IMPORTANCE OF FURNISHING GOOD GOODS TO MEXICO.—In many lines of goods American manufacturers have a well established trade, says the Mexican, referring to its own country, and this satisfactory condition of their business may be attributed to the excellence of the articles sent here, the care taken in packing, and the liberal terms accorded to Mexican buyers. In other lines of goods, especially in those which are extensively sold here by German, English, and French houses, the American manufacturers, with some exceptions, are foolishly regardless of the elemental rules of sound business. It seems to be their policy to send here inferior articles, or when shipments are made of perishable articles, to neglect the same precautions they would take for long routes in their own country. The fact that the Mexican public requires the best grades of goods, and is accustomed to get them from Europe, is a fact which American manufacturers should not ignore.

A young lady belonging to one of the first families of New York, returned from a walk. Her mother who was very strict with her asked: "Where have you been?" "I have just been taking a little fresh air in Central Park."

"Alone?" "Alone." "Are you sure of it?" "Of course I am. Why do you ask?" "Oh, nothing at all, only when you went out you took a parasol, and you came home with a gentleman's cane in your hand."

The young lady has taken the matter under advisement, and will bring in a verdict at an early date.

A man might as well expect to grow stronger by eating fat than his wife by eating fat. Too much fatness is a disease, and turns more into disease than nourishment.

Believe nothing against another but upon good authority; nor report what may hurt another unless it be a greater hurt to others to conceal it.

Avoid an angry man for awhile; a malicious man forever.

In order to give all a chance to get it, and thus be convinced of its wonderful curative powers, Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds will be, for a limited time, given away. This offer is not only liberal but also unexampled. All who suffer from Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, or any other Throat, Chest, or Lung, are especially requested to call at E. N. Duffy's drug store and get a trial bottle free. Large bottles, $1.

GEORGE ALLEN & CO.
1837. THE SUN. 1887.
A. S. ABELL & Co., Publishers,
BALTIMORE.
The Paper For The People.
On the 17th of May, 1887, the Baltimore Sun will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary. From the earliest period of its career the Sun has been a "household word" in the homes of its subscribers, and a synonym for accuracy of statement, fair dealing, promptness, energy and enterprise in the collection of news. It is noted throughout the country for the independence, conservatism and thoughtfulness of its editorial utterances. There is probably no newspaper in the United States whose opinion carries more weight or whose influence is more widely extended than the Sun's, a fact upon which it may justly pride itself as the legitimate result of painstaking care in the preparation of all matter admitted to its columns. The Sun's facilities for collecting news from all quarters of the globe are being constantly extended and improved, and new features are added without regard to expense as the occasion demands.

The Baltimore Weekly Sun has long occupied an enviable position as a model family newspaper, containing not only the news of the world and a variety of literary matter and miscellaneous reading for the family circle, but special features of recognized value, including an agricultural department, which supplies every week a mass of well digested information for the people.

ST. NICHOLAS.
An illustrated monthly periodical for boys and girls, appearing on the 25th of each month. Edited by Mary Mapes Dodge. Price, 25 cents a number, or $3.00 a year, in advance. Booksellers, newsdealers, postmasters, and the publishers take subscriptions, which should begin with the November number, the first of the volume. St. NICHOLAS aims both to satisfy and to develop the tastes of its constituency; and its record for the past twelve years, during which it has always stood, as it stands today, at the head of periodicals for boys and girls, is a sufficient warrant for its excellence during the coming season. The editors announce the following among the leading features for 1887:
A Serial Story by Frances Hodgson Burnett. The first long story she has written for children.
A Christmas Story by W. D. Howells. With humorous pictures by his little daughter.
"George Washington," by Horace E. Scudder. A novel and attractive Historical Serial.
New "Bits of Talk" for the Young Folks," by "H. H." This series forms a gracious and fitting memorial of a child-loving and child-helping soul.
Papers on the Great English Schools, Rugby and others. Illustrations by Joseph Pennell.
A Sea-coast Serial Story, by J. T. Trowbridge, will be life-like, vigorous and useful.
Jenny's Boarding House," a serial by James Otis. Dealing with boys' boy life and enterprise.
Frank R. Stockton will contribute several of his humorous and fanciful stories.
"Drill," by John Preston True. A capital school story for boys.
The Boyhood of Shakespeare, by Rose Kingsley. With illustrations by Alfred Parsons.
Short Stories by scores of prominent writers, including Susan Coolidge, H. H. Boyesen, Nora Perry, T. A. Janvier, Washington Gladden, Rosina Johnson, Joaquin Miller, Sophie May Heskiah Butterworth, W. O. Brodard, Harriet Prescott Spofford, and many others.
Entertaining Sketches by Alice W. Rollins, Charles G. Leland, Henry Eckford, Edw. Estlin, Edw. Eggleston, and others.
Short Stories for Girls, by Louisa W. Alcott. The first—"The Candy Country"—in November.
Poems, shorter contributions, and departments will complete what the Rural New Yorker calls "the best magazine for children in the world."
The Century Co., New York.
