. It is a big move for the A. & N. C. R. and we hope one that will prove financially a great success.

In order to enable the A. & N. C. R. Co. to faithfully carry out its part of this contract, we learn that the loan authorized by the last stockholders meeting has been secured, the old mortgage and judgment debts canceled and the laying of new steel rails will at once be completed to Goldsboro.

Mr. Bryan has an opportunity now of demonstrating whether or not North Carolina business can be done through a North Carolina port and over a road controlled by the State. We are willing that he shall have his individual opinion about politics if he will work the Atlantic road up to the point of paying a dividend. But, in the meantime, we don't see why he can't do this and be friendly towards Democratic candidates, and distribute what favors the road has to bestow upon Democrats.

Of course, the Governor having determined to take the road out of politics and have it run on business principles, will not bother himself about the politics of the President so long as he is making a success of it, but there are some things connected with his politics which make the Democrats almost use curse words.

The Tournament at Stonewall.

The tournament came off as advertised, on Thursday, Jan. 6th, and was a success in every particular.

Eleven knights, besides the unknown knight, assembled before the Judge's stand at 1 o'clock, and were entertained for a very short time by Hon. W. T. Cabo in a nice little address to the air knights. The following are the names of the competitors:

- C. M. Caroon, Knight of Rip Van Winkle, 8 rings; R. S. Heath, Red, White and Blue, 10; M. D. Spruel, The Girl I Left Behind Me, 8; A. J. Flowers, No Hope, 10; J. M. Sawyer, Bay-boro, 7; J. T. Gooding, Broad Creek, 7; J. T. Dawson, Buffalo Bill, 13; Alex. Hudnell, Aurora, 6; W. W. Hollis, Ivanhoe, 8; J. W. Hooker, Old North State, 5; S. W. Ferabee, Mari Hole, 11; Blunderbuss, unknown knight, 0.

The tie between Red, White and Blue and No Hope resulted in a victory for the former.

The Judges then announced that Kt. Buffalo Bill, Mr. J. T. Dawson, had taken the first honors and entitled to crown the Queen of Love and Beauty. He crowned Miss Lena McCotter. The Kt. of Mari Hole, S. W. Ferabee, was second best, and crowned Miss Mollie Armstrong as first maid of honor. Kt. Red, White and Blue, third best, and crowned Miss Henrietta Brooks second maid of honor. Kt. of No Hope, A. J. Flowers, was declared fourth best and crowned Miss Olivia Westcott as third maid of honor.

The coronation took place at 7 o'clock and supper immediately after. It was said there were six barbecued pigs and one hundred baked chickens, and other good things in proportion. After the supper the ball opened, and was highly enjoyed by all present. The New Berne Star Band furnished music for the tournament, and the string band for the ball. Every thing passed off nicely, and all seemed to be satisfied, notwithstanding the extreme cold day.

"Things Worthy to Be Remembered or Recorded."

In a communication in yesterday's JOURNAL under the caption, "The President of the A. & N. C. Railroad," and signed "Memorabilia." The writer seems to have remembered something and desires to relieve his mind by recording his little ideas in the columns of the JOURNAL. Mr. Washington Bryan, the president of the A. & N. C. Railroad, and Gen. Scales, Governor of North Carolina, with their many Democratic friends, I believe, are fully able to take care of themselves and can defend their railroad policy. I have nothing to do with them politically, and their policy being Democratic, I would not, if I could, defend it. The writer says, "during the recent canvass Mr. Bryan associated himself with the worst element of the Republican party, headed by Bob Hancock, a prince of scoundrels and a distinguished captain in the Holden and Kirk war, having made the arrest of that eminent statesman and Christian gentleman, the late Hon. W. A. Graham." Being the prince of scoundrels he has remembered so well for sixteen years, I have a little to do with this part of his communication and desire to record a few facts to help his memory a little. At the call of Gov. Ellis for troops to aid in defending North Carolina, my native State, I left New Berne, the city of my birth, for Fort Macon on the 15th day of April, 1861, then only sixteen years of age. Later, when the call was made for troops to leave the State for the front in Virginia, I was among the first to appear before Mr. Samuel R. Street—then a justice of the peace, now the genial host of the Gaston House—for the purpose of being sworn in as one of the number. Being under the proscribed age for enlisting, Mr. Street refused to swear me in. Not waiting to be enlisted, I left with my company and served twelve months on the Potomac without receiving a dollar in bounty or pay. My health breaking down, I returned home, but only remained a few months, having recovered my health, I enlisted in Company "B," 10th N. C. State Troops, where I remained until I surrendered with my command at Staunton, Wilson county, delivering my old rusty musket to the 8th New York Cavalry, who had been sent to receive them. This was sometime after Gen. Lee's surrender. In 1869 or 1870 Gov. Holden called for assistance to restore order in certain counties after having proclaimed them in insurrection. I offered him my services which he accepted, and if Gov. Scales did the same I would tender him my feeble aid just as quick.

Should Mr. Stimson, while acting Sheriff, need my services, he could have them to preserve the law. "Memorabilia" is an infamous liar when he says I arrested the late Hon. Wm. A. Graham. It is the first time I ever heard that Mr. Graham was arrested, and he knows he lies when he says I arrested him. I did not arrest any one except Lieut. Col. Burgin, for disobedience of military orders. I have lived all my life in my native county, and no citizen can say I ever defrauded him out of a penny. No one can point out a single dishonest transaction that I ever committed. My good name stands without a spot or blemish. Can "Memorabilia" say as much? Has he not been guilty of some transaction that he would not like recorded? Has he done nothing that he would prefer forgotten? If not, then blaze away, for I shall come after you. I exercise the right of manhood, and proclaim myself a Republican, and fight for the principles I advocate and let every other citizen do the same. I have never appropriated other people's money to my own use; I was never expelled from any church because I was unworthy to remain and associate with Christian gentlemen.

Some things are unworthy, and charity should teach us to forget them; they ought not to be remembered, much less recorded, but having a good memory, I have a few things about some people that it may become necessary to record.

A Correction.

SILVERDALE, N. C., Jan. 4, 1887.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—Will you please be kind enough to allow me space in your columns to correct a mistake that has been erroneously circulated which might have a tendency to prove detrimental to my character? On Monday morning, Dec. 27th, about 4 o'clock, a cutting affray occurred at this place, whereupon one man by name of Haskins was cut very painfully, though not dangerously, and I hear that it is circulated abroad that I am the accused; consequently you will confer a favor by stating that I only separated the parties, and was not a participant. Respectfully, W. D. HANGER.

"I would not live away," said the Poetist, in a moment of poetic rapture. "I would not either," said Jack Billings, irreverently. So we say—but then while we do live, let us hold on to our health and spirits. The surest way to do this, we say, is a supply of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Try it.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Special to the JOURNAL.

RALEIGH, Jan. 11.

In the Senate today the only important bill introduced was to establish a bureau of labor statistics. Committee on penal institutions was announced. P. H. chairman.

In the House the State Teachers Assembly presented a petition asking establishment of permanent State normal school. Among bills introduced the principal were to abolish county board of education; to abolish county government in Edgecombe; to work public roads by taxation; to repeal law allowing agricultural liens; to repeal the appropriation to University; to repeal limited liability clause in insurance law; to extend jurisdiction of Magistrates in criminal cases. A resolution offered by colored Republican endorsing President Cleveland's appointment of Matthews, was voted down, 107 to 3. Death of Rev. Dr. Calvin H. Wiley, State's first Superintendent of Public Instruction, was announced; House resolutions of regret.

Thomas of Carteret made a capital speech in urging the adoption of a resolution of instruction to our Senators and Representatives in Congress, to secure establishment of more life saving and signal stations on the coast of North Carolina. House adopted it unanimously. The following committees were announced: Internal improvement, library and military affairs, with Pearson as chairman of all; railways and roads, Hayes; corporations, Ewart; immigration, McMillan.

La Grange Items.

Mr. Fred McCoy of Newport, an old resident of La Grange, is visiting friends and relatives in town.

Mrs. R. A. Hall, who has been visiting her daughter Mrs. H. M. McDonald, returned to her home in Pender county last Friday.

S. I. Sutton, Esq., our clever postmaster, has very lately fitted up his office with new boxes. The Judge is very attentive to his business.

Another snow deluge has been. We believe John Aldridge and a Boston dude are the champions this time; but Wiley Phelps says don't forget that he and Tom Tillingham are in the stir.

Geo. W. Walters, Esq., our deputy sheriff, captured two negroes in Goldsboro last week on their way to Georgia and lodged them in the county jail for their taxes. Mr. Walters is one of the best officers in the county.

The Rev. A. R. Morgan, principal of the La Grange College Institute, has received and accepted a professorship in Yaddick College, and will leave for his new post next week. The school at the Institute will be in charge of Miss Alice L. Heath.

Newspapers state that Burns's "jumbo" has been more profitable since he deceased than before, his board bill being much less. It has been said by a prophet that if such a calamity should occur in our little town, the citizens would experience the same financial blessing.

Our town dude, learning that Blackwell's bull still lives, after mature deliberation has abandoned the idea of making Durham his future home. He now says he intends becoming a fruit tree agent; we suppose he will hire the widow's horse. We wish him much success. What you girls do next?

The Kinsey School has opened with very flattering prospects. All the old students have arrived and several new ones are expected this session. Mr. Kinsey will soon begin the erection of his new building, which he expects to have completed by June. The Kinsey School now, as it used to be, is one of the best in the State.

Mr. Taylor must have enjoyed his first visit home from Washington City. He informed our chief that he had been promoted to a captain's police in Washington. The good and long-expected news caused him to open his heart, run his hand in, and set "up up." "Here's look to him in his first experience as captain's police." The good news turned out a joke instead of an office.

Mr. A. S. Wooten has tendered his resignation as "Cockshooter" for Street, Walter and Commissioner. Mr. George Beywood Hadley will fill with the same seal as the former gentleman. Mr. Hadley will be ably assisted by Mr. John P. Reid, who will give his undivided attention to the business. This being a branch house of the firm of Deltoid, Blumens & Co., we have no doubt but this firm will do a splendid business.

In a small village, about equally divided by a railroad, two young men of good report and fair to look upon, the one having a love for peace and the other a fondness, almost amounting to love, for music. These young gentlemen had a warning desire, as most young men do, to show their devotion to their choice. After mature deliberation, a full exchange of ideas and plans, and a strict injunction to secrecy, they adopted the following wise and prophetic plan. A heavy investment was made in the purchase of tickets in a chance drawing, for a prize that would be unquestionable evidence of the devotion of the peaceful man or the musically disposed. The lucky (or unlucky) hour arrived, and notwithstanding the large investment, almost amounting to a sweepstake, they drew a "blank." We hope there is nothing prophetic in the drawing as to the future of these young men. "Let peace forever reign." Music hath charms, etc.

A Gift for All.

In order to give all a chance to test it, and thus be convinced of its wonderful curative powers, Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds will be, for a limited time, given away. This offer is not only liberal, but shows unbounded faith in the merits of this great remedy. All who suffer from Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, or any affection of Throat, Chest or Lungs, are especially requested to call at R. N. Duffy's drug store and get a trial bottle free. Large bottles, $1.

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of Mrs. Bettie Riggs, wife of N. R. Riggs, died at Newport, N. C., Sunday January 9th, 1887, in the 25th year of her age. She left an infant child and a number of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. She was a consistent member of the Methodist Church. BY HER BROTHER FREDERICK NEWBERN, N. C.
